WEEKLY The MONTHLY

Published Every Saturday 13 Astor Place New York

The Outlook will be in 1897, as it has been during each of its twenty-seven years, a History of Our Own Times. In its various editorial departments The Outlook gives a compact review of the world's progress; it follows with care all the important philanthropic and industrial movements of the day; has a complete department of religious news; devotes much space to the interests of the home; reviews current literature; furnishes cheerful table-talk about men sod things; and, in short, sims to give fresh information, original observation, and reasonable entertainment.

Beginning with the fifty fifth volume, the paper will assume the regular magazine size, which will add greatly to its convenience and attractiveness. The Outlook is published every Saturdayfifty-two issues a year. The first issue in each month is an Illustrated Magazine Number, containing about twice as many with a large number of pictures,

The price of The Outlook is three dollars a year in advance, or less than a cent a day.

Emperors William, of Germany, and Nicholas, of Russis, are very much exercised over the future disposition of the Phillipine islands, and it is thought they will object to the plans of the United States.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The Oregon and Idaho volunteers will be sent with others to hold down the Phillipine islands. An army of by catarrh, which is nothing but an in-10,000 will go, to be commanded by Gen. Merriam. Nine big steamers will be chartered to carry them over. These plans will be held in abeyance until Dewey is heard from. Washington officials expect reports from Dewey to commence coming at midnight. Indications are that American and Spanish fleets are preparing to come together near Cuba. Admiral Sampson has sailed from Key West. No doubt the
