

Those Dreadful Sores

They Continued to Spread in Spite of Treatment but Now They are Healed—A Wonderful Work.
 "For many years I have been a great sufferer with varicose veins on one of my limbs. My foot and limb became dreadfully swollen. When I stood up I could feel the blood rushing down the veins of this limb. One day I accidentally hit my foot against some object and a sore broke out which continued to spread and was exceedingly painful. I concluded I needed a blood purifier and I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. In a short time those dreadful sores which had caused me so much suffering, began to heal. I kept on faithfully with Hood's Sarsaparilla, and in a short time my limb was completely healed and the sores gave me no more pain. I cannot be too thankful for the wonderful work Hood's Sarsaparilla, has done for me." Mrs. A. E. Gilson, Hartland, Vermont.

ODD FELLOWS' GALA DAY.

Heppner, Ione, Hardman and the Rebeccas Celebrate.

THE 79th ANNIVERSARY
 It is Completed with a Grand Business Men's carnival at the Opera House.

Never in the history of Odd Fellowship in Heppner has there been such a turnout as was seen in Heppner today. Very early people began to pour in from the country and together with those from Ione, Douglas and down the line who arrived on the train, the town was "chuck" full by 10 o'clock. Odd Fellows' colors and the American flag were seen everywhere.
 The procession started off about 10:30 headed by Heppner's excellent ladies' band, so well known and which has been advertised from Clatsop to Atlantic City. Then followed the Odd Fellows in regular order. It was a representative body of men and among them were noticed pioneers who were here almost as early as the Heppner hills. Judge Barnett and Hon. John Q. Wilson, of Salem, and Hon. Thos. Morgan, mayor of Heppner, completed the line of Odd Fellows. Three lodges were represented, Willow Lodge, No. 66, Lone Palm, No. 82, and Ione, No. 135.
 The march was completed at the opera house after which the following program was had:
 Music.....by the ladies' band
 Address of welcome.....by the mayor
 Invocation.....Rev. C. R. Howard
 Anniversary exercises.....U. G. and N. G.
 Selection.....ladies' band
 Recitation.....Miss Della Reed, of Ione.
 Song....."A Flag Without a Star."
 German Song.....by Heppner's quartette.
 Oration.....Judge Geo. H. Burnett, of Salem.

DINNER.
 Dinner was served at the Palace hotel by Mrs. Von Cadow and was a grand success. Many friends of Odd Fellows were there and it was a most enjoyable reunion.
 This evening the following program will be rendered at the opera house, under the auspices of Sansone Lodge, No. 33, Daughters of Rebekah, I. O. O. F.:
 Music.....Heppner Orchestras.
 Pantomime fan drill.....22 young ladies.
 Song, "Only Me".....Miss Elsie Ayers.
 Recitation.....Mrs. A. E. Binns, Merchant's Carnival.....30 young ladies.
 Male quartette.....M. R. Galloway, W. C. Howard, P. M. Howard, M. L. Akers.
 Carnival
 Song.....Honnie Abrahamick.
 All should attend. Great care has been taken that this entertainment should eclipse anything of the kind ever given here. The management of the same has been in the hands of Mrs. H. J. Strickfaden, a member of the Rebekahs.

The Independent Order of Odd Fellows was introduced into the United States in 1806. Some persons who had been members of English lodges established a lodge in Baltimore in 1819; and this lodge soon received a charter from the Manchester unity. The lodges already established in New York, Philadelphia and Boston accepted charters from the Maryland grand lodge. The American lodges have long ceased to hold friendly relations with the Manchester unity. The United States grand lodge has established grand lodges in all the states and in most of the territories. About 20 periodicals, devoted to the order, are published in this country. American Odd-Fellowship seeks "to visit the sick, relieve the distressed, bury the dead, and educate the orphan." There were, in 1884, 523,318 members of the organization in the United States, and the annual disbursements for relief of families, burials, education, etc., were over $2,015,832; grand lodges, 54; subordinate, 5,002. To become a member of a lodge one must be a white male, at least 21 years of age, and must believe in a supreme being.
 Today it numbers over a million members and is one of the leading fraternal orders of the United States.
 Miss Nellie Horner, a daughter of D. W. Horner, while riding a bicycle on Friday evening, had the misfortune to ride off the bridge across Willow creek at the north end of Main street. Fortunately help was near at hand and the young lady was rescued, but her experience cost her a good ducking. The creek is up and runs very swift at this point and Miss Horner's escape from drowning was somewhat marvelous, indeed.

Two Millions a Year.
 When people buy, try, and buy again, it means they're satisfied.  The Marquam Grand, on Morrison street in the Marquam building, is under excellent management and the public will be royally entertained this winter.
