The Outlook will be in 1897, as it has been during each of its twenty-seven years, a History of Our Own Times. In its various editorial departments The Outlook gives a compact review of the world's progress; it follows with care all the important philanthropic and industrial movements of the day; has a complete department of religious news: devotes much space to the interests of the home; reviews current literature; furnishes cheerful table-talk about men and things: and, in short, sime to give fresh information, original observation, and reasonable entertainment.

Beginning with the fifty flifth volume, the paper will assume the regular magazine size, which will add greatly to its convenience and attractiveness. The Outlook is published every Saturdayfifty two issues a year. The first issue in each month is an Illustrated Magazine Number, containing about twice as many with a large number of pictures.

The price of The Outlook is three dollars a year in advance, or less than a cent a day.

Send for a specimen copy and illustratof prospectus to The Outlook, 13 Astor Place, New York City.

AN OPEN LETTER To MOTHERS.

WE ARE ASSERTING IN THE COURTS OUR RIGHT TO THE EXCLUSIVE USE OF THE WORD "CASTORIA," AND "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," AS OUR TRADE MARK.

I, DR. SAMUEL PITCHER, of Hyannis, Massachusetts, was the originator of "CASTORIA," the same that has borne and does now bear the fac-simile signature of Chart Helitaker wrapper. This is the original "CASTORIA" which has been used in the homes of the Mothers of America for over thirty years.

LOOK CAREFULLY at the wrapper and see that it is the kind you have always bought and has the signature of Chart thickers wrapper. No one has authority from me to use my name except The Centaur Company, of which Chas. H. Fletcher is President. March 24, 1898. Hannel Fitcher

Women in Business.

From the Free Press, Detroit, Mich. A prominent business man recently expressed the opinion that there is one thing that will prevent women from completely filling man's place in the business world—they can't be depended upon because they are sick too often. This is refuted by Mrs. C. W. Mansfield, a business woman of 58 Farrar street, Detroit, Mich., who says: "A complication of female silments kept me awake nights end wore me out. Hard on the Ducks.

A singular story comes from Green point, N. Y. A large mansion in the vicinity took fire, which originated in the main chimney, and the flames were spreading rapidly. A young man raz primitive river names in the Old World to the duck pen and secured a number of the largest fowls. Then he took s ladder, and mounting to the top of the house went to the chimney, from which flames and smokes were pouring, and dropped the ducks one after another into the fiery shaft. This had the effect of checking the flames and the fire was
