HIS PARTING REQUESTS.

Durrant, in Discussing his Execution, Mani-San Quentin, Cal., Jan. 5 .- Durreut has rehearsed the scene of his own death. At his own request, made absolutely without emotion, he has been told every incident that will mark the minutes of his last hours of life. From the moment that he awakens next Friday morning until Warden Hale gives the signal to spring the gallows trap.

A book and several papers on religious subjects were received at the prison yesterday for Durrant. They were offerings from a woman who resides in Toronto. She was a resident of San Francisco three years ago and has displayed an interest in Durrant's affaire since his arrest for the murder of Blanche Lamont. Deputy Warden Edgar made a thorough inspection of the books and papers and then permitted Durrant to have them. The authorities suspect that some of

DEATH OF AN OLD COLORED MAN.

He Was Highly Esteemed by alf —A Friend of the Editor of the Gazette.

The Gazette's editor received the sad news this week of the death of "Uncle Billy" Johnson, an aged colored man who resided near Danville, Ind., adjacent to the boyhood home of the scribe. He was employed by William Patterson, the father of the writer, for most of the time between the years 1870 to 1880, about which time the son moved west. He was the boy's friend, and during all of the latter's experience at home, and ever since, this old black man has shown the greatest solicitude for the wellfare of the son of his old employer. Why the shouldn't his death make one feel sad? He was the companion in the possum and coop hunts. He was the writer's
