The Gazette.

TUESDAY, MAY 31, 1898.

The Gazette is not heralding its coming with a brass band but its circulation can be determined at representative is a vote for the rethe Heppner postoffice. Adver- turn of a republican senator from tisers will please note this.

THE Gazette had hopes that the local political affairs could be conducted this year without resort to dirty methods on either side. It looks now as though this wish boy, educated in the schools here, of ours will not be gratified. The and should be again honored with Gazette is unreservedly for the the superintendency of our schools. republican ticket. But it does not believe in neighborhood quarrels, and it does not propose to quarrel with the opposition. If on the iff. Dave is worthy of the support other hand, after this respectful consideration, any candidate of that side proposes to launch himself into office by any resort to political filth, either directly or indirectly, is issuing a weekly bulletin for this paper will expose it and fight the information of the soldiers the battle on the lines marked out and loyal Cubans. to the bitter end. The Gazette is not afraid to say what it thinks, but peace among neighbors is an ideal man for coroner. Besides, always best, and this paper has he is a hard-working, representainsisted that our republican friends tive republican. so conduct their canvass. It is not right, however, to hold a man who is being unjustly and violently assailed. We will not do it.

Our friends, the enemy, head their "Union Party Column" in nomical administration of county the Times with the following: "A affairs. He should be re-elected. Ticket Chosen for Personal Worth and not Because of Wealth or Slush Fund Producers-All Up- is the only way to preserve the right, Honest Citizens, Worthy organization and its principles. the Suffrage of All Honest Reform Voters." This certainly does not slur our splendid ticket for there is not enough money in the treasury of the republican committeemen to meet the legitimate printing expenses.

VAWTER CRAWFORD'S standing in this community, after many years' residence, is of the best. It Is it anybody's business is commented on by even his political opponents. His experience To save from further trouble has been such as to fit him for any The outside lookers-on? position where good, clean scholarship is needed.

MAT LICHTENTHAL does not claim that he is the only man running who would take care of the county's coin, and show up every cent of it when called for. But Mat's long residence here and extensive acquaintance makes him a mighty handy man to vote for.

If the republican party can win its battle in state and congressional affairs this year it can subsist under any circumstances. With Is it anybody's business treachery in the state organization and weighed down with Simon's corrupt managers, it is handicapped beyond expression.

J. F. WILLIS has served the county faithfully once as assessor, and asks to be elected to the same place again. His record as a soldier does him no injury at this time when the patriotism of our people is being put to the test.

THE GAZETTE has no use for the republican party's state organization. They will "throw down" the whole ticket for Simon. To carry the Steel-Glass load and then win would be a victory worth recording.

Our candidate for county school superintendent is the regular republican nominee and is deserving as such of the votes of his party. As an educator, he should have the help of all interested in splendid schools.

Hon. A. W. Gowan has been tried for four years as our state senator and has been endorsed by his party who have again placed him before the people,

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

Thursday, June 2. The Morrow County Sunday School convention will be held at Petters Grove. Thursday, June 2, 1898, in line with all former conventions. The Sunday schools of Morrow county bave been benefitted much by each yearly gathering, and it is expected that this year's convention will be as successful as those of past years.

It is not the desire to present a set program this year. In fact, the exercises will be of an impromptu character to a certain extent.
