THE ROLL OF HONOR.

The democratic roll of honor containing the names of those who voted with the republicans for the war revenue bill passed by the house, which, in addition to numerous new internal revenue taxes, mostly the same that were imposed during the civil war, authorizes the issue of $600,000,000 in 3 per cent bonds, is not a long one. There were only six of them—Cummings, McClelland and Griggs, of New York; Fitzgerald, Massachusetts; McAleer, of Pennsylvania; and Wheeler of Alabama. A few democrats declined voting at all on the bill. Two republicans—Linney, of North Carolina, and Thorp, of Virginia—voted with 129 democrats and populists against the bill, while 175 republicans and six democrats voted for it. A majority of the democratic senators, all of the populist senators, and all of the so-called silver-republican senators are going as far as they dare to go in opposition to the war revenue bill in the senate, but a canvass of the senate has shown that enough democrats will vote with the republicans to insure the passage of the bill, substantially as it came from the house, and as every attempt to filibuster will be at once shown up not much delay is expected in reaching a vote on the bill in the senate. The eight or ten democrats who will vote with the republicans for the bill will be headed by Senator Gorman, who, after many years' service as chairman of the democratic caucus, has resigned that position largely because in supporting this bill he will be acting against a majority of the democrats. It is but justice to say that those who oppose this bill claim not to be actuated by any desire to hamper the fighting power of the government. They seem to have an idea that the issue of bonds authorized by the bill—the only quick way to raise a large sum of money—is in some way an infringement of the rights of their silver idol, and they are therefore opposed to it. The people will probably mostly agree with the republicans, that this is an almighty poor time to be spitting hairs over the financial question.

All the talk now is war. And there will be a battle of stuffed clubs if the country punters don't stop their work on the same of Commodore Dewey. In other words the populace won't "Dewey" a thing to them.

WAR NEWS.

[From 1st page.]

Spain relies with great confidence in Admiral Villamil's fleet. CHICAGO, May 6.—A big surprise awaits the Spanish admiral if he sails from Martinique. He will find that the flying squadron is reinforced and is now composed of the Oregon, Marietta, Buffalo, Montgomery and St. Louis.

Admiral Sampson has been ordered to join Capt. Stark and remain near Martinique. The Oregon has been making rapid time.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Gonzales, the party arrested in this city accused of being the instigator or accessory to the plot of assassinating Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, is still in custody, and the matter will be thoroughly sifted to secure evidence that will convict him and his colleagues.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—President McKinley ordered the bombardment of every Cuban port today, and to continue the attack until every Spanish gun is silent and all gunboats are sunk. The government of Venezuela has ordered the Spanish fleet out of the Caracas suburbs. They were taking on coal and provisions.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—Gen. Merritt, of the United States army, says that he will not go to the Philippines until he has 15,000 more troops.

ST. JOHNS, Newfoundland, May 17.—is to be fortified on account of probable war between France and England.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—So far no new Spanish cabinet has been formed and may not be for some time. The American ship, Alert, accidentally got between the Nicaragua and Costa Rica fleets when they were fighting and escaped without injury.

Gen. Lee has taken charge of several army corps and will lead them on Cuban soil. A big petition has been sent to the governor of Montana to have him remove a member of the state board of education. He enlisted but refused to be sworn in.

Positive orders have been issued at Washington that no news shall be given out from either the navy or war departments.

The arrest of the suspect, Gonzales, was for other causes than that attributed in former dispatches. However, that there was a plan to assassinate Gen. Lee is well known, but it has been forestalled.

A strict censorship on official orders prevails. The world will not know that the great naval battle is being fought until it is over.

WHILE the administration is not disposed to indulge in any boasting or to cross any bridges before they are reached, it can be stated upon unquestionable authority that this government will not change its policy or method of conducting the war against Spain for any diplomatic protest from Europe, whether made by one nation or six nations in concert, not even if supported by a naval demonstration in force, such as France appears to be threatening to make. It was known when Commodore Dewey was ordered to proceed to the Philippine islands and capture a port, to be used as a base of supplies for our Asiatic squadron, that European protests were likely to be made against such action, but that did not change or effect in any way the orders. We are not inviting trouble with any other European nation, but if any of them feel disposed to give Spain something more substantial than their moral support they will not stam pede us with fright. Such action would only mean an extension of the war; it would not change the result—victory for the United States.

THE political pot has not simmered, so far this year, with the intensity characteristic of former campaigns. But it is hard to tell what's coming.

Our last issue was in charge of one of our force not very well acquainted with names in this locality, hence a few errors appeared. "It is human to err," etc.

JOTS FROM MULTNOMAH.

Refreshing Morsels as Shown up in the Portland Tribune—Things You Don't See in The Oregonian.

That $7500 seems to bother Mr. Scott—too bad it does not come twice a year. Down with the legislative hold-up conspirators! Down with the tax eaters! Down with Boss Simon and his gang!

"Hon. W. S. Mason ought to have as many votes for the mayoralty as all his competitors."—(Simon) organ, May 7, 1898. Yes, he ought to—but he won't. Mr. Mason ought to be opposed to Simon—but he isn't; he ought to be the candidate of the taxpayers—but he isn't; he ought to be opposed to the legislative hold-up gang—but he isn't; he ought to be with his friends—but he isn't; and he ought to be elected mayor—but he won't.

Considerable merriment is had at the expense of the editor of the Oregonian, who is said to be perambulating the streets with one of old man Corbett's stove-pipe hats on. It has long been known that Mr. Scott has been wearing a Simon collar but no person thought he would get down to wearing Corbett's hat. Now if he could only get on a pair of Wallie McCamant's pantaloons—the Tribune would be pleased to furnish the hand organ and monkey—free of charge.

Spain has not the ghost of a show with the United States; neither will judge H. H. Northrup when lined up in political battle against Mr. W. H. Calk for the office of county judge. If we judge public opinion correctly there is a wave of sentiment going all over the county in favor of Mr. Calk. Mr. Calk does not hold the same political faith as we do, but we can say this of him without flattery, that he is a perfect gentleman, and this combined with thorough knowledge of law with administrative ability, makes him the ideal and popular candidate. The only kick we have with Mr. Calk is that he was raised a republican and not a democrat. One thing we can pledge for Mr. Calk when he is county judge, and that is those who have business there will never be snubbed automatically, but will be treated gentlemanly when stating a grievance or asking a request.—Trontdale Champion.

It is stated that the organization of the republican party is neglected of the interests of Hon. Thos. H. Tongue. This is, if true, shameful treatment of a splendid republican and a good congressman. The Gazette has no confidence in this organization. Simon will use all the means at his command for himself and this is part of his machine.

The Costa Rican Counterfeiter. For months the Costa Rican counterfeiters have been issuing bogus notes of the government of the island until the amount, it is said, has reached $1,000,000. Inspectors of the secret service bureau were chiefly instrumental in bringing the malefactors to justice. The efficiency of the secret service is undoubted, but it is by no means a secret, but a patent fact, that the service that Hovetter's Stomach Bitters does the weak, nervous and dyspeptic is of genuine value.

There have been from time to time counterfeits of it, but the miniature note of hand on the label, and the vignette of St. George and the Dragon, are not successfully imitable. This tonic absolutely prevents and remedies malaria, rheumatism, liver complaint and dyspepsia.

The Unfortunate Middle. From the Tribune.

Will Mr. Joseph Simon, who nominated himself for the state senate after consulting Harvey Scott and W. H. Corbett, have the kindness to furnish the Tribune with copies of his correspondence with W. H. Corbett "concerning the unfortunate middle the legislature got into."

The Tribune will gladly publish it so that the people may see what those public-spirited and unselfish politicians do for their interests behind the scenes. If Mr. Corbett was, as has been claimed for him, desirous that the legislature should reorganize, then Mr. Scott's recent utterances that the legislature was held up by Joseph Simon becomes rather inconsistent and in no wise excuses the action of either Mr. Corbett or Boss Simon for the part they took in saddling $80,000 debt upon the taxpayers of this state.
