

Those Dreadful Sores

They Continued to Spread in Spite of Treatment but Now They are Healed—A Wonderful Work.

For many years I have been a great sufferer with varicose veins on one of my limbs. My foot and limb became dreadfully swollen. When I stood up I could feel the blood rushing down the veins of this limb. One day I accidentally hit my foot against some object and a sore broke out which continued to spread and was exceedingly painful. I concluded I needed a blood purifier and I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. In a short time those dreadful sores which had caused me so much suffering, began to heal. I kept on faithfully with Hood's Sarsaparilla, and in a short time my limb was completely healed and the sores gave me no more pain. I cannot be too thankful for the wonderful work Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me. Mrs. A. E. GIBSON, Hartland, Vermont.

July 27th, to the wife of Jim H. Hayes a 12-pound boy. Dr. McSword is about as proud of the boy, whom he terms a "great strapping, double-fisted chap" as his dad. When Jim comes to town you'll hear all about it.

There is no discount on the good quality of our grains and grasses. People here at home recognize that fact. But farmers should save a few samples for strangers to gaze upon at the coming Oregon Industrial Exposition.

Chas. Matteson and Lee Kilburn succeed Charles Tefft in the "Old Matlock Stand". The popularity of the young men insure for them the good will and patronage of those who find an occasional desire to "banish melancholy".

The friends of Mrs. Manning will be pleased to learn that she is resting easily, and that indications are favorable to her making a most fortunate recovery, as the fractured limb does not tend to shorten, as is quite the rule with such an injury.

The little son of Rev. Shelley is making a phenomenal recovery. The doctor, on removing the splints, found the fracture completely solidified, and says that it is a matter of a very short time when the little fellow will resume association with his playmates.

Bountiful harvests will bless the producer of the Northwest this year, and when the crop is gathered he can take his family to the Oregon Industrial Exposition at Portland, where they will find amusement and instruction of a most healthful kind.

September 221 to October 22d of this year will be a month marked by great results for the producers of the Northwest, for during those days the product of their labor will be gathered together and attractively displayed at the Oregon Industrial Exposition.

Dr. John W. Rasmus, of the "Red-Right", ever on the alert for something new, can furnish you the finest cocktails in the land—Manhattan, Jersey, Vermouth or Gin—made by an artist in the business. Drop in and take the taste out of your mouth.

It is reported that Leonard Aker's invention of a clamp, used in the manufacture of drapers for a threshing machine, will, beyond a doubt, reward him with an independent fortune. Who will be Morrow county's next inventive genius to come to the front?

Cordray, the pioneer theatre man of Portland in the line of "popular prices," has refitted the Washington St. theatre, formerly known as the "New Park." Cordray always has something new, and our people, when below, can spend a pleasant evening at his place.

If you want the latest war news, the freshest local happenings, city or country, get the Gazette, semi-weekly, Tuesday and Friday. Patronage helps make a paper. Compare it with those of other towns the size of Heppner and the Gazette will not suffer thereby.

At the Heppner Candy Factory is the place to get cool, refreshing summer drinks. Jas. Hart can furnish you milk shakes, soda, ice cream soda, orange wine, peach cider, etc. Ice cream booths nicely fitted up. Come and try the Dewey flavor—a new thing and very fine.

Frank McFarland and family came down from Heppner last week and are spending the summer in their country residence at Belmont. Mr. McFarland has sold his Heppner property and will hereafter reside at Portland, where Earl will attend the Bishop Scott military academy the coming school year.—Hood River Glacier.

Miss Leona Griffith, accompanied by her grandmother, Mrs. Rash, of Portland, are visiting her relatives, Mrs. D. A. Herrin and family. Mrs. Rash, who experienced a slight paralytic stroke some time ago, hopes to be restored to her usual condition of health through the influence of our climate. It has been four years since she left Heppner for her home in Portland.

A. M. Peterson, one of Morrow county's successful wheat-growers, came to town on business yesterday. He reports harvesting under full headway on his place of 600 acres, and that his crop, on a whole, will come up to the expectation. His father-in-law, R. K. Simpson, started out Wednesday with a newly purchased threshing outfit, and will be kept busy during the season.

Mrs. George Conser writes her husband that she has taken up her abode at the Seaside Home, and is comfortably situated for the summer. Her niece, daughter of Mr. Shas Conser, the popular S. F. R. B. conductor, is with her. Mrs. Conser retains her interest in the affairs of our little world, from the fact that through her request the Gazette has from the date of her departure been forwarded to her.

Returned From Klondike.

Jerry Cohn, nephew of Henry Heppner, arrived in town Wednesday, having reached Portland from Skagway on the Elder a few days ago. He says not less than 30,000 people will reach Dawson in a very short time, when they will be brought to a realization of their predicament. A condition of starvation awaits many of them, as they have consumed their supplies going in, and those with additional provision realize the necessity of looking out for themselves. Mr. Cohn says that at times merchants extort fabulous prices for goods, and at other times, dependent entirely upon the supply, sell reasonably cheap. Where there are possibilities of person's making a stake, he feels the hardships to be encountered are more than he is inclined to contend with, and in consequence will take his chances for the future in this country.

THE FAIR OPENS AUGUST 2d.

Opening of an Extensive Mercantile House in Heppner.

Referring to the huge display advertisement in this issue readers will note the announcement of a wide-awake business concern. "The Fair" opens up with an assurance of doing a successful business. An invitation is most cordially extended the public to call and examine the immense stock of strictly first-class goods, familiarizing themselves with prices which defy competition this side of Chicago.

NOTICE TO THE PATRONS.

TO THE PATRONS OF THE ELECTRIC LIGHT AND WATER CO.:
It becoming evident that there is not a sufficient quantity of water for all irrigation purposes, the company will have to shorten the time of irrigation. We will try to give you all the time that our supply will warrant us, if you will be prompt in shutting off when we blow the whistle, there will be water for all. This is absolutely necessary.

Dreadfully Nervous.

Gents—I was dreadfully nervous, and for relief took your Karl's Clover Root Tea. It quieted my nerves and strengthened my whole nervous system. I was troubled with constipation, kidney and bowel trouble. Your Tea soon cleansed my system so thoroughly that I rapidly regained health and strength. Mrs. S. A. Sweet, Hartford, Conn. Sold by Conser & Warren.

Beauty is Blood Deep.

Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cascarets, Candy Cathartic clean your blood and keep it clean by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all impurities from the body. Begin to-day to banish pimples, boils, blotches, blackheads, and that sickly bilious complexion by taking Cascarets—beauty for ten cents. All druggists, satisfaction guaranteed. 10c, 25c, 50c.

FOR SALE.

Ranch, 320 acres, good land, 4 miles of Heppner, all fenced, plenty of water, house and barn, 140 acres of summer-tallow, all ready for fall crop. Easy terms. Call at the Gazette office. 654-17

Off for the Mountains.

Yesterday morning at 6:30 o'clock a jolly party of Heppnerites started for the mountains, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brook and boy, Mrs. H. W. Bartholomew, Miss Elise and Master Nelson Bartholomew, Mrs. Dr. McSword and daughter, Miss Mary, Miss Julia Hart, Miss Lena Rhee, and Mr. Jesse Stewart. The gorgeous display of different colored sunbonnets, together with robes, embracing the different colors of the rainbow, caused the Umattilas, Columbias and Pintes, bedecked in their brilliant array of blankets, to turn green with envy. In advance of the coaches occupied by the elder members of the party Miss Rhee, Mary McSword and Elise Bartholomew, with Mr. Stewart as body guard, mounted on their faithful steeds charged to the front, leaving their venerable chaperones behind in a whirlwind of dust. We predict for the party a enviable outing.

Heppner Merchants.

A store may be ever so well arranged and thoroughly organized in business details, but to do business its advertising must not be neglected. A well-written advertisement, displayed conspicuously in the local paper, is dependent entirely upon the successful merchant of a business center. As seasons demand special lines of goods, announce your stock on hand, offering inducements to those who are purchasers. If you are wide-awake business men, the readers of your local paper will know just what your store contains, what they want, and the prices they will have to pay.

Reduction of Grain Rate.

The Morrow County Land & Trust company, through their manager, Mr. R. F. Hynd, has succeeded, after a two-years effort, in securing a reduction in the grain rate from Heppner to Portland of almost one cent per bushel, which makes the rate the same as from Ione. Taking the entire shipment into consideration this makes quite an important item with the sellers, as well as with the business men in general. Many farmers will now come to Heppner to secure the advantage of trading facilities, who heretofore banded to Ione for the one cent additional.

A Sure Thing for You.

A transaction in which you cannot lose is a sure thing. Biliousness, sick headache, furred tongue, fever, piles and a thousand other ills are caused by constipation and sluggish liver. Cascarets Candy Cathartic, the wonderful new liver stimulant and intestinal tonic are by all druggists guaranteed to cure or money refunded. C. C. C. are a sure thing. Try a box to-day! 10c, 25c, 50c. Sample and booklet free. See our big ad.

Married Only a Day.

A rather pathetic case is reported from the Soldiers' Home at Roseburg, connected with the marriage and death of George D. Gorve, a veteran of the civil war, at the home on Monday last. He was married Sunday morning to Mrs. Henrietta Nichols, of Pacific Grove, Cal., and died the next day. There seems to be considerable romance attached to this wedding. The groom had been lying at point of death for some days. Thirty years ago the couple were betrothed, but became estranged, and each married another. Mrs. Nichols hearing of her old lover's illness came to marry and take care of him, having abundant means to do so.

Special Notice.

The Marquam Grand, on Morrison street in the Marquam building, is under excellent management and the public will be royally entertained this winter. New companies and new faces will appear from time to time at this popular, first-class theatre of Portland, and when in Portland our denizens should not fail to take in some of the fine dramas that will be presented.

Thousands are Frying It.

In order to prove the great merit of Ely's Cream Balm, the most effective cure for Catarrh and Cold in Head, we have prepared a generous trial size for 10 cents. Get it of your druggist or send 10 cents to ELY BROS., 56 Warren St., N. Y. City.

I suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since a boy, and I never hoped for cure, but Ely's Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for catarrh and contains no cocaine, mercury nor any injurious drug. Price, 50 cents. At druggists or by mail.
