

FROM FOOT TO KNEE

Ohio Woman Suffered Great Agony From a Terrible Sore—Her Story of the Case, and Her Cure.

"For many years I was afflicted with a milk leg, and a few years ago it broke out in a sore and spread from my foot to my knee. I suffered great agony. It would burn and itch all the time and discharge a great deal. My health was good with the exception of this sore. I tried a great many kinds of salve, but some would irritate the sore so that I could hardly stand the pain. I could not go near the fire without suffering intensely. Some one sent me papers containing testimonials of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I told my husband I would like to try this medicine. He got me a bottle and I found it helped me. I kept on taking it until my limb was completely healed. I cannot praise Hood's Sarsaparilla enough for the great benefit it has been to me. It cleanses the blood of all impurities and leaves it rich and pure." Mrs. ANNA E. BAKER, Whitesey, Ohio.

You can buy Hood's Sarsaparilla of all druggists. Be sure to get only Hood's.

DEATH OF F. K. BARTHOLOMEW.

A Highly Esteemed Citizen of Heppner Called to His Long Rest.

On Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, F. K. Bartholomew, one of Heppner's highly respected citizens, died at his home in this city after an illness of some two weeks' duration.

Some two weeks or more ago Mr. Bartholomew was attacked with erysipelas, the result of being afflicted at the time with carbuncles on his neck. At first his ailment appeared to not be very serious, but it was not long before it developed into a very bad case and the best of medical treatment and nursing seemed to be of no avail and the painful news was borne to his many friends that Mr. Bartholomew could not get well, and on Saturday evening they were apprised that the end had come and that another friend and esteemed fellow citizen had been called away to return no more.

The funeral occurred from the family residence, a short discourse appropriate to the occasion being delivered by Rev. R. L. Shelley, of the Christian church, who was assisted in the services by Rev. C. R. Howard of the M. E. church, South. A very large gathering of friends and neighbors of the bereaved family turned out to pay their respects to the departed and follow the remains to their last resting place in the Heppner cemetery on the hill.

Mr. Bartholomew was a member of the Knights of Pythias order at his old home in Illinois, and while he had never put in his membership with the lodge at this place, they turned out in uniform to a man and led the procession to the cemetery.

Thus another friend and neighbor, one whom to know was to admire and esteem, for the many excellent and manly qualities which he possessed, has been taken away. To the bereaved wife and daughter, along with the other relatives of the deceased, the Gazette feels free to express the sympathy of the entire community, and in this their sad hour, it would point them to Him whose ways are not our ways, but who in His supreme wisdom ordeth all things well. He alone can give comfort and consolation in such trials as these.

[F. K. Bartholomew was born in Elmwood, in Peoria county, Illinois, on June 21, 1850, and was, at the time of his death, just 48 years and 4 days old. He came to Morrow county in December, 1895, and had been associated with his brothers, A. G. and H. W. Bartholomew, in the sheep industry. He carried insurance on his life in the sum of $2000.]

Highwaymen on Wheels.

A wheelman of West 48th street, New York, was attacked, robbed and left senseless by two highwaymen mounted on bicycles in Central Park. Repeated accounts of robberies by men mounted on wheels have appeared in the papers in various parts of the country. Those depredators of the health, disease of the kidneys and bladder will likewise escape arrest and pursue their atrocious career unchecked, unless they are arrested by the potent intervention of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the finest diuretic, as well as tonic, known to modern times. It is at the start that disease is the more easily overcome. The use of the Bitters is followed by the happiest results in dyspepsia, liver complaint and nervousness.

The Milton Eagle perpetrates the following: An enthusiastic individual of this city, marriageable, too, by the way, in speaking of the Milton girls recently, said: "Their eyes are tapering and beautifully shaped, as brilliant as stars, and they are without a wrinkle in this or any other eye; their brows are like two and their 1234567890 exerts!!!! of pleasure." Young men who want to settle down and be happy should read this closely, do not let its reliability but try to em-- the situation.

The Marquam Grand, on Morrison street in the Marquam building, is under excellent management and the public will be royally entertained this winter. New companies and new faces will appear from time to time at this popular, first-class theatre of Portland, and when in Portland our denizens should not fail to take in some of the fine dramas that will be presented.

A Slight Accident.

While returning from the funeral on Sunday evening, and when near the old Ayers & Hamilton reservoir, the yoke strap broke and let down the tongue of the carriage containing Mr. H. W. Bartholomew and wife and Mrs. F. K. Bartholomew. For a moment it looked as though a terrible accident would happen, but it was averted by Charles Bartholomew, who was driving the team, heading the horses for a fence, upon reaching which the team was stopped. In the excitement incident to the mishap, H. W. Bartholomew jumped from the carriage and received some slight injury by falling on a rock, but aside from this and the breaking of the carriage tongue, nothing serious resulted.
