GENERAL PASSENGER LINES

DEPARTMENT. MILWAUKEE, Nov. 5, 1897. PATRONS of the Wisconsin Central Lines in passing through Chicago may require some assistance in the way of having their hand baggage taken form or to train and carriage or bus, or in many other ways, and they will find all that is desired in this respect in the service of the Ushers at the Grand Central Passenger Station, who have recently been uniformed with brown suit and red cap. They will be in waiting at all trains prepared to assist passengers, and it is hoped that our patrons will fully avail themselves of this additional provision for their comfort.

HOME FROM ALASKA

News of People Well-Known in Pendleto But Now in Alaska. From the E. O.

Ed. Strabon and Glen Bushee left this city the latter part of February with hopes of making a fortune in the farfamed country of Alaska. This morning they returned, accompanied by Jack Matlock, whose uncle, Wm. Matlock, is running a brewery at Skaguay, with tales of cold weather and few chances of making money in the "frozen north." Mr. Strahon was engaged in conducting a pack train of the Besgle-Matlock company, from Skaguay over the famous White Pass to Lake Bennett, and made five trips in that capacity when he was taken ill at Skaguay. As soon as able, he prepared to return and Glenn Bushee, who had also made a trip or two with him, seeing no chance of bettering his condition, decided to accompany his fellow townsman home. Just as they were about to start Jack Maticok joined the party and together they made the
