The Outlook will be in 1897, as it has been during each of its twenty-seven years, a History of Our Own Times. In its various editorial departments The Outlook gives a compact review of the world's progress; it follows with care all the important philanthropic and industrial movements of the day; has a complete department of religious news devotes much space to the interests of the home; reviews our cat lite-store; furnishes cheerful table-talk about men and things: and, in short, sims to give fresh information, original observation, and reasonable entertainment.

Beginning with the fifty flifth volume, the paper will assume the regular maga zine size, which will add greatly to its convenience and attractiveness. The Outlook is published every Saturdayfifty-two issues a year. The first issue in each month is an Illustrated Magazine Number, containing about twice as many pages as the ordinary issues, together with a large number of pictures. The price of The Outlook is three dollars a year in advance, or less than s cent a day.
