Poor and Weak

Catarrh and Bronchial Trouble— Had no Appetite—Now Better in Every Way—A Delicate Child.

"Some time since I took a sudden cold and could not get rid of it. Being subject to catarrh and bronchial trouble I coughed terribly. I lost my appetite and grew poor and weak and I did not feel like work. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. In a short time the cough disappeared, I slept well, had a good appetite and I was better in every way. Last spring I was not feeling well, I had no appetite and no strength. I resorted to Hood's Sarsaparilla and soon felt more like work. My little nephew was a delicate child and had a humor which troubled him so he could not rest at night. He has taken a few bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and now he has a good appetite and is able to sleep." Miss ABBIE J. FREEMAN, South Duxbury, Mass.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

$10 REWARD—Lost in the road adjacent to Lexington park, July 5th, a gold watch, with the name of Henry Welch engraved on the inside case. If returned the reward will be paid and the kindness appreciated by Otis Welch, of Rhea & Welch. The watch is alone valuable to him as a gift from his father.

The announcement of the Sixth Annual Spokane Industrial Exposition has resounded us. The enterprise of this city was truly astonishing to the Eastern editors, and marvelous tales of its wonderful growth and business bustle will sweep the continent. "Advertising" is their motto, and no undertaking too great for them. This exposition is bound to be a success.

Dr. Penrose, of Whitman College, Walla Walla, will lecture, morning and evening, July 16th, at the Christian church. As a speaker he has but few equals in this country, and comes highly recommended by such men as Judge Lowell. His principal subject will be "Oregon's Greatest Hero," and will be listened to with interest by those who are fortunate enough to attend.

He sat at his door at noonday, lonely, glum and sad. The flies were buzzing about him, led by a blue winged gad. Not a customer darkened his portal, not a sign of business was there; but the flies kept buzzing about the old man's hair. At last in misery he shouted: "Great Scott! I'm covered with flies!" And the zephyr that toyed with his whiskers said: "Why don't you advertise?"—Er.

Rev. Thoroughman interviewed the Gazette yesterday morning and reports an interesting meeting at Mountain Valley last Sunday. Next Sunday a basket meeting is on the program at Rhea creek, near J. J. Adkins' home. Rev. St. Clair will preach the ceremony. These basket meetings are interesting events with the people of that section and are well attended. Heppnerites who have attended heretofore are enthusiastic over them. Rev. Thoroughman is an energetic worker and keeps up a lively interest. A cordial invitation is extended to everybody to attend.

Mr. Tom Stubblefield came over from Mount to assist in caring for Fry Wilson, and reports to the Gazette that Mr. Wilson's condition is very much improved, and if he can be taken to his home where he can be kept quiet and administered to by members of his family, he will recover speedily. His two sisters, Mrs. Black, of Portland, and Mrs. Daugherty, of Pendleton, are here at his bedside, relieving his wife of her constant vigilance, which has been a severe tax on her. Mr. Stubblefield will accompany him on his return home in a day or two if he continues to improve.

Scribbler in Athena Press: In July the grain assumes a golden hue, and warns the rancher what he soon must do: he dons his cotton harvest clothes and straight way to the harvest goes. He thinks to liquidate an honest debt, but the more he liquidates, the more he'll sweat. In July the women insist on starting fire; and men who fish are just the same old liars; the frisky maidens come from school wear bridle shirt waists that would scare a mule, and hungry kids with voracious appetites, try to eat up everything in sight, including green apples, jam and jelly-cake, and then they have a time with the—neutralgia in their gizzards.

Bicyclists.
To those interested in cycling a meeting has been arranged to be held in the Bi-monthal store building, Sunday, July 16th, at 3 p. m., with a view to organizing a bicycle club for Heppner. All interested are requested to be present.

The Steam Laundry.
Fred Krog, proprietor of the Heppner Steam Laundry, has had the good fortune to secure the services of a first-class laundryman from the city and is now prepared to give Heppner as good service as is to be had in Portland. "I have used Chamberlin's Cough Remedy in my family for years and always with good results," says Mr. W. B. Cooper of El Rio, Cal. "For small children we find it especially effective." For sale by Conser & Warren.

Last week the old Wm. Gordon barn, opposite the Balvadre, was sold to the R. T. Co., and will be moved at once to their headquarters near the depot. Park Garrigues, who purchased the property will erect a business block on the site.

Monday night's train brought home Jas. Jones, Eli Keeney and Mrs. Jas. Carly, who were discharged simultaneously from the St. Vincent's hospital. All left here seriously afflicted and returned restored to perfect conditions of health.

Mrs. McDougal, the woman referred to recently here with several small children, from Monument, where her husband deserted her, and whom the ladies in the town solicited a sum for, had the misfortune to lose her infant child, last week.

There will be no services at the M. E. church, South, next Sunday, except Sabbath school and league. The congregation will hear President Penrose of Whitman college. The pastor will be at the basket meeting on Rhea creek, near J. J. Adkins' home.

James Keeney has in pasture near town 75 head of horses, which he will ship East Saturday. His horses are made up of three classes—draft horses, roadsters and smaller range horses. His purpose is to test the market thoroughly, as he has yet remaining several hundred head.

Personal.

Nat Scott, came over from Lone Rock yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. John Kilkenny registered at the Palace today.

G. W. Chapin, of Hardman, was in Heppner the first of the week.

M. L. Maxwell, lone's notary, joined his father here yesterday.

Press Cresswell and family have returned from the McDuffie Springs.

E. S. Cox of Hardman paid the Gazette office an agreeable call this week.

Mr. J. V. Crawford returned to his home at Enterprise on Monday's train.

F. C. Holland, the Pacific Paper Co's. representative was with us again this week.

John McCarty, the Union Meat Co's. cattle buyer, came up from Portland Tuesday.

Frank Sloan, the Butter creek cattle king, is recruiting in Heppner the past few days.

Tom Rhea and wife are yet sojourning in Portland, where they went to enjoy the Fourth.

W. L. Smith, Mat Halvorsen and Bert Mason, Ioneites, were here this week attending court.

E. L. Cox, D. H. Jenkins and C. H. Hama of Hardman were in town on business this week.

On Saturday, Fred Beck returned from Portland, his wife remaining for a short visit with her parents.

Chas. Ringler, representing the Evening Telegram, paid Heppner a visit yesterday in the interest of that paper.

Oscar Johnson, formerly a Salem dry goods merchant, but now a heavyweight "knight of the grip," done Heppner yesterday.

George Parker, editor of the Ione Post, spent yesterday in Heppner. Mr. Parker is an energetic hustler and is resping a satisfactory reward.

M. M. Hunter, the lone hotel landlord, is seriously ill, causing the community considerable anxiety. It is to be hoped that he will recover.

D. W. Halston, of Portland, the well known cattle buyer, has been traveling the interior gathering in stock. He bought quite a number of cattle and sheep.

S. A. D. Gurley, the wide-awake Arlington attorney, was here at the close of the circuit looking after interest of his clients. Mr. Gurley enjoys a nice practice in this section.

P. F. Chandler, editor of the Grant County News, on his return from the editorial convention in Portland, arrived here on Friday night's train. Mr. Chandler reports a trip that all newspaper men should have enjoyed.

W. R. McAllister came up from Lexington yesterday, having settled up the affairs of the 10th of July celebration. He expects to go to Portland to welcome the return of the volunteers, his son, H. L., being a member.

G. W. Maxwell of Hardman, returned from his Eastern trip Tuesday night, and recites with interest the changes since he was back to the old home 16 years ago. The three months he was absent were spent in Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia principally.

Woolbuyers, Frank Lee, Frank Green, and George Fell, the latter accompanied by his family, deserted this field on yesterday's train, as the wool stored here has been sold. They will drop in occasionally in order to remind their numerous friends that they have not been swept from the face of the earth.

Miss Ida Baker, an estimable young lady from Colfax, accompanied Miss Nellie Brown, of Canyon City, well known here, on her return from a visit there, and both are now the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George White. Miss Brown expects her father here this week with a private conveyance for her return home.

A BRILLIANT WEDDING.

Mr. John B. Beal, of Forest Grove, Weds Miss Eva A. Briens, of this City.

A very pretty home wedding took place last evening at the lovely cottage home of Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Vaughan, in the presence of fifty intimate friends, when the marriage of their daughter, Miss Eva A. Briens, to Mr. John B. Beal, of Forest Grove, was solemnized. The parlors were tastefully decorated with evergreens and beautiful flowers. The bridal party entered the parlors to the strains of a wedding march by Miss Cora Hart, and under the canopy of appropriate floral emblems Rev. Shelley read the beautiful service of the Christian church, uniting the twain in happy marriage relationship. The maid of honor was Miss Maggie Adkins, and the groom's attendant, Mr. Oran Briens. The bride was dressed becomingly in white, with decorations of roses, and looked exceedingly charming. At the conclusion of the ceremony a sumptuous spread was enjoyed by the fortunate guests. While Mrs. Beal is to be congratulated in the possession of a husband whose refinement, education and moral character is so apparent, the community give her up under remonstrance, as the doctor's administration, she has endorsed herself to every member of the community. Her refinement, pleasant manner, application to business and kind treatment of all have made for her a host of friends. Mr. Beal was recently elected to the principalship of the Corliss schools, and will begin with the September term. Their home will be in Forest Grove, for which place they will leave tomorrow night.

Those present were: Hon. W. R. and Mrs. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. V. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Whites, Mr. and Geo. Conser, Mr. and Mrs. Corlies Merritt, Rev. and Mrs. Shelley, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Noble, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Bell, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Minor, Mrs. E. J. Shatt, Mrs. Alice Barr, Mrs. E. J. Slocum, Mrs. Edith Hinde of Dayton, Mrs. J. W. Reams, Mrs. Dr. Garney, Misses Welch, Lena Rhea, Estella Rhea, Nellie Shelley, Leona Glascock, Nellie Brown, Cora Hart, Eda Minor, Maggie Adkins, Lottie Farnsworth, Lottie Reams, Lillian Bisbee, Edith Vaughn and Miss Garney. Messrs Geo. Robinson, Jas. Hart, Orville and Frank Reams, Frank W. Roberts, G. W. Phelps, W. L. Salting, M. B. Galloway, Oran, Forest and Harry Briens and Oran Vangab.

GONE TO BOSTON.

Mrs. P. B. McSwords Departs With Her Daughter Mary.

On last evening's train Mrs. P. B. McSwords, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Mary, departed for Boston, where the young lady will attend college preparatory to entering the conservatory of music. Mrs. McSword will be joined by her mother from Ohio and they will take up their residence in Boston, expecting to remain until Mary has finished her education. Both Mrs. McSwords and Mary will be sadly missed by the people of Heppner, as they have contributed to the social pleasures of our isolated little city. In honor of their departure on Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Conser tendered them a farewell dinner, with the following friends present: Mr. and Mrs. Redfield and daughter; Dr. and Mrs. P. B. McSwords and Miss Mary, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Brook, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Waldon Rhea, Mrs. Fred Bartholomew and daughter, Mrs. C. A. Rhea. At its conclusion a social evening was enjoyed. The following evening Mr. and Mrs. Redfield entertained them in a like manner.

At the train a large delegation of friends, bid them good bye, with regrets that their stay will be necessarily prolonged. Mary will surely return to Heppner a charming and accomplished young lady.

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of Mr. W. M. Bush, clerk of Hotel Durance, Providence, R. I. He says: "For several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea, the frequent attacks completely prostrating me and rendering me unfit for my duties at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlin's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I would fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction." For sale by Conser & Warren.
