

Those Dreadful Sores

They Continued to Spread in Spite of Treatment but Now They are Healed—A Wonderful Work.

"For many years I have been a great sufferer with various sores on one of my limbs. My foot and limb became dreadfully swollen. When I stood up I could feel the blood rushing down the veins of this limb. One day I accidentally hit my foot against some object and a sore broke out which continued to spread and was exceedingly painful. I concluded I needed a blood purifier and I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. In a short time those dreadful sores which had caused me so much suffering, began to heal. I kept on faithfully with Hood's Sarsaparilla, and in a short time my limb was completely healed and the sores gave me no more pain. I cannot be too thankful for the wonderful work Hood's Sarsaparilla, has done for me." Mrs. A. E. GILSON, Hartland, Vermont.

John Hayes, of Lone Rock, his two boys and other members of the family are afflicted with septic fever. One of the young men has been here under the care of Dr. Swinburne, who now has him about well.

Ditch creek campers have added two bear scalps to their list of trophies. Recorder Richardson feels keenly the disappointment of not being on the ground with the pack of hounds, mentioned in our last issue.

Mr. MacGowan, of the new telephone system, assures the city of Heppner that they will find in Miss Hamilton, who is installed as the new management, one who is recognized by the company as the most proficient in their service.

Dr. Vaughan's step-daughter, Miss Eva Brians, the past week has been familiarizing herself with the details of the post-office, under the kind consideration of Mr. Williams, which is an assurance that the office will be kept up to the well-regulated system in vogue for the past four years.

The little two-year-old daughter of Albert Osman, living on Willow creek, above town, died last night at 10 o'clock. The child was recovering from an attack of cholera infantum, when putrid sore mouth and throat developed closing the air passages, causing suffocation, from which she died.

Mr. Abrahamson, the enterprising tailor, is fortunate in securing as an assistant Mr. J. H. Bode from Portland, who recently came from Lynnburg, Va. Mr. Bode is a master of his trade, and has been connected with some of the largest tailoring establishments of New York City and Berlin, Germany.

The office of the Heppner-Canyon City stage line has been changed from the Slocum Drug company's store owing to a lack of room, to the store of Brown & Stewart. Mr. Jesse Stewart has the appointment as local agent at this point. Mr. Miller is fortunate in securing his services and place of business as headquarters.

Mrs. Von Cadow, learning that there was an opportunity in Arlington of securing the hotel, went there this week. Should she feel justified in accepting the proposition Arlington will be very fortunate in getting one capable of running a hotel beyond the criticism heaped upon the average hotel throughout the smaller towns of the country.

The Salvation Army ladies, Lieutenant Watenpugh and Captain Peterson, departed on Wednesday night's train, the former to continue her work at The Dalles, while the latter reports at headquarters in Portland. Until their successors reach here, about the first of next week, the regular evening parade will be limited to Brother Van Winkle and his big drum.

The first load of this season's wheat was delivered at the Wool Grower's warehouse yesterday by G. H. Bellingbrock. From this on Mr. Hynd expects a rush of grain teams. He informs us that the wool buyers have ordered all their wool baled and shipped preparatory to their departure from this field, as some of them have been ordered in by the firms they represent.

Quite a substantial subscription was raised for Mrs. Manning this week. Dr. Swinburn reports her condition very favorable, considering the seriousness of the fracture. It will require a serious tax on Mrs. Manning's patience to await the necessary time for nature to work a complete recovery. The doctor gives her credit on that score and says that her physical condition is very much in her favor.

Jas. Hart spent two days at Ditch Creek this week, and on his return home brought Mrs. Fred Bartholomew home. She reports a most enjoyable time and the majority of the campers loth to leave the shady woodlands. However at nightfall they did it necessary to start a roaring bonfire in order to keep warm with their summer allowances of bedding. Quite a number will soon be journeying toward home.

All sorts of trouble was brewing on Main street this morning. A knowdown occurred, followed by a lug-of-war contest, in keeping the warring faction apart. Spectators were numerous. One of the belligerents was decidedly "on his ear," being held upside down by the postlegs, with his heels fanning the air at a furious rate. Friends of the factions put an end to the "rounds of pleasure" by moral assaion.

Mr. Ed. Turk, of Hamilton, came to town with his wool clip consisting of 44 sacks, which was placed in storage at the Wool Grower's warehouse Wednesday. Upon inquiry as to the condition of roads, he simply referred us to his teamsters, with the remark that they could describe them in terms justifiable. The Gazette appreciates their declaration that another year will catch them going in the direction of Pendleton.

NEWSMEN AT SPOKANE.

They Propose to Entertain Their Guests Next Week.

East Oregonian.

Newspaper men are receiving cordial invitations to attend the meeting at Spokane on August 25th, 26th, 27th, of the press associations of Oregon and Washington, and at which will be present those from Idaho, Montana and British Columbia. The local committee of arrangements sends out the program that will be followed by the pressmen of Spokane, the features of which are:

Thursday, August 25.—This day will be devoted mainly to the business matters of the associations. Sessions will be held from 10 to 12 a. m. and 2 to 4 p. m. In the evening a public reception will be given.

Friday, August 26.—This day will be devoted to recreation. An excursion to Lake Coeur d'Alene has been arranged, leaving Spokane at 8 a. m. and returning at 6:30 p. m. The Northern Pacific railway will place its steamer, "Georgia Oakes," at the disposal of the excursionists for the entire day. A collation in picnic style will be served at midday upon some spot on the lake. Speeches and toasts with plenty of music will be worked in as the time and occasion warrant. In the evening a public meeting will be held in the Spokane auditorium, at which the bright intellects of the men who are met together upon this occasion will be called upon to shine.

Saturday, August 27.—The morning will be devoted to any unfinished business and at 12 noon the meeting will formally close unless otherwise ordered at that time.

General.—In addition to the above programme in outline, a number of features for the entertainment of visitors have been planned, such as a trolley ride, a fire department exhibition, a musicale for the ladies, a Bohemian party at the park, etc., etc. But the details have not yet been worked out and their assignment will have to wait time and circumstance. The committee of arrangements has also planned for free rooms for guests but this feature may have to be abandoned if carrying it out in caring for a large crowd will sacrifice other and more important pleasures. At all events reduced rates will be secured and visitors are specially requested to report at headquarters for assignment immediately after arrival in the city.

Burglary at John Day.

Report reached us yesterday that McCallum & Bayley's store, at John Day, had been burglarized and considerable jewelry, clothing and cutlery taken. The safe had been drilled in several places, but the burglars had not succeeded in getting its contents. All towns and crossroads are being guarded and the thieves, it is thought, will not make their escape.

A Permanent Agency in Heppner.

Mr. C. A. McCargar, state agent for the Banker's Life Association of Des Moines, Iowa, while here recently delivering to Mrs. Fred Bartholomew the amount of her husband's policy, appointed the editor of the Gazette special agent for this county. The fact that most of our local business men are carrying policies with this company at a fractional cost of most old-line companies is assurance enough to those who want insurance to call and satisfy themselves as regards the value of this line of insurance. We have abundance of printed matter for distribution clearly setting forth the principles of this mutual association, which we will give out on application. Call at the Gazette office and talk insurance with us.

Yours truly,
C. McCargar,
Special Agent.

Davidson-Potter.

County Clerk Kelsey has been somewhat discouraged of late as regards the scarcity of licenses which he has been called upon to issue. Being of a genial nature and a married man, he is always desirous of assisting others into that blissful state. Consequently yesterday afternoon, when an applicant came into the office, the smile on the countenance of the young man was not more bland than was that of the aforesaid county clerk. The license was issued to Benjamin L. Davidson and Edith T. Potter, of Hood River. Mr. Davidson made his home in this city during the winter months, and is well known in church circles, being a theological student in the Methodist church. Miss Potter is a popular young lady in Hood River, and has many friends here.—Dalles Chronicle
