John Gladerons, a wall known Liverpool merchant and member of era that now we should maintain our me was of Scoth descent on both sides. He was educated at Eton, and at present financial system and be ready at Christ church, Oxford. Is 1831 he graduated as a double first class. As a debater in the Oxford a moment's notice to back up our presiunion debating society and a writer in the Eton "Miscellany," he showed himself a strong oppodent in every possible way, and with nent of all advanced measures of political reform-a pronounced conservative. The cor tive party were then looking out for a promising young man who could stiffen their ranks in ment. Gladstone stood for the burgh of Newark, and was elected. In the house of comions in 1833, the young orstor made a decided impression. His manner, his voice, his diction, his fluency were alike the subject of praise. He showed great parliamentary ctpacity. In December, 1834, Sir Robert Peel appointed Gladstone to the office of junior lord of the treas ury. In the year following he gave him the more important post of under-secretary for the colonies. Very soon Peel was defeated in an election and resigned as premier. Gladstone went with him. In 1841 Peel came back again to office, and Mr. Gradstone was made vice-president of the board of trade and master of the mint. He was at the same time sworn in as a member of

In 1847 Gladetone was elected M. P. for the University of Oxford, which he continued to rep resent for 18 years. He advocated the cause of Italian independence in many eloquent speeches. In 1858 he accepted a special mission to the Ionian islands. At that time he published a three olume work on "Homer and the Homeric Age." In 1859 he became chancellor of the excheqper, and in 1860 he carried through parliament a commercial treaty with France. In 1865 he was returned for South Lancashire, and succeeded Earl Russell as leader of the house of commons. Mr. Gladstone became prime minister in 1869. The Irish church was disestablished, the elemen tary education act was carried, and the Irish land bill, but the government was beaten on the Irish university bill in 1873. In 1874 Gladstone resigned the leadership of the liberal party. In 1880 he became again premier, after the defeat of the distaell administration polls. In 1885 he again resigned. After the short-lived administration of Lord Sallabury, Gladstone again came into power, and signalized his return to office by presenting his Irish land and home rule bill-It was rejected on June 7, 1886. In consequence of this, parliament was dissolved. Gladstone and his colleagues appealed to the country, but were defeated. For the time the ministerial career of Mr. Gladstone was closed, but as member of Midlothian he continued to lead his party

He continued to lead his party until last year when his age began to tell and the signs of dis solution were apparent.] CLINTON, Iowa, May 19.—Over a score of lives were lost and thousands of dollars worth of property raised by the cyclone in Clinton and Jackson counties. A Chicago special from Washington says: Gen. Merritt will have 15,000 troops, including 4,000 regulars, for the Philippines. It is declared to be the intention of the administration to push troops into the Philippines until there is force enough to govern every island now owned by Spain.

PORTO RICO, May 19.-The people are wildly excited because they fear another bombardment. The Spanish admit that two ships were damaged and four dismantied in a recent engagement. The New York Cable Co., will accept no message of the movements of ships or troops.

TACOMA, May 19.—The third battalion of Washington volunteers has received orders not to start for San Francisco.

ST. PIERRE, Martinique, May 19.-The Spanish torpedo boat, Terror, is still here, but may sail at any hour. Three unknown vessels passed today with coal, buster' in our locality should be on going northwest, presumably to join the Spanish fleet.

HAVANA, May 19.—San Diego de Cuba has been bombarded but no great damage has been done. MONTREAL, May 19.—Senor Polo has secured a coal depot on the south coast of Newfoundland, where the Cadiz squadron will coal before attacking the Atlantic seaboard.

The above is not believed to be true because England would not permit such a breach of neutrality.-Ep.] SAN FRANCISCO, May 18 .- The Charleston is back at Mare Island with her condensers out of order. MORANT, Jamaica, May 19.—The Spanish fleet has been sighted off this coast headed for Santiago de Cuba, going at full speed.

HALIFAX, May 19.-Nine warships were sighted off the Cavan Cove, on the west coast of Nova Scotia, this morning, moving in a southerly direction.

GIBRALTAR, May 19.-A number of British soldiers landed on Spanish soil today and were fired upon by a sentry, who wounded one

KEY WEST, May 20 .- As a result of the recent bombardment at Cardenas, the Spanish lose 300 killed and 700 wounded.

REPUBLICAN SPEAKING

Hons. M. A. Moody and C. W. Fulton Ad-

As per previous arrangement, Hone, M. A. Moody and C. W. Fulton addressed the people of Heppner at the opera house on last Wednesday evening. The ladies' band regaled the large crowd with splendid tunes at intervals during the meeting, which aided much in its

The speakers were introduced by Otis Patterson, as the Morrow county member of the congressional committee. Mr. Moody said that he was not a talker, but just a plain business man, and that if elected he would faithfully serve the interests of his constituents. He was well received.

Mr. Fulton is no stranger to Heppner people who admire his splendid delivery. his masterful argument and sincerity of purpose. Thus did he impress all in his talk of about an hour, on Wednesday evening. He could have talked two bours, if the time of leaving on the train would have permitted, but such was not

Mr. Fulton's talk began with a compliment to the ladies, a great number being present and among his most interested suditors. He then told of the necessity of keeping men in congress in touch with the administration, paying it a compliment that brought forth tremendous applause He talked also of the money question, saying in part that this was not a time to deal in theories, with this great nation plunged in war. He said that he was a friend of silver and see snything that would help out the money that no one could question.

There were a great many of the opposite faith in the audience, and they remained throughout the speech, seemingly much interested. Mr. Fulton was very respectful, paying a high tribute to our American citizenship, regardless of party.

Mr. Fulton departed for home on Wednesday's train, while Mr. Moody took the stage for Grant county yesterday n orning. Both report a splendid reception all through Gilliam and Grant
