Three Important Points.

FIRST—Go via St. Paul because the lines to that point will afford you the very best service.

SECOND—See that the coupon beyond St. Paul reads via the Wisconsin Central because that line makes close connections with all the trans-continental lines entering the Union Depot there, and its service is first-class in every particular.

THIRD—For information, call on your neighbor and friend—the nearest ticket agent—and ask for a ticket reading via the Wisconsin Central lines, or address

WEEKLY The MONTHLY

Outlook

Published Every Saturday

13 Astor Place New York

The Outlook will be in 1897, as it has been during each of its twenty-seven years, a History of Our Own Times. In its various editorial departments The Outlook gives a compact review of the world's progress; it follows with care all the important philanthropic and industrial movements of the day; has a complete department of religious news; devotes much space to the interests of the home; reviews current literature; furnishes cheerful table-talk about men and things; and, in short, aims to give fresh information, original observation, and reasonable entertainment.

Beginning with the fifty-fifth volume, the paper will assume the regular magazine size, which will add greatly to its convenience and attractiveness. The Outlook is published every Saturday—in fifty-two issues a year. The first issue in each month is an Illustrated Magazine Number, containing about twice as many pages as the ordinary issues, together with a large number of pictures.

The price of The Outlook is three dollars a year in advance, or less than a cent a day.

Send for a specimen copy and illustrated prospectus to The Outlook, 13 Astor Place, New York City.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmey's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfils every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet both sent free by mail. Mention the Heppner Gazette and send your address to Dr. Kilmey & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.

A MCKINLEY REPUBLICAN PARTY.

From Pendleton Republican.
Since our remarks on Rufus Mallory's reply to the proposition submitted by the friends of Senator Mitchell to the Simon faction were put into type, we received the reply of Donald Mackay, chairman of the republican central committee of Multnomah county. Look of space only prevents its publication in full. It is a remarkable document and bears the earmarks of H. W. Scott, the relentless foe of Senator Mitchell. Although not intended, no higher compliment could be possibly paid Senator Mitchell than the linking of his name with that of Judge Williams, one of the most highly respected citizens of the commonwealth of Oregon.

No one has been more zealous in his advocacy of the Mitchell-republican cause than has Judge Williams. Since the time he first took his seat with the Mitchell-republicans in the state convention of 1896. Every act of his has tended to strengthen the cause of the Mitchell-republicans. Through his effort the delegation to the state convention from Multnomah county was divided between the republicans and the Mitchell-republicans, with the exception of two delegates, who were elected without opposition, as a matter of "persona complimen"—Judge Williams and Sol Hersh. Judge Williams thus having it in his power to maintain, if he had seen fit to do so, the equality of the two contending parties before the state convention, instead of doing so, sided on every occasion with the Mitchell-republicans, thereby casting the vote of Multnomah county in the state convention in the interest of the Mitchell-republicans.

And again:
With this record staring us in the face, how can this committee accede to the statement made to the Mitchell republicans, that Judge Williams would make an impartial arbiter? This committee does not question the integrity, the loyalty, the statesmanship or the great ability of Judge Williams; but it does contend that the record made by Judge Williams in the interest of the Mitchell-republicans will not justify the claim that he cannot be improperly controlled, influenced or biased by that faction.

What do the old-time republicans of this state think of such an unjustified attack upon the honesty, integrity and personal character of that grand old man of Oregon, Judge George H. Williams, by the servile tools of the Simon ring? Only a few years ago, when all efforts to re-elect Senator Dolph failed, and the name of Judge Williams was proposed as his successor, the Oregonian referred to him as the very paragon of political purity, statesmanship, loyalty and integrity, that to George H. Williams was Senator Dolph and the editor of the Oregonian indebted very largely for what they knew about the essence of money and other base questions, and that no other man in this state was better qualified in all respects for the office of United States senator. Now he is not deemed good enough to associate with such republicans as old Corbett, old Mallory, Jo Simon and Mr. Scott, however many of us will still think that he is altogether too good, too clean and conscientious a republican to fraternize with such a notoriously corrupt combination of unprincipled political tricksters.

Now that the Simon ring is disposed to treat with contempt all the overtures looking to a harmonious organization in this state it devolves upon the anti-Mitchell republicans to organize a McKinley republican party, making prominent the two dominant issues, protection and bimetalism by international agreement, and allow Mr. Simon and his disreputable ring to trade their single gold standard and free trade doctrine to their heart's content. They will, perhaps, receive enough votes to win a seat on the bench, which to end their political careers.

LYNCHING AT COLFAX.

One Prisoner Taken From the Jail and Hanged—Another is shot in His Cell and Left for Dead.

Colfax, Wash., Jan. 8.—Marshal Chadwick, the suspected murderer of young Hayden, near Farmington, on the night of October 22, was taken from jail by a mob at 2 o'clock this morning and hanged to the west wall of the courthouse.

Yesterday there was a suspicion that a mob was collecting, but the officers made no preparation to resist. The train from Spokane last night arrived an hour late, at nearly 1 o'clock. A few minutes afterward the prisoners saw a body of masked men march up Mill street east of the jail.

Jailer H. B. Treff, who was the only officer about the courthouse, was awakened and informed that an officer wanted a prisoner locked up. He dressed and came out, and was confronted by masked men with cocked revolvers. Treff was informed that the mob wanted to hang "Blackey" Chadwick, Marshall and "Dakota Slim" McDonald, and demanded that Treff give up the jail keys. The officer led the way to the sheriff's office, opened the safe, got the keys and gave them to his captors.

Twelve members of the mob then entered the jail, taking Treff with them. They first went into the woman's wing, where "Dakota Slim" was confined. When the mob came to his cell door "Slim" protested his innocence and said: "Take 'Blackey,' who admits his guilt, and if he implicates me I will go."

The mob thought this only fair, and went into the east wing of the jail, the cell wing proper. "Blackey's" cell was unlocked and the inmate awakened. He had only time to say: "Don't hurt me. Before God I am innocent." When a member of the mob struck him with a heavy blow over the head with an iron bar, stunning him.

A rope was then fastened around "Blackey's" neck and he was carried and dragged out of the jail and up the narrow stairs to the superior courtroom and to one of the west double windows, where a rope was tied around a standard between the windows and "Blackey's" body was pitched out head foremost at the end of an eight-foot rope and left dangling against the courthouse wall in plain view of people on Main street.

While this was being done, part of the mob went to "Dakota Slim's" cell again. During their absence, the prisoner had stuffed the keyhole of the cell door with rags and fastened a sharp knife on the end of a broomstick. With this spear he kept jabbing through the barred door and to one of the west double windows, where a rope was tied around a standard between the windows and "Blackey's" body was pitched out head foremost at the end of an eight-foot rope and left dangling against the courthouse wall in plain view of people on Main street.

Finally, a member of the mob, catching a glimpse of Slim's shoulder, aimed and fired at him, the bullet splitting on the door and one portion striking the wall outside of the cell. The larger half of the bullet passed through Slim's sleeve, cutting the skin and striking the wall, splattered and rebounded, four or five small pieces striking him on the breast.

Slim fell to the floor, showing the solid door to with his foot at the same time, and exclaiming "My God, they have killed me." One member of the mob was heard to say, "Let's be sure we've killed him." Another said "Let's give him another shot and finish him." Finally, the mob decided Slim was dead and left him.

The mob was at the jail less than 10 minutes when they left. They turned Treff loose. "Blackey's" body was not out down until about 3 o'clock. The mob's visitation was of the quietest character. Treff's family, with rooms directly beneath the jail, did not know of any disturbance until Treff told them after the body was taken down.

Sheriff Sims left yesterday afternoon for Spokane. He is expected to return by noon. Nothing is being done to learn the identity of the mob. The people generally applaud its action. The inquest over the body of "Blackey" is to be held this afternoon.

From the First.

"I suffered with headaches and intense attacks of neuralgia, and became very feeble. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, though so weak I could only take small doses. I felt better from the first and I have not had an attack of any severity since I began using it." (G. A. Sutton, Hillhurst, Washington.)

Rumlain & Co., of Portland, were awarded the contract for sleeping bags.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centers in the stomach, gently stimulates the liver and kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c or $1. per bottle at Slocum Drug Co's, E. J. Slocum & Co., Seattle.

Weather for January.

Rev. I. H. Hicks, the weather prophet, writes the following concerning January weather:

"A regular storm period is central on the 3d, hence it will change to warmer. Barometer will fall, and storms of rain and snow will fall about 3d to 5th. Rising barometer, with cold northwest winds and hard freezing may be expected about 4th to 7th. Reactionary storms, bringing higher temperature and falling barometer, will be due about the 9th to 11th. Snow and huzards need not surprise. Cold wave will follow about 11th to 14th. The next regular storm period is central on the 15th, calling for more or less storms of rain and snow from 15th to 17th. Renewed cold will succeed the storms for several days. On and touching the 21st it will grow much warmer, the barometer will fall, and storms of rain and snow will begin in the west. From 21st to 23d they will move eastward over the country, with a cold wave following the storm from the northwest. Very cold weather will prevail generally for several days after the storm. The last storm period for January will be central on the 26th, bringing change to falling barometer and warmer, ending in more storms of rain and snow about 26th to 29th. Cold, fair weather generally will prevail the last few days of the month."

What Dr. A. E. Hatter Says.
