Recorder Richardson and Treasurer Briggs have both been very faithful and efficient servants and deserve to be re-elected. We do not know whether the councilmen who are soon to retire would accept a reelection or not, but they are entitled to it and this paper would favor them for another term. However, our desire is to see the best men the town affords chosen to these positions.

THE fate of the Corons, one of Seattle's rotten tubs that has been put upon the Alaska route, should be a warning to those Klondike bound to take passage on boats that are reliable and sound, like those on the Portland-Alaska route.
