

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

Congressman, Second District, MALCOLM A. MOODY, of The Dalles. Governor, T. T. GERR, of McCleary. Justice of the Supreme Court, FRANK A. MOORE, of St. Helens. Secretary of State, FRANK I. DUNBAR, of Astoria. State Treasurer, C. S. MOORE, of Klamath Falls. Superintendent Public Instruction, J. H. ACKERMAN, of Portland. State Printer, W. H. LEEDS, of Ashland. Attorney General, D. E. N. BLACKBURN, of Albany. Prosecuting Attorney, Sixth District, HENRY J. BEAN, of Pendleton.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

For Representative, E. L. FREELAND, of Heppner. For Sheriff, D. A. HAMILTON, of Heppner. For Clerk, YAWTER CRAWFORD, of Heppner. For Treasurer, MAT LICHTENTHAL, of Heppner. For Assessor, J. F. WILLIS, of Lexington. For Co. School Superintendent, J. W. SHIPLEY, of Heppner. For Co. Commissioner, J. L. HOWARD, of Pine City. For Coroner, E. R. HUNLOCK, of Heppner.

The Gazette is not heralding its coming with a brass band but its circulation can be determined at the Heppner postoffice. Advertisers will please note this.

THE appointment of Graham Glass, jr., to the position of secretary of the republican state central committee is an insult and a slap in the face for every republican who has opposed Mr. Simon and his methods. Mr. Glass is personally a very pleasant, agreeable fellow but he is one of Simon's most servile tools. Last winter at the legislature he was Simon's to the populist headquarters. During the contest previous to nominations made at Astoria he visited nearly every county in Eastern Oregon, having in his possession the Corbett sack with which he succeeded in corrupting the convention. This has all been excused—had all been forgotten—but this elevation to the position of secretary of the republican state central committee revives this scandal, this disgrace, and will drive republicans from the support of our ticket. This is the most unwise act that could have emanated from Joe Simon. Better by far have appointed to the place Hon. H. L. Wells who is neutral on the matter of factions. All the work of loyal papers, among which the Gazette wishes to be classed for it is supporting the republican ticket and will continue to do so, will not overcome the effects of the unwise appointment of Mr. Glass.

NAVAL officials smile at senatorial predictions of damage that will be done to our commerce by Spanish privateers. Instead of having any fears on that score, they think that we shall have so many fast and comfortable auxiliary cruisers on the seas that any Spanish privateer that gets far from home will be extremely fortunate if it escapes destruction or capture by some of them. The Spanish are not ignorant of our preparation in this line, and they are not likely to go as extensively into the privateering business in reality as our sensationalists have made them go in imagination. Besides it is well known that Europe has decided that so long as this country proposes to observe the Paris agreement against privateering, Spain must also do the same.

THE appointment of Graham Glass, jr., to the secretaryship of the republican state central committee cannot give satisfaction to most republicans. Glass is the servile tool of Joe Simon, has been the distributor of funds for corruption purposes, but these are not the worst objections. He is a democrat and has always been known as one until Joe Simon took him in to assist in holding up the last session of the legislature.

Then he became a Joe Simon republican like Martin L. Pipes and W. T. Muir. The Gazette is supporting the straight ticket as it always has, but it gives warning to Mr. Simon that he cannot crowd disgrace upon infamy and carry anything.

THE republicans have put up a splendid ticket from top to bottom, but they are undoubtedly hard up for managers when they have to call on a democrat like Graham Glass, jr. Appeals to vote for our good ticket, under such circumstances, will not have the force that these should. Yet the Gazette, in its sphere, will attempt to do all it can, under the circumstances, for the ticket.

American Securities Abroad. The sales of American securities have been, according to London advices, very large abroad of late. If this state of things holds, there will be an increasing influx of British gold into this market. This demonstrates the faith abroad in the stability of our credit. There is another point of faith for which the people not only of this but foreign countries have good grounds for credence, and that is belief in the efficacy of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for inorganic maladies which affect the stomach, liver, bowels, kidneys and nerves. Dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation and rheumatism are conquered by it. It hastens convalescence, and diffuses a generous warmth and sensation of physical comfort through the system.

LITERARY NOTES. M. PIERRE LOTT has a penchant for dedicating his books to prominent ladies. CHARLES A. DANA and David M. Stone are the only editors of daily papers in New York city who are past middle life. It is said that James Whitcomb Riley talks in his sleep. That probably explains why the genial poet has refrained from entering the matrimonial state.—Rochester Herald.

DR. CONAN DOYLE, the novelist, began life as an eye specialist, but his success as a story teller has induced his abandonment of the medical profession. He is a Scotchman, thirty-four years old.

DR. JOHN MACHINTOSH, author of the "History of Civilization in Scotland," to whom $750 has just been granted from the Royal Bounty, was originally a working shoemaker. He struck literature as a last resort and stuck to it.

EUROPEAN NOBLEWOMEN. QUEEN ANNE, of England, was extremely fond of brandy, and her face became so bloated that among the populace she was known as "Brandy Faced Nan."

The dowager duchess of Sutherland was lately committed to prison for six weeks on sentence for contempt of court. She had burned some papers her husband's will.

The princess of Wales has, perhaps, invented almost as many novelties as those in the knickerbocker trade. She drew with her own hand the plan for the pocket smoking case which the prince carries everywhere with him.

PRINCESS EULALIE left two hundred dollars with the manager of the Arlington hotel, Washington, to be distributed among the servants who served her and her party while she was at that house. They regard her as a princess from her head to her finger tips.

Shiloh's Consumption Cure cures where others fail. It is the leading Cough Cure, and no home should be without it. Pleasant to take and goes right to the spot. Sold by Conser & Warren.

Art of Poisoning. All that eminent chemists know about poisons has lately been told to the crowd of interviewing journalists who have waited upon them, and the papers have published columns upon columns of toxicology, says a Paris correspondent of the London Truth. Everybody now knows that there are animal alkaloids arising from decomposition which are deadly poisons, but whose traces in a corpse are no proof of suicide or murder, because a body itself produces exactly the same alkaloids soon after death. M. Naquet, who, after being fascinated by toxicology, turned naturally to politics, tells us that this subtle poison can be manufactured with the greatest ease by those who understand how to do it. Inquiring people who have a taste for murder combined with chemistry will doubtless master the process as the anarchists have already mastered that of manufacturing explosive.

Thin Blood Where the blood loses its intense red—grows thin and watery, as in anemia, there is a constant feeling of exhaustion, a lack of energy—vitality and the spirits depressed.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda is peculiarly adapted to correct this condition. The cod-liver oil, emulsified to an exquisite fineness, enters the blood direct and feeds its every corpuscle, restoring the natural color and giving vitality to the whole system. The hypophosphites reach the brain and nerve centres and add their strengthening and beneficial effect. If the roses have left your cheeks, if you are growing thin and exhausted from overwork, or if age is beginning to tell, use SCOTT'S Emulsion. To see you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. All druggists, 10c and 25c. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

A School Director Who Conflicted With Webster. The reading class was standing in a row upon the floor of an Indiana schoolhouse, and a bright little fellow was drawing a paragraph about a Roman massacre. The president of the school board was present on his regular tour of inspection, and he pompously requested that the boy "read that verse again." The "verse" was read again. "Ah! h'm!" said the great man in a loud voice, "why do you pronounce that word massaker?" The boy was silent. "It should be pronounced massakre," continued the great man with a patronizing smile. The boy remained quiet, but the teacher finally spoke. "Pardon me, sir," she said, "but the fault is mine if the word was mispronounced. I have taught the class to pronounce it massaker." "But why?" insisted the great man, as a look of surprise was followed by a look of pain upon his benign features. "I believe that Webster favors that pronunciation," said the teacher, meekly. "Impossible," said the great man. The dictionary was brought and the president of the school board turned over its leaves until he found the word. There was breathless silence as he looked up, for there the word was massaker. "I am astonished, madam," he said, at last, "that Daniel Webster should have made such a mistake as that."—Detroit Free Press.

Nationalities in Austria. Foreigners are wont to classify Austria among the German countries. As a matter of fact, her German-speaking population is but limited, and annually losing ground. The increase in population among the German inhabitants of Austria is 5.92, and with the Slavonic races 7.93. Of one hundred marriageable women in the German districts forty-one find husbands; among the Slavonic races the percentage is fifty-two. One of the reasons for this showing is that in the German districts of Austria the economic management of affairs is almost prohibitory to marriage among the younger sons and daughters of the peasants. The homestead goes to the eldest son, whose brothers and sisters become his servants. Among the Slavs the family property is equally divided among all children after the death of the father, and each one is allowed to begin housekeeping on his own hook.

The only Pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla. GATHERED ON THE RAIL. SOUTHERN PACIFIC locomotives will soon use for fuel bricks made of coals and asphaltum. THE narrowest gauge railroad now in use is one of twenty inches in North Carolina, built last year for transporting timbers. THE length of railroads open in Russia increased from 13,340 miles in 1878 to 17,377 miles in 1889, being an increase of 3,937 miles only. THE recent run of the "exposition flyer" over the Lake Shore road between New York and Chicago was the fastest long-distance run on record. The distance of 990 miles was covered in two minutes less than twenty hours. WHEN Queen Victoria travels by rail she pays the companies 75. 6d. per mile for herself, and first-class fare for everyone else in the royal train. This is supposed to make good the loss entailed by the temporary stoppage of traffic. EIGHTEEN railway companies have aided the Columbian exposition by taking $657,500 of its stock and $850,000 of its bonds. Among these the Baltimore & Ohio took $300,000 in stock, and the Illinois Central $50,000 in stock and $100,000 in bonds.

FOR HOUSEWIVES. Don't put a bright colored carpet into a room where the furniture is dull, old or of neutral tints. Don't have chandeliers or hanging lamps with rooms of low ceiling; use side brackets in such cases. Don't furnish a north room in blue or any other cold color; something of a warm tint should be chosen. Don't hang a heavy portiere over a narrow door; generally speaking, hangings are out of place in a small house, or with small rooms. Don't fill the center of the room, unless there is plenty of space on all sides; nothing offends good taste so seriously as the sense of being "cluttered up." Don't have too much of one kind of decoration in the house; two rooms upon the same general pattern are quite enough—an individual scheme for each apartment is better. Don't use all your kindness and gallantry away from home, and let the unpleasantness manifest itself in the family circle; try the other course for a time, and see how that will work—Household.
