IS YOUR WALK CORRECT?

Be Sure That It Is of the Latest 1898 Pat-

There is an "1898 walk" for women, and all the girls in New York who pride themselves or being abreast of the times are learning it. It is quite the "rage on the "avenue," according to the Herald, and the adjacent side streets, and is being imitated on less fashionable promenades. In essence the new feminine walking philoso phy is this: You must walk along quietly and calmly, with much shorter steps than you took during the spring, stepping on the full foot and not the ball of the foot alone, and with your arms held down by your side and not swinging The new walk is far more graceful and effect above named gentlemen be issued, and The "'98 walk" combines athletic vigor with repose of manner, and has not the rush and exaggerated energy of the pedestrian exercise arms. In their attempts to get as far awas as possible from the little steps and quiet notions The public in general is conversant of their grandmothers the girls went to the op-shoulders, too, were erect, and she took long, hold steps. It followed quite naturally that she pened her eyes exceedingly wide also and ooked straight forward.

But the coming in of the tilting hate, pulled still further over the face by vells, has made this mannerism quite out of the question and brought about a completely new fashion of sweet demeasur. Whether she likes it or not, once arrayed to one of the new hats the gir; that would be in style must tip her head forward fratend of throwing it back. Long steps, It may be seen at once, do not go well with this pose, nor swinging arms.
