K. OF P. INSTALLATION.

The Boys Meet and Have a Pleasant Little Time.

On last Tuesday evening the members of Doric Lodge No. 20, or at least all those who could be present assisted D. G. C. J. J. Roberts, to install the newly elected officers, which was accomplished in the usual ritualistic manner. After the installation J. B. Simons, the Chancellor Commander for the ensuing term of one year, was presented with an iron gavel by Otis Patterson, on behalf of John Hughes, who made a few fitting remarks. Bro. Simons was taken by surprise completely, but he feelingly responded and thanked his old friend, the donor, for the present and the lodge for their expressions of brotherly good will. The gavel is a beautiful piece of work and has "Pap's" initials engraved on same, with date of presentation. It is unnecessary to say that "Pap" is proud of his present.

This occasion will long be remembered as one of Doric's gala days.
