

BABY'S SMOOTH, FAIR SKIN

A Grateful Mother Writes this Letter—

Tells all about Her Troubles when Baby Broke out with Scrofula Sores. At the age of two months, my baby began to have sores break out on his right cheek. We used all the external applications that we could think or hear of, to no avail. The sores spread all over one side of his face. We consulted a physician and tried his medicine, and in a week the sores were gone. But to my surprise in two weeks more another scrofulous looking sore appeared on baby's arm. It grew worse and worse, and when he was three months old, I began giving him Hood's Sarsaparilla. I also took Hood's Sarsaparilla, and before the first bottle was finished, the sores were well and have never returned. He is now four years old, but he has never had any sign of those scrofulous sores since he was cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, for which I feel very grateful. My boy owes his good health and smooth, fair skin to this great medicine." Mrs. S. S. WROTHEN, Farmington, Delaware. Get only Hood's.

Hood's Pills are prompt, efficient and easy in effect. 25 cents.

For Next Saturday.

John Foster has thrown down the gauntlet to George Swaggart, and George hasn't "done a thing" but pick it up. Since the day of the Fourth, the many friends of the contestants have kept up a constant dispute as to the running propensities of their favorites and now a race is set for Saturday evening. Purse $50; distance 50 yards. Judging from the race ran between Geo. Swaggart and Tom Davidson, which the writer was fortunate enough to witness, Swaggart proved himself a footracer, alright. He is a first-class starter, and once in the lead he gets right down to business, regardless of the other fellow. In fact while Tom was on his back George was scratching gravel livelier. We are informed that Foster has a mighty stride and gathers quick, and if there's not too much wind for his whiskers he will show the old boy his heels. An opportunity will be given those who have a little confidence in their judgment left. The race will be run from the Palace hotel north, and a big turnout is anticipated.

RESIDENTS NOW OF THE DALLES.

Otis Patterson and Family Hit Adieu to Their Old Home and Friends.

After thirteen long years Otis Patterson and family have been called to another field of action. The town of Heppner has lost members whose absence will be felt. As editor of the Gazette Mr. Patterson, through his candor, independence and consistency, has won the admiration of the fair-minded journalists of the state, and succeeded in placing Morrow county in the front ranks of political recognition. He has been an indefatigable worker for his community, and for his friends he has laid aside every consideration of self, consequently there are many here who, deprived of his presence and association, will experience a personal sense of loss. It seems unnecessary for us to touch particularly upon the personal side of his character, or his geniality, kindness and warmth-heartedness, because these qualities are too well known and appreciated, not only in the immediate vicinity of his home, but throughout the length and breadth of the state. In his earnest work for his county and political party he has found it necessary at times to absent himself from his home and business, which have suffered thereby, but, true to his nature, where his presence was demanded there he was to be found. Mr. Patterson, by his devotion to home and business requirements has won the admiration of the entire community, and her kind consideration of those whose misfortune has overtaken, has endeared her to the hearts of all. Their many friends will be ever ready to extend to them a cordial welcome on their return to the place we trust they consider their home.

A GOOD THING.

Let Heppner's Live Business Men "Push It Along."

There is no question as to the importance of the immediate co-operation of our citizens in their endeavor to secure a day railroad schedule and increase the service to seven days a week. In last week's issue we set forth in detail the advantages to the interior merchants by having their freight come via Heppner, saying nothing about the increase in the passenger travel between here and Canyon City and Burns. Now that the saving of time and expense from Portland is being learned travel is increasing at such a rate that action must be taken. The postmaster informs us that Burns and Canyon City have almost doubled their mail on this route. Again we appeal to the energetic business men of our town to take action in this matter at once.

FOR SALE.

The Evening Telegram is making a "grand-stand" play for the benefit of its readers, by inaugurating an excursion from The Dalles tomorrow the round trip from The Dalles being only $2. An entire day will be spent in Portland, giving those who visit the metropolis a chance to make the acquaintance of the town.

The Sumpter News says: Albert Leland and Lewis Stewart, of Heppner, who have charge of Ed Day's sheep in the mountains near Sumpter, were in town Wednesday, and purchased a large stock of supplies of H. Duckworth & Son. Rufus Farns, who has charge of Jim William's sheep, was in town also for supplies.

Farmers and producers of the entire Northwest should now save samples of their fruits, vegetables, grains and grasses, for exhibition at the Oregon Industrial Exposition in Portland, September 22 to October 22. Everybody should take pride in having his locality represented. Drop a postal card for shipping tags to Secretary Industrial Exposition, Portland, Oregon.

Mr. C. A. McCaszar, the gentlemanly agent of the Bankers' Life association, arrived in Heppner this morning, having in his possession a check of $2,000, being the amount of the policy carried by Mr. Fred K. Bartholomew. Mr. Bartholomew was persuaded to take out this policy by his brother on the 29th of May, 1897. Proof was filed on July 18, 1898, just twenty days following his death, and the check was written on the 19th. This prompt adjustment speaks volumes for the company and will lead assurance to those who are in need of a safe insurance proposition at a trifling cost.

A Sudden Death.

Just as we go to press Mr. Hager came to our office announcing the sudden death of Mrs. R. A. Ford from heart failure. Mrs. Ford had just stepped from the kitchen to the pantry when she sank to the floor. An alarm was immediately given by her little daughter, Esther, and Mr. Hager and his wife responded, arriving there in time to place her in a chair where she gave a final gasp. Dr. McFarland was sent for, but when he arrived she was beyond the requirements of medical skill. Mrs. Ford's demise was most unfortunate, as she leaves two children, a boy and girl, with her husband, who is almost entirely blind. The family have been dependent for support upon the usually little boy, who is scarcely in his teens. The community will extend their sympathy and aid in this sad case of affliction. Arrangements are being made for the funeral, at an hour as early as possible to-morrow morning.

THE WATER PROBLEM.

A Necessary Supply Dependent on the Operation of Our Citizens.

Owing to a removal of the pump valve at the power house Saturday, our town for a few hours was without water, which prompted considerable discussion. The writer, making inquiry of the management, found them anxious to bring the public to a true realization of what was necessary in order to perpetuate the supply of water during the season for both household purposes and irrigation. Taking into consideration the population and basing the supply of water necessary for their requirements upon the statistics obtained from cities throughout the country, the management considers the capacity of their well sufficient to meet the needs of the town, providing the citizens will unite in obeying the signals of the power house. In discussing the matter with Mr. Ayers, and later with Mr. Prine, who returned from Hillsboro Sunday morning to assume the management of the plant, we found them very solicitous about the welfare of the town, and went into full explanation of the effort made recently to enlarge the well at an expense of $1,000, hoping thereby to have an abundance of water for all purposes during the dry season we are now experiencing, but their efforts and expense was fruitless. Now that the incessant pumping is absolutely necessary further effort must be postponed until the season will permit necessary shut-downs, when the company will put in new machinery and develop their wells sufficient to avoid any possibility of scarcity in the future. Until then they urgently request the users to comply with their regulations which will, if a united interest can be aroused, enable every one to perpetuate their laws in addition to an abundant supply for household purposes. However, should thoughtless individuals allow their water to run to waste, or continue to run their water longer than time allowed, irrigation will have to be denied in order to supply household requirements.

SWEET MARIE.

Will she Prove Unfaithful to Her Soldier Boy?

The following touching poem was dedicated to a Dalles coquette:

I am lying in my tent, sweet Marie,
And my soul with rage is pent, up in it,
For I know almighty well you have caught an other lad.

And your thoughts no longer dwell, love,
with me.

When we kissed a last farewell, tearfully,
You but worked a girlish guff on me,
Oh, you sweet, bewitching jade, what a clever game you played.

For your tears were ready made, Sweet Marie,
Sweet Marie, list to me: list to me, Sweet Marie,
While I whisper to the winds you're N. G.
You were loyal, you were true, I was all the world to you.

When I dashed for you I blew, Sweet Marie,
When I donned the soldier blue, Sweet Marie,
Like a plume woodcock you stuck to me;
And the smile you used to wear was as full of gleaming glare

As a sunbeam on a tear, Sweet Marie.

How you're cunning head you'd lay, lovingly,
On my bosom while you'd say things to me;
There you'd rest in loving pose, right beneath my nose.

Swiping buttons from my clothes, Sweet Marie
To the Philippines I go, Sweet Marie,
Where the tropic sun will glow over me;
And I'll wander 'tho' the dells with the brown
Manilla belles,

Who are dressed in beads and shells, scantily,
There your face I'll soon forget, Sweet Marie;
I'll be giddy, you can bet, as a flea:
I'll be giddy, I'll be gay, I'll sing the hours away.
