"THE WORLD'S EGOTISM" (Concluded from First Page.)

save souls! This is the errand which brought Jesus Christ into this world.

But I have left to you your last objection. Yes, you tell me you would be ready to act in the most humble sphere with courage, on one condition—it is that your work bring forth, at least, some fruit.

But such work is so unfruitful, you have seen so many efforts defeated by stubborn indifference, by heartrending ingratitude. Here passes before you the sad history of vain attempts, of humiliating failures.

To these objections, to these arguments from courage lost, let me give you the same answer as before: "Look to Jesus Christ! Was Jesus Christ successful when here on earth? Did He see a recognition of His benefits, harshly rebuffed by His words and converted by His miracles? Did He see the multitudes whom He had fed volunteer for His defense in danger, expressing for Him their sympathy? Did He see the apostles whom He had instructed, whom He had compassed with most tender solicitude, always faithful? Alas, we must confess that no man has had a ministry less successful than that of Jesus Christ! Look at the plan of God, look at what the apostle calls this "holy foolishness."

To conquer by ill success, to conquer through humility, to conquer by surrendering life; this is the victory of Jesus Christ. Perhaps it will be yours no more to you He give to see the fruit of your activity. You, also, may sow in tears; you, also, may invite souls who do not respond; you, also, may multiply the bread of your charity for the ungrateful poor; you, also, may see your best intentions misconstrued, your love despised. Very well. In those dark hours, when discouragement would insinuate itself into your soul, in order to extort the words of the fratricide, "Am I my brother's keeper?"; in those dark hours look to Jesus Christ; think of His unalterable love. His extraordinary patience. His mercy—mightier than all the hatreds that overwhelmed him—and you will find strength to love still, to bless still, even to the day when God shall say to you: "Enter into my rest."

Slueman's drug store, only 50 cents per bottle.

Menu for a Children's Party. A very good menu for a child's party may consist of bouillon, with bread-sticks and celery, creamed chicken in little paper cups, served with tiny homemade biscuits, sandwiched with tongue and white bread rolled with celery, and ice cream, with such light cakes as macaroons and lady fingers. Lemon or orange jelly in orange shells may be served in place of ice cream. Have for favors the bouillon that contain pretty tissue paper caps and bonnets, and a cake containing a ring, or in its place a little gift for each child.—Philadelphia Times.

Love that Alters. "Love is not love that alters when its alteration finds. That is one of the sublimest lines in all literature. It is the final definition of love by the world's greatest reader of the human mind.—Shakespeare. Nearly all women who truly love, love in this sublime way. Men seldom do.

Woman's most glorious endowment is the power to awaken and hold the pure and honest love of a worthy man. When she loses it and still loves, no one in the wide world can know the heart agony she endures. The woman who suffers from weakness and derangement of her power to sway the heart of a man, her general health suffers and she loses her good looks, her attractiveness, her amiability and her power and prestige as a woman. Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., with the assistance of his staff of able physicians, has prescribed for many thousands of women. He has devised a perfect and scientific remedy for women's ailments. It is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a positive specific for all weaknesses, diseases, disorders, displacements, irregularities, and debilitating drains peculiar to women. It purifies, regulates, strengthens and builds. Medicine dealers sell it, and no honest dealer will advise you to accept a substitute that he may make a little larger profit.

"I was afflicted with kidney trouble and I have always had a torpid liver," writes Mrs. C. M. Duffin, Erath Co., Texas. "When I commenced your medicine I was unable to stand on my feet. I used one bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and five visits of my physician. I am now well and have my 'pleasant' appetite. In ten days I was able to walk everywhere."
