

The Gazette.

THURSDAY, June 22, 1899.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY does not talk politics publicly, but among his personal friends he expresses pleasure at the outlook in Ohio, and no man knows the politics of that state better than he does. He thinks the ticket nominated by the republicans is a strong one, and says that no republican in the state can give a logical reason for not loyally supporting it. He is confident that the ticket will be elected by a very large majority. Representative Dick, who will be the active manager of the Ohio campaign, returned to Washington in a jovial state of mind, absolutely certain of a victory. He says that the campaign will not be started until about the middle of September, but that when started, it will be pushed aggressively until election day.

JUDGE LOWELL'S address to the grand jury is in the interest of enforcement of law. As he remarks the anti-nick-in-the-slot machine law is a law until declared void by the courts, and it should be enforced. There is no doubt about the morality of such a statute and if there was a technical error in its passage, that must be proven by those opposing the law. The machines in Pendleton have all been put under the counter during the session of the grand jury, but it is rumored that the "bucking" will begin again as soon as that body adjourns. The owners of the machines, however, should remember that the present grand jury is probably the last one that will ever be called in Umatilla county and that the powers formerly given it will be used by the district attorney who may report violations of law at any time. It is the impression that Judge Lowell and Mr. Bean have determined to suppress the machines and see to the strict enforcement of the law regarding them.—Republican.

MORROW COUNTY CELEBRATION.

Extensive Preparations Being Made to Celebrate. The committee, upon whom rests the responsibility of a successful Fourth of July celebration at Lexington, are at their work with the determination to eclipse all former occasions, and in their canvass find the majority of the citizens in the frame of mind as to this being the year when all should show their patriotism by setting aside business cares on the Fourth and turning out for a old-fashioned celebration. The Lexington people are united, and no work will be spared to get the grounds in readiness for the occasion. The grove will be cleared up and the roads surrounding it thoroughly sprinkled. Both the literary and amusement programs are being carefully arranged, and inducements offered sufficient to entice all the lovers of fun.

IONE INCORPORATED.

The Little City Assesses Metropolitan Air-Incorporation Carried. Monday, the day set for the ballot on Ione's incorporation, proved one of the liveliest known to its inhabitants. Bright and early the factions were stirring themselves. Attorney G. W. Phelps, together with Editor Shatt, of the Times, went down to reinforce the advocates of incorporation, and when the count was made, and they won the fight by a majority of twelve, their enthusiasm knew no bounds. Dignity was cast aside and a career of wild antics was in order. The result of the vote was as follows: For incorporation, 32; against incorporation, 20.

Mayor—J. W. Woolery, 35; W. M. Hagenwood, 17.
Recorder—M. S. Maxwell, 40; Nat Hale, 9; Tom Carl, 3.
Marshal—McNabb, 49.
Treasurer—Nat Hale, 20; Chas. Ingraham, 32.
Aldermen—E. G. Sperry, 33; J. P. Lony, 34; T. J. Carl, 28; J. Cochran, 50; B. F. Wilmot, 50; Frank Engelman, 46; M. M. Hunter, 20; C. F. Walker, 24; Joe Haney, 23.

Test Meetings.

Professors T. E. Andrews and H. E. Hoyt, of Walla Walla College, are hold a series of meetings in the tent just below the Heppner school building. Interesting bible subjects are discussed from evening to evening, such as "The Home of the Saved"; "The Signs of the Times"; "Origin, History and Destiny of Satan"; "Sanctification"; "The Eastern Question" etc. One interesting feature of the meetings is the question box. Services begin every evening at 8:00 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend.

I was seriously afflicted with a cough for several years, and last fall had a more severe cough than ever before. I have used many remedies without receiving much relief, and being recommended to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, by a friend, who, knowing me to be a poor widow, gave it to me. I tried it, and with the most gratifying results. The first bottle relieved me very much and the second bottle has absolutely cured me. I have not had as good health for twenty years. Respectfully, Mrs. Mary A. Beaud, Claremore, Ark. Sold by Conser & Warren.

HIS SUFFERINGS ENDED.

Sheriff E. L. Matlock Passed Away Early Last Evening. Last night as the sun went down the spirit of Edward L. Matlock took its flight to the "mysterious world beyond." Day before yesterday Dr. Swinburne recognized the symptoms which foretell the approach of the end. His close was in a peaceful sleep.

Dr. Swinburne's diagnosis of the case and prediction of the result is now fully verified. Mr. Matlock's trip East, and consultation with Dr. Nicholas Senn, one of the world's greatest physicians and surgeons, satisfies the family and community in general that everything was done to extend his useful career possible.

A family of five children survive him, who are Mrs. Al. Roberts, of Portland, Mrs. Dr. Eugene Vaughn and Mrs. Thos. Ayers, of Pendleton, Miss Bertha, who is a St. Helene Hall student, and his only son, Leslie, of this city. Mrs. Price Florence, the eldest daughter, died three years since. Their estimable and loving mother was taken from them in November, 1892.

His brothers, William F., James W., Thomas J. and Cass, have been continuously at his bedside the past few weeks. Thor, Ayers and Dr. Eugene Vaughn arrived on last night's train.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock, from the residence of Tom Matlock, Rev. Shelley officiating.

The Knights of Pythias and Elks will attend in a body, of which he was a prominent member. The business firms will close their doors during the funeral hours, and it was possible to preserve the remains until thoroughly announced the entire county would assemble here en masse to pay their respects to a faithful and honored official.

The following interesting biography is taken from the History of Morrow County, published by the Gazette last fall:

Mr. E. L. Matlock was born in Dade county, Missouri, in 1844. In 1863, when 9 years of age, he moved with his parents to the West; crossing the plains with an ox team. The family, consisting of the parents, seven boys and one girl, left the state of Missouri in the late spring, keeping the western trail as far as the Cascade range in the southern part of the state of Oregon, when they left the trail intending to push on to Southern California. Soon after leaving the trail they became lost in the mountains, with the winter approaching. One man was fitted out with provisions that could be spared and sent for assistance. He returned with Hugh Fields and other settlers, and the party was rescued some 60 miles southeast of Eugene, finally reaching that point after an experience of six months on the trail, with provisions exhausted and nothing but beef for food.

The family located five miles from Eugene, in Lane county, taking up government land. In 1871 Mr. Matlock came to this portion of the state, settling on Wild Horse creek, and was one of the first to own sheep in what is now Morrow county. A hard winter followed his settlement here, and he lost nearly all. He then came over to McDonald canyon, and with his brother Cass borrowed enough money for a new start. He finally sold his sheep interests and returned to the Willamette valley, engaging in mercantile pursuits. In 1889 he returned to Heppner, purchased the property now known as the Matlock corner.

Two years ago he was elected sheriff of Morrow county, which position he has filled to the entire satisfaction of the taxpayers, and the riding necessary to the requirements of the office in partially responsible for the aggravation of the disease that took him from us. He was a man of unquestioned integrity, and a serious loss to Eastern Oregon.

JOINS THE BENEDICTS.

William E. Barrett United in Marriage With Miss Eliza Hynd. This morning at 9 o'clock, at the home of Robt. F. Hynd, by Rev. Flesher, Wm. Barrett was joined in holy wedlock with Miss Eliza Hynd, sister of the popular warehouse representative. The fortunate groom came to Morrow county direct from Shopshire, England, in 1885, since which time he has been associated with Mr. Hynd in the sheep business, and, like Mr. Hynd, has proven himself one of Morrow county's most successful and respected young men. The estimable bride, a very refined and interesting lady, arrived here but last week from her home in Arbroath, Scotland, and at once assumes the roll and responsibilities of our progressive young Americans, and as she affiliates with us will soon feel that she is an Oregonian for all time to come. Only immediate relatives and friends were present at the ceremony.

The happy couple departed on this morning's train for Portland, and will return within a few days to take up their home in Heppner.

The McDuffee Springs.

We would like to call the attention of our readers to McDuffee springs and their wonderful curative properties. The cures effected there have been truly marvellous. One of our old and respected citizens went out there six years ago, a physical wreck in fact, the physicians had practically given him up to die. He was entirely cured and is now known as the "young old man."

F. O. Buckman, now of La Grande, was cured entirely of inflammatory rheumatism, so, also, Jas. Moreland. A Mr. Kelley, who was wounded at the battle of Gettysburg, and was a victim to morphine, went there recently and in six weeks is cured almost entirely. Their efficacy is undoubted in rheumatic and stomach troubles. Why should we go to distant states to find hot springs, when here at our very doors, are some just as effective? The springs are in Grant county, about 75 miles southeast of Heppner. Now is a splendid opportunity for the philanthropist in lined to do some good work by helping a fellow traveller, while the waters are troubled, go to these curative waters, and get strong again. There is a hotel and store near the springs, and also good tenting grounds.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Cortain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from the first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at E. J. Slocum's drugstore, large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

State Normal School.

The State Normal School at Monmouth announces a new department, that of normal training in addition to the departments of last year. It has also added to its training department an ungraded school, to give practice in the work of the country schools. The training department is now perhaps the most complete in the United States. A new building offers increased facilities for work, and the next year promises to be the best the school has known. The catalogue shows a marked gain in attendance for the present year. The advertisement appears in this issue.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot is for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a god-send to weak, sick, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cts. Sold by Slocum Drug Co.

Where Will We Spend Our Summer Vacation? This is the time of year to think about it, but before you decide, write for an elaborate, illustrated pamphlet showing numerous photo engraved views of the many attractions at the seashore and en route, and advantages of the Columbia river beaches as reached by the Astoria and Columbia River railroad. Three hours and thirty minutes from Union depot, Portland, to your beach hotel in a magnificent parlor car without change or transfer is a convenience and luxury few resorts can offer. Such is the initial attraction of this favorite resort.
