

A LITTLE SUFFERER

Face, Hands and Arms Covered With Scrofulous Humors—How a Cure Was Effected.

"When five years old my little boy had scrofula on his face, hands and arms. It was worst on his chin, although the sores on his cheeks and hands were very bad. It appeared in the form of red pimples which would fester, break open and run and then scab over. After disappearing they would break out again. They caused intense itching and the little sufferer had to be watched continually to keep him from scratching the sores. We became greatly alarmed at his condition. My wife's mother had had scrofula and the only medicine which had helped her was Hood's Sarsaparilla. We decided to give it to our boy and we noted an improvement in his case very soon. After giving him four bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla the humor had all been driven out of his blood and it has never since returned."

WILLIAM BARTZ, 416 South Williams St., South Bend, Indiana.

ONE MATTER.

A recent visit to Ione convinced the writer that this town is growing—has grown—and will continue to grow. All the necessary business houses of a pushing little city are represented here. Even now, in the middle of winter, there is life. Wheat is still "moving" in the commercial sense, but much of it remains unsold.

Ione has a Klondike of its own, but whether it is worthy of the name, the writer cannot say. It is evident, however, that it has enjoyed a goodly share of prosperity this fall, dealing out that which cheers and often ennobles.

A great deal of grain has been sown in the vicinity of Ione this fall, and as this locality is almost a sure crop-producer, all the farmers want is a good price. With that they are the most independent and prosperous people on earth.

The Gazette found a good many old friends in Ione. He found them happy without exception. Johnny Cochran is running a restaurant, Nat Hale an insurance and notarial shop, T. J. League the postoffice and drug store, Tom Woolery and Chas. Robinson the saloon, while Mat Halvorsen and Joe Woolery each run general merchandise establishments. Bud Hasey is in the hotel business but was not at home. Mr. Haney's brother, Joe, is landlord, while Mrs. Mary Caviness has charge of the dining room. The Gazette representative met W. M. Hagwood, the blacksmith, who gave the visitor courteous treatment. He expects a big business in the spring. A Mr. Keller is also in that business there but the scribe did not meet him. Neither did he see the saddler and harness man. Some young men are running a photo studio with success, for they care more for experience than dollars, just now.

In the list of old-timers, Reub Sperry bobbed up serenely, while Billy Corson, a former resident of The Dalles, is on the roll of new denizens.

The Gazette man found Mat Halvorsen ready and willing to do a little business with the Gazette, and his ad. appears in this issue. Mat is doing a safe business and carries a clean stock. He is succeeding admirably, as he richly deserves. Other merchants of Ione are expected to join the list of advertisers for spring business in the columns of this paper.

The Odd Fellows' hall at Ione is a beauty. It shows up well for the boys down there. There is room for more fraternal work in this field.

While in Ione the writer had the pleasure of meeting Hon. A. H. Weatherford, brother of Hon. J. K. Weatherford, of Albany, Oregon. The former is at present located at Douglas having bought the old Douglas ranch. Mr. Weatherford is a very agreeable gentleman and has many friends where he is known. He has been honored in both the state of Oregon and Washington. Just before the division of Wasco county, in 1885, Mr. Weatherford was chosen as one of the commissioners of the old county, and upon the creation of Gilliam county was tendered the judgeship of that county, but refused this as he desired to serve out his term of commissioner, and thereupon was appointed by Gov. Moody as the short term man. Upon completion of his term he moved to Columbia county, Wash. When Hon. John B. Allen was elected sheriff, Mr. Weatherford was one of the few democratic representatives in the legislature, having been elected from Columbia county. He served his county two terms as sheriff which is a strong testimonial as to his worth and popularity. He has in 1,200 acres of wheat land on the home ranch, and hopes for a splendid crop next season.

R. L. Best, representing Bryant, Brayman & Co. of Astoria, is in town today.

Smith Burch got to this morning from an extended visit to Albany and Corvallis.

Geo. Bleakman is down from Hardman today. He thinks of leaving soon for Alaska.

A practical cutter of Pendleton was looking over the Heppner plant last week with a view of purchasing.

John Carmichael is in today from his ranch north of here. Fall sown crops are looking well, and some of the home ranch, and hopes for a splendid crop next season.

W. L. Gilson, Meyer Abraham, Rick Roberts, Was Herman and Henry Kautz, traveling men, were in Heppner Wednesday last.

Sheriff Matlock has returned from the mountains where he has been, in summer, wintering. He says "it was a good trip, and the weather was most disagreeable."

Two young ladies, of La Grande, sisters-in-law of F. W. W. of the Heppner branch, departed last Tuesday for their home, after spending the holidays in Heppner. The Gazette regrets that it was unable to learn their names.

Billy Stewart has a piece of quartz from a Willow creek mine that shows fine gold in plain sight. It seems "easy" to dig. The claim belongs to Billy, Art Minor and others. The ledge is 25 to 30 feet wide and well defined. Development work is in progress.

C. C. Fucus is over from Eight Mile today on business. He interviewed a representative of the paper that a G. & E. meeting would be held in Lexington on Jan. 20th, at which time the matter of having the post to Heppner will be decided. All members are requested to be present.

Charges for treatment low and reasonable, according to ability to pay.

Inquiries answered, and circulars and question blanks free.

The poor treated free excepting medicine, from 9 to 10 a. m.

References without number at his office.

Curious Cuban Caves.

There is a series of small and large caverns in the marble rocks of the Cuban mountains which are being gradually filled up, and that too in a most remarkable manner. The common land snails, of which there are many species and varieties in Cuba, make these caves a resort during the dry season. They congregate on the floors of the caverns in immense numbers and millions of them never leave. The reason is this: The water which drops from the roofs or ceilings of the different caverns contains a large per cent. of carbonate of lime. When the water evaporates the lime is left behind, and setting as a cement, it glues great layers of the small shells together every year. This process going on season after season is gradually filling up the Cuban caves, and it is only a question of time when there will not be a single cavern left on the island.

Thousands are Trying It.

In order to prove the great merit of Ely's Cream Balm, the most effective cure for Catarrh and Cold in Head, we have prepared a generous trial size for 10 cents. Get it of your druggist or send 10 cents to ELY BROS., 56 Warren St., N. Y. City.

I suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since a boy, and I never hoped for cure, but Ely's Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Osarum, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago, Ill.

ATTENTION REPUBLICANS.

A meeting of the republican club of Morrow county is called for Saturday, January 15th, 1898, at the court house in Heppner, at 2 p. m., for the purpose of selecting delegates to the state meeting of republican clubs, which convenes in the city of Portland on the 24 Tuesday of February, and also to elect officers for the ensuing year. All republicans are urgently requested to attend.

Messrs. Conser & Brock, Heppner, Or.

GENTLEMEN:—I was recently taken with a severe cold which made me very hoarse and rendered me unfit to attend to business. A friend of mine called my attention to your Dr. Bartholomew's cough syrup and I bought a bottle, costing me 20 cents, which relieved me at once and completely cured me. I am subject to throat difficulty and I have found nothing that gave me so much relief as this cough cure.

I am informed that it is excellent for colds, bronchitis, whooping cough and all throat and lung troubles. I beg to remain, most truly yours,
