Those Dreadful Sores

They Continued to Spread in Spite of Treatment but Now They are Healed - A Wonderful Work.

For many years I have been a great sufferer with various sores on one of my limbs. My foot and limb became dreadfully swollen. When I stood up I could feel the blood rushing down the veins of this limb. One day I accidentally hit my foot against some object and a sore broke out which continued to spread and was exceedingly painful. I concluded I needed a blood purifier and I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. In a short time these dreadful sores which had caused me so much suffering, began to heal. I kept on faithfully with Hood's Sarsaparilla, and in a short time my limb was completely healed and the sores gave me no more pain. I cannot be too thankful for the wonderful work Hood's Sarsaparilla, has done for me." Mrs. A. E. Ganson, Hartland, Vermont.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. It's the best - in fact the One True Blood Purifier.

Local Notes.

To Rent.—Six-room house. Inquire of W. C. Willis. Say, have you tried Smead's nougat candies, yet? Where to get fruits and vegetables—at Smead's, of course. For Sale.—Second-hand baby buggy. Inquire at Gazette office. Those molasses cherries at Smead's are delicious. Try them. Smoke Seidenberg & Co's. Arabian Night and Espanola cigars at Conser & Warren's. Dr. J. W. Vogel, specialist for refraction and defects of the eye, will be here every three months. The Rebekah lodge look forward to a back social next Tuesday evening, anticipating much pleasure. While in Portland Sheriff Matlock called upon A. A. Roberts and found their little son quite ill with whooping cough. Wood, wood, wood. See R. C. Willis for your wood. Cash on delivery. Orders left at Minor & Co's., Gilliam & Bibbee's or Brown & Hughes. Stop that cough! Take warning. It may lead to consumption. A 25c bottle of Shiloh's Cure may save your life. Sold by Conser & Warren. Complain about hard trials! La grippe caught "the devil", the baby and the editor of the Gazette this week. Our girl left, and mother caught the rest.

Rev. Green will preach at the M. E. church, South, next Sunday, Rev. St. Clair being engaged in the revival meetings at Pendleton. License to wed was issued Tuesday to Oscar Williamson and Miss Lulu Baker, of Eight Mile. Oscar's old schoolmates here extend to him their best wishes. Call at the Candy Factory when you want a good cup of hot coffee, coco or chocolate. Fresh oysters in any style. Hot and cold lunches. Try one of our oyster cocktails. W. P. Snyder, the livery stable proprietor, buys only the best hay and grain. Large corrals and accommodations for freighters. Hacks and buggies furnished reasonable. Stock well cared for. For Constipation take Karl's Clover Tea, the great Blood Purifier, cures headaches, Nervousness, Eruptions on the face, and makes the head as clear as a bell. Sold by Conser & Warren. Mrs. Morgan has now a newly invented cream separator at work in connection with her Sand Hollow creamery, which has a capacity of 400 pounds of milk per hour and is thoroughly successful. Shiloh's Consumption Cure cures where others fail. It is the leading Cough Cure, and no home should be without it. Pleasant to take and goes right to the spot. Sold by Conser & Warren. Sheriff Matlock went to Portland last Friday having in charge Nellie Wilkins, to be turned over to the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society. This young girl had got beyond control of her mother who felt that this was the wisest thing she could do. The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Al E. Binnis died on Tuesday and was buried from the Christian church the following day, Rev. R. L. Shelley and Rev. J. W. Fleisher officiating. This affliction is exceedingly sad for the parents as it is their only child. N. C. Maris shipped last week to Cyril Gaynon in Washington, a 14 months Short Horn bull calf, named Pacific Monarch, which was a second prize winner last fall. Mr. Maris reports that word came back that the calf is more than satisfactory. Mike Roberts, at the Belvedere, having remodelled the popular old-time corner, extends to the public a cordial welcome. The beverages he dispenses will be kept up to the highest standard, and the enlargement and comfortable equipment of his billiard parlors and club-rooms are a drawing feature. 92-11 The Penny magazine, New York, which is the lowest priced magazine in America (20 cents a year), and which is owned by Hon. Chanucy M. Depew, the eminent American orator, wants a representative in this vicinity. It is a good opportunity for one of our ambitious young men or young women. Application should be addressed to the Subscription Department, The Penny Magazine, Temple Court, New York City.

Wells & Co. have purchased the old Matlock corner and it is now being overhauled and remodeled for the convenience and enlargement of their business. The first of February they expect to have it in readiness. In addition to their furniture line they will put in a first-class stock of hardware. Tuesday morning an exceedingly pleasant birthday party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Adkins, in honor of the 18th birthday of Miss Martha. Those present were Miss Farnsworth, Miss Eva Bartholomew, Miss Elsie Ayers, Miss Jennie Kirk, and Messrs. Lucie Bibbee and Will Smith. Professor Paul has a nice class in penmanship organized, and will soon have them down to systematic work. The professor besides being a thoroughly skilled penman, has a kindly way with him, taking not only with his pupils, but with every one. We anticipate a most successful and profitable term, which the boys and girls should not miss. The dancing party given by the young people last Friday night at the opera house proved such an enjoyable occasion that its repetition is urged for tomorrow night and arrangements are perfected to that end. Our younger members of society are very liable to carry off "the palm" for the success of their undertakings this season. No healthy person need fear any dangerous consequences from an attack of la grippe if properly treated. It is much the same as a severe cold and requires precisely the same treatment. Remain quietly at home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed for a severe cold and a prompt and complete recovery is sure to follow. For sale by Conser & Warren. Burns now comes proudly to the front with a grandmother only 25 years old. She was married when she was only 11 years old, her daughter was married when but 12 years old and is now a mother. A guard will be stationed around the cradle of the infant grandchild to prevent her sleeping, as it is reported that several enterprising yearlings are mashed on her. —Republican. The Portland Telegram of Tuesday, in mentioning the arrival in that city of the versatile ex-railroad commissioner, J. B. Eddy, says: "The Colonel is devoted his attention to farming and is located at Tregons, on the Willamette before leaving home the Colonel gave the hogs two day's swell and milked the cows one day ahead. He has many new ideas about how a farm should be run."

A paper by Captain Mahan, in McClure's Magazine for February, will consider what Spain hoped to accomplish in sending Admiral Cervera and his fleet to Cuba, and how far her hopes were justified by reason and the principles of scientific warfare. It will consider also Cervera's management of his fleet, and whether, under all the circumstances, he did what is the best that could have been expected of him. Personal. T. J. Carle, of Ione, was here Wednesday. Pat McDadd, of Lexington, was up Saturday. Andy J. Cook, of Lena, came over Wednesday. S. Wright and wife, of Eight Mile, spent Sunday in town. Governor Rea is in Moscow, Idaho, on professional business. Mr. Theodore Anderson, of Eight Mile, paid us a call yesterday. J. S. Young and wife, of Eight Mile, came in on business Tuesday. Miss Eppa E. Wilson, of Monument, spent Saturday in Heppner. The many friends of J. M. Hager rejoice in his promise recovery. C. E. Redfield spent several days in Portland last week on legal business. The Messrs Farnsworth are expected to return home from Portland Saturday. C. A. Johnson, of Lexington, has been keeping "tab" on Heppner wheat this week. N. O. Smead is down with la grippe at the home of his son Wallace, and is having a serious time. County Clerk Crawford went to The Dalles this week on a trip of business and pleasure combined. W. F. Mauldin, who has been working at Silas Wright's, on Ehee creek, was a caller at the Gazette office last week. Art. Minor, with his wife and little boy, leaves for Portland on Tuesday's train, where they will remain for a few weeks. A. E. Crosby, the gentlemanly representative of Dan Fry, of Salem, was distributing squirrel poison among the local druggists this week. H. V. Gates, president of the Heppner Light and Water Company, arrived here Saturday and remained over a few days in the interests of the plant. Miss Bertha Jones, daughter of Jas. Jones, was welcomed home by her family and friends this week. She has been quite sick at The Dalles for some time. Commissioner J. L. Howard came in from Butter creek Tuesday, remaining over until Wednesday, on business, and favored the Gazette with an interesting call. Win. Ross, of Ione, brought his wife up here for medical treatment on yesterday morning's train. Mrs. Ross' condition is considered quite serious, but it is hoped by her many friends that under proper treatment she may speedily recover. Ex-Senator W. F. Matlock, the well known horseman of Pendleton, spent a few days here with his brothers this week. Mr. Matlock is identified with a brewing enterprise in Skagway. His many friends here gave him a warm welcome. Mr. Wm. Yerkes, formerly a prominent stockman of this county for years, but now living in Ohio, is visiting here. Mr. Yerkes left here about five years since, owing to an almost hopeless condition from rheumatism, but under the influence of that climate has entirely recovered. Although the extreme West still holds charms for him, he feels that health is first condition and expects to make Ohio his permanent home. Saturday night was the occasion of the opening of the Palace bar and club rooms. The place has been entirely remodelled, newly furnished, papered and the floor covered with linoleum. Rogers & Roberts doing the refitting, Sam Loezer the paperhanging, and the fitting, varnishing and sign writing is the work of Mr. Hanshan, who has given it a finish equal to a small New York saloon. In fact few institutions outside of a metropolitan city show better and more artistic arrangement.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE. An Amateur Theatrical Entertainment Saturday Night. A number of the ladies and gentlemen of this city have been diligently rehearsing a farce under the coaching of Miss Henrietta Corerley of the Garrick Theatrical Club of New York city, a talented and accomplished young lady who has had considerable experience in theatrical work. It has taken a great deal of time and labor to qualify each person for their respective part, and Miss Corerley is deserving of much credit in her efforts to produce the farce, especially as her time and labor have been given gratuitously. The theatrical-going people of Heppner are invited to come out and show their loyalty and patronize home talent. Following is the cast: Mrs. Barnaby Bibbe..... Miss H. Corerley Mrs. Benj. Bibbe..... Miss Elizabeth Matlock Miss Selma Summers..... Mrs. Geo. Conser "Story"..... Mrs. C. E. Redfield Mr. Barnaby Bibbe..... Dr. M. B. Metzler Mr. Benj. Bibbe..... Jas. Hart Mr. Peter Parker..... F. H. Johnson "Orumpy"..... Heppner Blackman There will be a number of specialties introduced before and after the play. The proceeds of this entertainment are to be applied to the Episcopal church building fund. A Show of Enterprise. We take pleasure in acknowledging the receipt of an elegantly printed catalogue from Joseph Ell, the enterprising manufacturer and retail dealer in harness and saddlery goods, at Pendleton. Seventy-six pages printed on highly colored and brilliant red ink, catalogues and illustrates his complete line of goods, followed by an equal number of pages embodying a brief history of Pendleton and its enterprises, and a neat card of every business house in the city. Printed in the job department of the Pendleton Tribune, it reflects great credit on that institution, as it is second to no work of its class issuing from the leading printing houses of the coast. Individual ambition and enterprise is what converts sluggish towns into stirring business cities. Mrs. Dr. Garsney Is now permanently located in Heppner, where she can be found. Her medicines cure all chronic diseases, such as deafness, catarrh, bronchial troubles, lung diseases, rheumatism, kidney trouble, liver trouble, blood poisoning. Any disease baffling the skill of physicians yield under the influence of her simple remedies. 13-11 What Dr. A. E. Hatter Says. Buffalo, N. Y.—Gents:—From my personal knowledge, gained in observing the effect of your Shiloh's Cure in cases of advanced consumption, I am prepared to say it is the most remarkable remedy that has ever been brought to my attention. It has certainly saved many from consumption. Sold by Conser & Warren

BOUND OVER. A Most Important Case in the Eyes of Our Shepherds. Last week Wm. Anderson, of this county, was arrested by Constable Gray on a warrant sworn to by J. S. Carson, charging him with the larceny of 130 head of sheep which strayed from his drive while passing over the mountain trail last fall. This year it is claimed that losses aggregating several thousands of head of sheep have been lost in this locality, and could time elapse sufficient for the removal of markings by parties who have been making it a business to gather them in, it has proven an impossibility to locate them, and ruinous losses to some have been the result. Mr. Carson has worked on this case unceasingly and securing his evidence, was encouraged by his lawyers to prosecute the case, with the result that Monday morning at the preliminary hearing the defendant was bound over to await the action of the grand jury under $500 bonds. Our county is fast forging to the front with its record of lawlessness and great credit is due to such men as Mr. Carson who will, in behalf of our reputation and protection of property, go to the time and expense of following these depredations to the end, and he can rest assured that with the guilt securely fastened, conviction means an example for those yet unmolested. Woodmen Installation. Monday evening the installation of the newly-elected officers of the Woodmen of the World lodge for the ensuing year took place at the Masonic hall, with W. A. Richardson installing officer. Those installed were respectively: Consul, E. L. Freeland; advisor, lieutenant, W. L. Mallory; banker, Geo. Conser; escort, A. M. Slocum; clerk, W. W. Smead; watchman, W. Mikosell; sentry, Sam Hughes; past consul, D. W. Horner; managers, N. C. Maris and W. A. Richardson. A most interesting and enjoyable experience was the event.

COMING NOVELTIES. Heppner to be Honored by a Visit From The Dalles Amateur Minstrels. Heppner has always been a liberal patron of all local entertainments and there is also with us a considerable sprinkling of enthusiastic theatre goers. Those who like local performances, as well as the patrons of the professional's work, will be glad to hear that the Elks of this city have completed arrangements with a number of local players of The Dalles, representing the Elks of that city, and also the Commercial and Athletic club, to give a charity minstrel performance here on February 7th. The editor of the Gazette has been assured that the people of Heppner have never had the opportunity of seeing a finer lot of players anywhere, though none of them are professionals in any sense. There will be an old-fashioned "first part," with Nick Sinnett, a young attorney of The Dalles, as interlocutor, introducing numerous phases of negro character, dances, southern songs, and jests and jokes without number. Everything will be new and up-to-date. Of the 21 people who will take part in this performance, we will mention Hampshire and Clark, the blackfaced specialists, impersonators and comedians, in dances and songs. They will introduce on this occasion their new and original sketch, "Life in Alabama." Then there are Crossen and Frank, "the warmest coons in Coon Town"; Dawson and Heroux in their pleasing novelties; Ballard and Kelsey in tumbling acts; the little Misses Wadd and Kelsey, juvenile residents of "Darktown," and many other pleasing attractions in minstrelsy that space and time will not allow us to mention, but which will receive attention in a subsequent issue. This company comes at the instigation of our local Elks, for the double purpose of entertaining and with charitable objects in view. The Gazette bespeaks for them a splendid reception. Heppner always honors her guests and this occasion will be no exception. NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION. The co-partnership hitherto existing between W. O. Minor and C. A. Minor, under the firm name of Minor & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. C. A. Minor is authorized to settle all claims against, or to receive all amounts due, the late firm. The business will be continued by W. O. Minor, W. R. Irwin and M. D. Clark, under the name of Minor & Co. W. O. MINOR, C. A. MINOR, Heppner, Ore., Jan. 12, 1899.
