

FROM FOOT TO KNEE

Ohio Woman Suffered Great Agony From a Terrible Sore—Her Story of the Case, and Her Cure. For many years I was afflicted with a milk leg, and a few years ago it broke out in a sore and spread from my foot to my knee. I suffered great agony. It would burn and itch all the time and discharge a great deal. My health was good with the exception of this sore. I tried a great many kinds of salve, but would irritate the sore so that I could hardly stand the pain. I could not go near the fire without suffering intensely. Someone sent me papers containing testimonials of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I tried my husband I would like to try this medicine. He got me a bottle and I found it helped me. I kept on taking it until my limb was completely healed. I cannot praise Hood's Sarsaparilla enough for the great benefit it has been to me. It cleanses the blood of all impurities and leaves it rich and pure." MRS. ANNA E. BAKER, Whittlesville, Ohio. You can buy Hood's Sarsaparilla of all druggists. Be sure to get only Hood's.

Hood's Pills are the favorite family cathartic. Price 25c.

Here and There.

E. B. Maybee is in our city today from his home in Dayton, Yamhill county. Statements for the Famous Simple Account File printed at the Gazette office. Born—in Heppner, April 11, 1808, to the wife of P. M. Howard, an 11-pound daughter. "Co's juice" is all right but Low Tillard has a brand of 14-year-old goods that is hard to beat. 603-4. Painless remedy for extracting teeth. If not so stated, no charges. Try Dr. Vaughan's new plan. 604-1. Joe Woolley, the lone merchant, was in town Saturday and helped in the deliberations of the democratic convention. E. G. Noble & Co. are rustlers after business. The finest saddles and harness to be found in Heppner. See their new ad in this issue. George and Ben Swagart departed on Saturday evening for Athens, in answer to a despatch announcing the serious illness of their father. The Gazette carries a full stock of mourning note, correspondence style, with envelopes to match. Those desiring such stationery can have their wants supplied at this office. Dr. J. E. Adkins, dentist, is located at the Palace hotel for a short time. All those in need of first-class, reliable dental work, should call on Dr. Adkins while the opportunity is afforded. 39-21 There's more clothing destroyed by poor soap than by actual wear. "Hoe Cake" soap contains no free alkali and will not injure the finest lace. Try it and notice the difference in quality. Rhea & Co. a-30 Besides keeping the largest assortment of needles, fruits, cigars and notions to be found anywhere in the city, Jas. Hart is now able to supply you with the Portland dailies and all the magazines and periodicals, both foreign and domestic. If you want reading matter, give Jim a call at the Heppner Candy Factory. 39-11. E. W. Rhea & Co. positively guarantee to meet any prices on wool bags. They will not be undersold and their customers may depend on this proposition, as they are in it to stay to the 25-11

PEDRO, A TALE OF IDAHO.

Chas. Beymer is in from Eight Mile today. Peter Bauerfeld was up from Douglas today. Robt. Foster, the sheep buyer, arrived at Heppner this morning. R. B. May, a knight of the grip, was registered at the Palace on Sunday. Sam Hale is over from Sumpter looking after some business affairs in this locality. Peter Bremner and wife were visitors to Heppner from Eight Mile on Monday. Gene Sleeman is confined to his home at present with a serious attack of the la grippe. Fred Rockwell, a cattleman from Denver, is in the city and will be called in this vicinity. A. E. Brundage is reported to be seriously ill at his home two miles above Heppner, on Balm Fork. Mrs. J. A. Patterson returned home on Saturday morning after a visit of a few days in Portland. Mrs. Wilson, the milliner, leaves tonight for one with her stock of goods, and will remain there a couple of days. Wilson Brock was in from C. A. Rhea's sheep headquarters on Sunday. He seems to be enjoying the outdoor work fine. R. B. Wilson, traveling freight agent of the Burlington route, is in Heppner today looking after business for his company. Bert Mason and Chas. Anderson arrived home from Portland, where they have been attending school during the past winter, on Saturday morning. John Kern, the painter who has been working in town for some time past, has decided to return to the country, and will take his old job with Price Florence, up Willow creek. G. W. Phelps departed Saturday evening for The Dalles. After spending Sunday at his old home he goes on to Astoria to attend the state convention which meets tomorrow. Mr. Miller, the new stage man on the Heppner-Canyon City route, commenced business yesterday, relieving Walt Thompson, the old contractor. Walt has retired to private life for a time, at least. Geo. Perry and S. M. Pitter, two of Gilliam county's solid republicans, came in Sunday and departed on last evening for Astoria to attend the state convention. Mr. Pitter is the present county commissioner of Gilliam county. Otis Patterson, editor of the Gazette, arrived home from the East on Saturday morning, and departed on the same evening for Astoria, where he goes as a delegate to the congressional convention. He was accompanied by Mrs. Patterson. C. A. Rhea was in from the ranch over Sunday. He is busy lambing and shearing at the present. The weather has been fine for Sunday and Mr. Rhea will save at least 30 per cent of lambs this season. Other sheep men are meeting with similar success. At the M. E. Church, on Sunday, special Easter services were held. In the evening a missionary program was rendered by the Sunday school and a collection taken up for foreign missions. The attendance at the services was large and the exercises were greatly appreciated. The Ole Olson Jr. company of players arrived from Arlington on Sunday morning, and last evening gave a fine performance of that comical and laughable play at the opera house, which was well received. Tonight the company will appear again in an Irish comedy, entitled Mavourneen. Appropriate exercises were held in observance of Arbor day, by the Heppner public school on Friday afternoon. Besides a sitting program and the planting of trees on the school house grounds there were some field-day exercises and sports, engaged in by the boys, which were quite interesting and exciting.

THE TWO CONVENTIONS.

The populist and democratic conventions met in Heppner on Saturday to take up the work of nominating a county ticket. The former held forth at the court house and the latter at the opera house. The report of the conference committees being heard and adopted, nothing was left to do but to proceed to nominate a ticket according to the plan laid down in the agreement. This gave the democrats the offices of sheriff, clerk and treasurer and the following nominations were made by acclamation: For sheriff, E. L. Matlock; clerk, A. E. Binns; treasurer, Waldron Rhea. There was no hitch in the proceedings of the convention, so far as the democrats were concerned, and all passed off very smoothly with them, as all those who desired any place on the ticket, other than the men named above, withdrew, and there was no opposition whatever. At the populist convention, things did not pass in such an untroubled manner, as the report of the conference committee met with strong opposition, and when it was finally passed, four of the leading delegates got up and walked out, and spared no pains in letting the people know that they were dissatisfied with the way matters terminated. The populist chair of the ticket is representative, E. B. Stanton; school superintendent, Edward Tibbets; assessor, J. M. White; county commissioner, Charles Long. The above named gentlemen constitute the fusion ticket in Morrow county. Many view the ticket as being a strong one but it remains to be seen whether or not the people of the county think so. The Gazette has no fault to find with the nominations, and if the ticket suits the fusionists, we are satisfied.

Turkish War Indemnity to Russia.

Russia has again allowed the sultan to scale down the annual payment of the Turkish war indemnity. In 1878 it was contracted that Turkey should pay $250,000 a year for 100 years; in 1892 Russia agreed to accept $160,000, and now, on the principle of take what you can get, she agrees to accept 25 per cent, or $40,000, over and over again. If you are a Turkish subject, or have any Turkish property, you should know that the Ottoman empire Russia will be there with a long-standing claim.

Series Accident.

From Arlington Review. C. W. Peters was badly injured by a horse last Friday. The horse struck him knocking him down, when he struck him five or six times more, breaking his jaw in a horrible manner and bruising him about the head considerable. Mr. Smythe and R. T. Cox were returning from a trip to Kitchikan, and they were requested to hurry into Arlington and send the doctor. They were driving a cart, and it ran away, upsetting the buggy, throwing Mr. Cox and Mr. Smythe out. Mr. Smythe held to the lines and was dragged quite a distance, bruising him considerably about the chest. The buggy was smashed up pretty well.
