

THE HEPPNER GAZETTE

Published Every Thursday. BY CORLIES MERRITT, Editor and Manager.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: One Year $1.80, Six Months .75, Three Months .50

Advertising Rates Made Known on Application.

Entered at the Postoffice at Heppner, Oregon, as second-class matter.

Those Dreadful Sores

They Continued to Spread in Spite of Treatment but Now They are Healed - A Wonderful Work.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best - in fact the One True Blood Purifier.

LETTERS ADVERTISED AT HEPPNER. Bartow, H. L. Howeth, Mr. L. Bondry, Mr. H. L. Browning, Mrs. W. M. Clarke, W. J. (2) Crane, Mrs. G. S. Dobson, Miss Mable Owen, Mrs. J. A.

Local Notes.

Subscriptions to the Gazette are now due. Please call and settle. Don't miss the Relief Corps social Saturday night at the opera house.

Dr. J. W. Vogel, specialist for refraction and defects of the eye, will be here every three months. 648-lyr

Don't overlook the Morrow County Land and Trust Co. in disposing of your beef hides and sheep pelts.

The Lion brand of hats are the best in quality and cheapest in price. Sold exclusively by Brown & Hughes.

Elegant lines of new millinery received by Heppner's milliners should not be overlooked by the ladies.

Minor & Co. have filled their space this week with bargains in spring goods. Read the same and save money.

Conser & Warren, the druggists, now await their new show cases, which will prove a new attraction to their rear ranged store.

Stop that cough! Take warning. It may lead to consumption. A 25c bottle of Shiloh's Cure may save your life. Sold by Conser & Warren.

Karl's Clover Root Tea, for Constipation it's the best and if after using it you don't say so, return package and get your money. Sold by Conser & Warren.

Catarh cured. A clear head and sweet breath secured with Shiloh's Catarh Remedy; sold on a guarantee. Nasal injector free. Sold by Conser & Warren.

Rev. Hanson, the grey, wide-awake preacher, who is to assist in the coming revival, is young, magnetic, powerful, irresistible and has had marvelous success in revival work.

Mr. Blake, the sheep buyer, informs us that he bought 6,000 head of sheep from Bettie and Patterson and S. F. Borke last week, with a 5 per cent. He also had received word from J. M. Wilson that he had bought 18,000 yearling ewes and weathers at Mount Home, Idaho, for $2.

Mike Roberts, at the Belvedere, having remodeled the popular old-time corner, extends to the public a cordial welcome. The beverages he dispenses will be kept up to the highest standard, and the enlargement and comfortable equipment of his billiard parlors and club-rooms are a drawing feature.

J. L. Morrow, of Heppner, a pioneer merchant, after whom Morrow county was named, is rapidly improving at the Good Samaritan hospital from an operation performed some time ago to relieve a wound in the knee, received in the Puget sound Indian war of 1855.

Rev. E. Edwards, pastor of the English Baptist church at Minersville, Pa., when suffering with rheumatism, was advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says: "A few applications of this balm proved of great service to me. It subdued the inflammation and relieved the pain. Should any sufferer profit by giving Pain Balm a trial it will please me." For sale by Conser & Warren.

The O. R. & N. Co.'s new book on the Resources of Oregon, Washington and Idaho is being distributed. Our readers are requested to forward the addresses of their Eastern friends and acquaintances, and a copy of the work will be sent them free.

Oscar Schafer, the newly appointed stock inspector, has his necessary receipt books and blanks in the hands of the Gazette job printer, and is assuming the responsibilities of his office in a business-like manner.

The Women's Relief Corps of Heppner is to give a basket or box social at the opera house on next Saturday evening, March 25th.

Mr. L. W. Hill, of Sand Hollow, was in town Saturday on business, and informs us that M. J. Devin is enjoying the measles, which he over-looked as a boy. He also reports Mrs. Sailing quite ill at her daughter's, Mrs. Morgan.

Phil Cohen returned with his wife from Portland Tuesday night, and we are glad to announce a very marked improvement in Mrs. Cohen's condition.

Constance E. W. Kees left on Wednesday morning's train for Portland, where he will join his wife, and return home with her and his son the last of the week.

Rev. Green was escorted to the train Saturday morning by Reverends Fisher and St. Clair, en route to Walla Walla to take charge of the South M. E. church there. Recently Rev. Green has been devoting his attention to revival work with decided success.

Mrs. Dr. Vaughan returned this week from a Willamette valley visit she spent several weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. M. Jones, in the city of Salem. While she enjoyed her visit very much, she feels that Heppner is her preference for a home.

Mrs. E. L. Estes, accompanied by her mother, returned from Portland last week, where she spent some time selecting stock and studying the novel millinery lines to meet the spring trade. While there she engaged the services of Miss Bertha Frier, a trimmer from Valentine & Goldsmith's wholesale millinery house, of Portland, who will remain with her during the busy season, adding her in the introduction of her exceptionally pleasing styles.

THE NELSON JONES RANCH. Sold to W. O. and Art Minor for $7,000 on Saturday, March 11th.

At the county court house on the 11th, the Nelson Jones stock ranch was sold to the Minor brothers for $7,000. It was expected that several of Morrow county's solid men would be ambitious for this prize, but in opposition to the buyers O. E. Farnsworth was the only one present, and he quit bidding at $6,750.

At the University of Oregon has just published a "Semi Centennial History of Oregon," in pamphlet form, edited by F. G. Young, which is on sale at 25 cents, and will be intensely interesting to all.

Rev. Fleisher has kindly consented to preach Friday night, at the Baptist church, a preparatory sermon. Hear him, sure. Service also on Saturday evening at the same place at 7 o'clock.

"The Fair" will soon occupy the adjoining room, from which has been removed the banking furniture. A fine line of goods' clothing and furnishings will be placed on exhibition there.

Personal. C. M. White came over from Condon Tuesday. T. J. Allen, of Lone, paid Heppner a visit this week.

Professor G. M. Paul is now at Moro, Sherman county. Benj. Parker, of Parker's mill, was in town on Monday.

C. D. Richardson, of Lone Rock, visited our city this week. Mrs. Broadwell and daughters, of La Grande, are visiting Mrs. Wall.

John Fleming, a big Montana stockman, is in town exploring the field. E. B. Stanton and wife, of Eight Mile, paid Heppner a visit Wednesday.

Miss Alice Glasscock went to Blalock last Saturday to take charge of a school. Tom Matthews, the prominent Butter creek sheep man, was in town yesterday on business.

Mike Kenny, the prosperous sheepman from Sand Hollow, paid the Gazette office a visit this week. C. A. Terry, representative of the Oregon Short Line, was here on business the first of the week.

Miss Bertha Jones left on Monday morning a train for The Dalles, where she will attend school. C. S. Emery, of Hardman, came in this week. He reports an apparent break-up of winter in that section.

D. E. Gilman is having a very serious time with ailments following the la grippe, but is slowly improving. Mrs. Ethel Smith (nee Hamilton) is again at her post of duty, relieving Mrs. Lick Mathews Monday morning.

Jay Bowerman, a young attorney of Salem, former schoolmate of Attorney Charlton, is in Heppner on a visit. Herb Bartholomew returned from his sheep camp early this week with more lambs in sight than he "ever saw before."

Asa Thompson, the enterprising stockman from the boundary line of Umatilla county, spent several days in town this week. L. J. Shaner, of Hardman, was in town Tuesday on business connected with the estate of Simon Shaner, and gave this office a call.

Mrs. Fry Wilson, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Fry, arrived in Heppner Monday and proceeded to Portland on Tuesday morning's train, for health consideration.

Mrs. Ida Turner, of Sand Hollow, was taken to Portland on last Saturday's train to undergo a surgical operation. It is to be hoped that she will experience a speedy recovery.

Ora Adkins, we are glad to report, is gradually improving from his serious spell of sickness, and his many anxious friends are awaiting his advent among them once again.

Orin A. Brians returned last week from Portland, where he has been in attendance at the Portland Business College since last November. Mr. Brians speaks very highly of the school.

Mrs. Corlies Merritt and that boy, Henry Corlies, returned from a visit in Portland with her mother, Tuesday night, accompanied by Miss Neale, who is now Mrs. Brock. We welcome their return.

Miss Cora Hart came in from McCarty's district with W. G. McCarty Saturday to spend the day. Miss Hart is very much pleased with her school, as well as the people of her district, and anticipates a very pleasant experience.

Mr. L. W. Hill, of Sand Hollow, was in town Saturday on business, and informs us that M. J. Devin is enjoying the measles, which he over-looked as a boy. He also reports Mrs. Sailing quite ill at her daughter's, Mrs. Morgan.

Phil Cohen returned with his wife from Portland Tuesday night, and we are glad to announce a very marked improvement in Mrs. Cohen's condition. Mr. Cohen feels thoroughly satisfied with the result of the treatment at the hospital.

Constance E. W. Kees left on Wednesday morning's train for Portland, where he will join his wife, and return home with her and his son the last of the week. Attributed in his fashionable spring suit he will doubtless precipitate a deluge.

THE FAIR The Place to Save Money

Spring Goods Ladies' Skirts and Waists New in style and finish.

Call for your first selection. Fine line of Butchers', Waiters', Barbers' and Bartenders' Coats and Aprons

The Latest Eastern Patterns-Nobby Call and examine them.

A Specialty Ladies', Gents' and Children's Hosiery.

Gloves - Gloves - Gloves An Immense Assortment MONEY RETURNED IF GOODS ARE NOT SATISFACTORY

THE FAIR

THE FAIR

HON. HENRY BLACKMAN Returns From Spokane An Enthusiastic Admirer of That Enterprising City.

On Saturday morning's train Henry Blackman returned from a few days' visit in Spokane, and in an interview expressed himself as well paid for his visit. The city was a turmoil of excitement over the reports coming in from the Slocan, Buffalo Ham, Boundary Creek and Great Republic districts.

The Great Republic selling for $3,000, 000 demonstrates its value. Over $2,000, 000 of this stock belongs to Spokane.

THE WELLS JONES RANCH. Sold to W. O. and Art Minor for $7,000 on Saturday, March 11th.

MARRIED LAST NIGHT. Fred M. Book, of Heppner, to Miss Arz Neale, of Portland.

Spring Millinery. Miss Altha Leach wishes to announce to her patrons that her complete line of spring millinery has arrived.

THE Weekly Gazette only $1.50.

BOYS FROM MANILA. They Appeared at the Christian Church on Friday Evening.

Yes, the boys are back from Manila, and on Friday evening they appeared at the Christian church in this city in force. Everybody was glad to see them and to know that their long journey had been fraught with no mishaps, and that all the boys returned in good health and spirits and that there had been no loss in the company.

ATHLETIC MEETING Held in the Opera House Last Thursday Evening.

About twenty promising members of the Athletic Club assembled in the opera house to discuss the practicability of organization. Every consideration of importance was thoroughly discussed, each one present seemingly intent upon its success.

Mrs. Dr. Garney Is now permanently located in Heppner, where she can be found. Her medicines cure all chronic diseases, such as deafness, catarrh, bronchial troubles, lung diseases, rheumatism, kidney trouble, liver trouble, blood poisoning.

FERRY'S SEEDS. In buying seeds "economy is extravagance."

REMARKS made by our competitors are inspired by jealousy at the remarkable cutting qualities of the fine line of cutlery lately received by P. C. THOMPSON COMPANY.

THE CUTTING REMARKS made by our competitors are inspired by jealousy at the remarkable cutting qualities of the fine line of cutlery lately received by P. C. THOMPSON COMPANY.

THE CUTTING REMARKS made by our competitors are inspired by jealousy at the remarkable cutting qualities of the fine line of cutlery lately received by P. C. THOMPSON COMPANY.

THE CUTTING REMARKS made by our competitors are inspired by jealousy at the remarkable cutting qualities of the fine line of cutlery lately received by P. C. THOMPSON COMPANY.

THE CUTTING REMARKS made by our competitors are inspired by jealousy at the remarkable cutting qualities of the fine line of cutlery lately received by P. C. THOMPSON COMPANY.

THE CUTTING REMARKS made by our competitors are inspired by jealousy at the remarkable cutting qualities of the fine line of cutlery lately received by P. C. THOMPSON COMPANY.

Smead & Co. Have just received a fresh line of Candies...

Turkish Nougets, Japanese Caramels, Creams, Etc. Fruits and Vegetables Cigars and Tobaccos

Don't overlook us when you want something nice. Agents for the Oregonian and Telegram.

Heppner Candy Factory The Popular Resort Fresh Candies manufactured and kept constantly on hand.

Oyster Grotto Kept open night and day. Hart Bros. Proprietors.

Have You Any Potatoes to Spare? If so, we want them. Will allow you the highest market price. Bring them in. MINOR & CO.