A. B. CROASMAN is the successful applicant for postmaster in Portland. Mr. Croasman is a well known business man and a stalof the present delegation and has beheste of the boss. Such timber them again and again.

JOE SIMON is a candidate for senator, down in Multnomah county, and rather than to be beaten he will use the whole machinery of wagons, backs, buggies, buckboards and the state central committee, of carriages, we have a third carload en which he has supreme control, to route. When you see them you can secure his election. That means other make of wagon without exception. that the ticket will be allowed to Minor & Co. take care of itself. That is a part of Joe Simon's tactics, and that is the reason why this paper is opposing Mr. Glass in favor of a man like Harry Wells, who does not know faction.

THE Joe Simon republicans are responsible for all the useless commissions now burdening the Oregon taxpayers, and for the repeal of the mortgage tax law. What voter can reasonably expect relief from that party?-Roseburg Review.

Morrow county has no admirers of Simonism on her ticket, hence this cannot apply here. Our candidate for joint senator is also alhed against Mr. Simon and his machine. There is only one kind of republicans-republicans.

What the "Phat" Man of the Waitsburg Times Found in Heppner-A Nice Little

Mr. C. W. Wheeler, the "phat" editor of the Waitsburg (Wash.) Times, was here recently in the interest of the What he says is highly complimentary to two members of the Gazette family, and were it not that it concerns another in addition to the Gazette's editor, this paper could not publish it without feeling that in a measure it was indulging in self-praise.

Mr. Wheeler says:

Heppner, the county seat of Morrow county, is a splendid city of perhaps 1500 people, has a beautiful location, and is surrounded by as fine a body of agricultural countr as is to be found on agricultural countr as is to be found on the coast. It is situated at the terminus of the Heppner branch of the O. R. & N. road, and besides its grain, has an immense business in stock and wool. Here I met two old and valued friends, Otis Patterson and Vawter Crawford. Years ago Mr. Patterson was a school teacher in Walla Walla county, and during a vacation learned to set type in the Times office. He afterwards went to Heppner and established the Heppner Gazette, which he still publishes, and which he has made one of the leading which he has made one of the leading the state of the still publishes. Hyud, all of Heppner, Oregon. is Walla Walla county, and during a Ho which he has made one of the leading papers of Eastern Oregon. He also nakes his talents tell in the political matters of the state. In addition to these he takes great interest in fraternal work, and has climbed from the bottom to the top of the grand order of Knights of Pythias of the state of Oregon. He before the County Clerk of Morrow county, May 20. in Waitsburg, in the office of the Waits-burg Times, he learned his trade of printer, and for years was foreman of went to Heppner to accept the position of foreman in the Gazette office, which position he still fills. In Heppner he found his lost rib in the person of a beautiful and charming woman, and now five little Crawfords bless his home.

As a boy he was a model, and as a man he is above reprosch. He is now a candidate for the office of county and the position of the position of the property of the position of the position of the person o the Times office. Nine years ago be didate for the office of county clerk, and, I am pleased to learn, with more than an even chance for election. He should be elected, for he possesses every necessary qualification. He is a fine perman, an expert accountant, very obliging, as industrious as the days are long in June. as honest as the driven snow is white. How I would love to have the pleasure of voting for him.
