Dr. J. W. Vogel, specialist for refraction and defects of the eye, will be here every three months.
Geo. Perry and Luther Hamilton, the popular ranchers, were conspicuous on our streets Monday.
Wm. Ambrose, a prominent sheepman from Long Creek, came in for winter supplies Tuesday.
Miss Charlotte Shipley began teaching a three months' term of school at Sand Hollow Monday.
Miss Emma Welch will leave for Portland tomorrow morning, where she expects to visit for some time.
A fine ranch of five quarters and a 40 for sale, situated in the Eight Mile country. Inquire at this office.
Roscoe Shaw and Chas. Osborne, loaded freight at the warehouses Monday for Long Creek and Monument.
The summer season introduces itself Hart Bros' tender in an ice-cream festival. All are invited to their cool parlors.
Hart Bros. received a fresh load of watermelons this morning. We sampled one and they are the finest of the season. Try one.
Mr. Mitt. Moran and his sister, Miss Artie, start on an overland trip to Weston this morning, where Miss Artie intends to enter school.
Come out and hear Rev. Jenkins at the Christian church on Monday evening. He will exhibit some of the finest views ever seen in Heppner.
The Young Heppner bloods promise us a season of football. The team is already organized, and a challenge sent The Dalles boys. Hurrah for the boys.
Be not deceived! A cough, hoarseness or croup are not to be trifled with. A dose in time of Shiloh's Cure will save you much trouble. Sold by Conser & Warren.

Two highly instructive and entertaining lectures at the Christian church on Monday and Tuesday evenings. The prices of admission will be 25 and 15 cents.
Judge Bartholomew, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Jennie and son Fred, left on yesterday morning's train for Portland, on a combined business and pleasure trip.
Cure that cough with Shiloh's Cure. The best cough cure. Relieves croup promptly. One million bottles sold last year. 40 doses for 25c. Sold by Conser & Warren.
At the old familiar corner, the Belvedere, a smile awaits you. Within will be found the choicest brands of liquors and cigars. Billiard and pool tables kept in prime condition.
Mrs. Corson, mother of Wm., returned from her extensive grain farm last Friday. As her grain had not been cut previous to the damaging storm she escaped a heavy loss.
Mrs. Tom Rhea went to Portland Wednesday morning, where she will be joined by her daughter Mrs. Bagley and from there they will go to Eureka, Cal., for a visit of some length.
Karl's Clover Root Tea is a pleasant laxative. Regulates the bowels, purifies the blood. Clears the complexion. Easy to make and pleasant to take. 25c. Sold by Conser & Warren.
George French came in on last night's train from Portland, where he went several weeks ago, hoping to have his hearing benefited. The doctors gave him very little encouragement.
No volunteer from the Philippines feels the important part he has played for his country in comparison with Ben Leland, since he became the father of a bouncing boy last Friday night.
Miss Ivy Blake came in from her Rhea creek home to spend Sunday in Heppner. Miss Blake is a charming little lady and her many friends always extend her a delightful welcome.
Rev. Potwine arrived here on Monday night, holding services at the Christian church. He made an effort to start the building of the Episcopal church, but found all the carpenters busy.
Two prominent valley doctors visited our town last week looking for new fields. Dr. Stanley, of Corvallis, concluded to return home, while Dr. Higgs, of Shedd's, pushed on to Canyon City and Sumpter.
Giles T. Kirk of Dayville came in for 10,000 pounds of supplies for Sigrit Bros., Tuesday. On Wednesday he made a sale of one span of horses to two doctors, who will tour the interior, for $100, a good price.
Rev. J. W. Jenkins spent three days as a missionary on the island of Jamaica in the West Indies. He will tell you about some of his experiences there, at the Christian church on Monday evening. Don't fail to hear him.
Mrs. C. Merritt and Mrs. Fred Bock were guests of Mrs. M. M. Hunter, of Ione, Saturday and Sunday. While there the young folks gave them an exceedingly pleasant dancing party. Both ladies are staunch advocates of Ione's hospitality.
Rev. J. W. Flesher and wife are expected to return from the Spokane Conference today. Rev. Flesher has been transferred to Co'fax, Wash., and Rev. Nicholson, formerly of Moro has the appointment as pastor of the M. E. church here.
Rev. M. V. Howard will preach at the M. E. church, South, next Sabbath at 11 a. m., and Rev. R. C. Michael at 7:30 p. m. Come and hear these devoted servants of God. Sunday school at 3 p. m. League at 7 p. m., led by Sidney Grenfell.
Rev. J. W. Jenkins, so well and formerly known to Heppner's community, will occupy the pulpit of the Christian church next Sunday morning and evening. The announcement of Rev. Jenkins presence is sufficient to insure a crowded house.
Dr. Marguerite Garnsey will leave for a trip east the first of the month, and desires those indebted to her to come forward by that time. She earnestly desires those needing her remedies to secure them before she leaves, as she may be absent for some time.
Hon. Phil Metachan, in connection with Mr. C. W. Knowles, has taken charge of the Imperial Hotel, of Portland. The reputation of these gentlemen insures the success of the enterprise. The diningroom is excellently managed and is unsurpassed.
Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Copper came in from Monument the first of the week with their son and daughter. The young folks proceeded to Portland where Miss Copper will attend St. Helen's Hall, and the young man will enter the Bishop Scott Academy.
Ben Swaggart and family expect to leave this week for Weston, where the young ladies may enter the State Normal school. Mr. Swaggart has not yet decided positively, as he is also favorably impressed with both the Penitentiary and Walla Walla schools.
Mrs. Flaughter, mother of Mrs. Oris Robertson and Miss Flaughter, returned to her home at Baker City, after several weeks' visit with her daughters, last week. Mrs. Flaughter is one of Baker's prominent teachers and assumes her position upon the opening of the schools.
Geo. Conser received a telegram Tuesday from Mrs. Ed. D. Smith stating that her husband was killed by the cars and buried Sunday at Metz, California. Mr. Smith was section foreman here for a long time, and had many friends, who will regret his untimely end.
"Pap" Simons drove to Pendleton Sunday, returning Tuesday. He reports Pendleton "alright," and thinks that a ride along the turpicks leading from all directions into that enterprising city by our county officials would excite them into an effort to rival Umatilla county.

Mr. John Kinaman, the Gazette singer, regrets hurting your feelings by having referred to your business concern's enterprise in taking Mr. Willingham in as a partner. Your correspondence to the Times strikes us as decidedly unbecomingly a business man.
Misses Mamie and Emma Farnsworth left on Monday morning's train for Portland, where they will enter St. Helen's Hall for the ensuing year. In honor of their departure the popular young ladies were given a delightful farewell party at the opera house last Friday evening by the young society people.
The First National Bank will be remodelled in the near future. Attorney Redfield will surrender his office in the rear, when the vault will be extended the length of his room and the additional space annexed to George Conter's private apartments, where he will wine, dine and entertain all his friends.
Tom Matlock, accompanied by his son "Doc," started on Monday morning's train for Eugene, where "Doc" will enter the State University. His father will make it a point to take in the various fairs before returning home. His daughter, Miss Elizabeth, is now visiting at Eugene and is expected to return home the last of this month.
The W. C. T. U. held their regular meeting at the residence of Mrs. Alice McNay Wednesday afternoon, and at its conclusion set the next meeting for next Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. at the residence of Mrs. Julia Disbee. Mrs. Alex. Thompson, the president, being absent on account of sickness the members united in an expression of sympathy.
Low Tillard made a flying trip to Pendleton behind a team this week. He, like "Pap" Simons, puts up a good argument for a "road boss" equal to Umatilla's, who devotes his time to traveling the highways and overseeing repairs, which results in the finest roads they ever traveled. He predicts Morrow county's attention being forced to this important consideration in the near future.
The Spokesman-Review in reporting the Columbia River Conference held in Spokane last week speaks of Rev. J. W. Flesher thus: "The evening service by Rev. J. W. Flesher of Heppner, Or., who spoke eloquently and ably on the power and importance of the memory. A very large congregation was present, and gave the speaker the closest and most careful attention. The service was opened with prayer by Dr. George K. Morris, and the hymn, 'Oh, cease I speak the matchless worth.' Dr. Morris also read the evening lesson which was the parable of the rich man and Lazarus. After the hymn, 'How firm a foundation,' came the sermon of Mr. Flesher."
Jess Stewart returned on Monday night's train from Portland, where he went last week to add to the stock of the new firm of Matlock & Stewart, of Lone Rock, and yesterday morning after loading two four-horse teams from the warehouses, left for Lone Rock. The prediction of the leading wholesale concerns of Portland is that Messrs. Matlock & Stewart have made no mistake in the selection of Lone Rock as a business point. The Gazette has furnished the new firm with a complete outfit of printed stationery and circulars introducing them to their patrons. Jess is an enterprising young business man, and we have no hesitancy in predicting him one of Eastern Oregon's most successful business men in the near future.
For Sale—Costly furniture of six rooms, almost new. Must be sold at once. Call and secure a bargain.
DR. MARGUERITE GARNSEY.
Charity at Home.
"Just like his father"—Bert Simons' attention was drawn to a little lad whose widowed mother is stopping here, and reported to be in very stringent circumstances, and the tattered condition of the little fellow's clothing seemed to confirm the report in the mind of Bert. As he passed the shop one morning recently, the blacksmith's tools dropped to the floor and when Bert got through with the little chap, he turned him out of Rhea & Welch's store clothed from head to foot with as warm and serviceable clothing, shoes and hat as the firm had in stock. Bert's answer to the query as to how he got even, was: "A little extra work and a few less cigars, etc., will pay the bill."
A Sad Death.
Little Ester, aged 3 years, daughter of a Mrs. Brown of Ione, died very suddenly at that place last week. A sad feature of the case was that the father, who has been a barber of that place until a few days previous to the death of the sweet little child, left in search of a new location, saying to his wife that he would write as soon as he reached a desirable port. Up to the time of the burial he had not written and the mother, not knowing his whereabouts, was unable to inform him of their loss. The child was great favorite of the father and the sad news will be a severe blow to him.
Two Interesting Lectures.
Rev. J. W. Jenkins, of Hood River and who was formerly pastor of the Christian Church of Heppner, has been persuaded to visit our city and deliver two lectures. These lectures are entitled "Following the Flag" and "In Wonderland" the former being a lecture on the late Spanish-American war, and the latter an interesting and instructive recounting of the experience of Mr. Jenkins as a missionary to the island of Jamaica. Both these lectures are highly illustrated by the use of the stereopticon. The lecture on Jamaica will be delivered at the Christian church in this city on Monday evening and that on the Spanish-American war on the following evening. Prices of admission have been placed at the low figures of 15 cents for children and 25 cents for adults.

AGAIN VICTORIOUS.
Sunday's Baseball Game Won by the Married Men.
Interest in baseball refuses to subside, and last Sunday promptly at 2 o'clock the opposing nines met on the diamond. Considerable spirit was shown on both sides, but the way the married men got down to business was a caution. When they got through with the boys the score stood:

Lowney's Candy fresh twice a month at Patterson & Son's.
Watermelon Party.
Saturday night a delightful watermelon party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Maris, below town, as a farewell to their son Owen, who left Monday morning for Newberg, where he will attend school this winter. Besides watermelons, music and games were indulged in to the delight of those present, as follows: Misses Pearl Wells, Vera Hart, Eva Bartholomew, Ida Howard, Lena Glascock, Thressa Flesher, Edna Mallory, Essie Leeger, Nellie Labus, Bessie Sutton and Messrs. George Vinson, Percy Johnson, Owen Maris, Matt Hughes, Lee Slocum, Ralph Maris, Chas. Horner, Abe Wells and Paul Maris.
Teachers' Reading Circle.
A meeting will be held on Monday night, Sept. 18, 1929, at the home of Supt. J. W. Shipley for the purpose of organizing a literary reading circle. The subjects taken up will be of interest to all who are literarily inclined. All who are interested in this work are cordially invited to attend and take an active interest in the organization.
COMMITTEE.
To the Public.
The public is hereby notified that I have, near the hot springs, at Ritter, good hay and pasturage for all campers. Also good camping grounds with plenty of water and shade. Good fresh milk will be furnished at reasonable rates. Persons who have visited the most famous hot springs in the world are loud in their praise of the medicinal qualities of the McDeffee hot springs. Come and be cured.
W. W. KIRK.
Dreadfully Nervous.
Gents—I was dreadfully nervous and for relief took your Carl's Clover Root Tea. It quieted my nerves and strengthened my whole nervous system. I was troubled with constipation, kidney and bowel trouble. Your Tea soon cleansed my system so thoroughly that I rapidly regained health and strength. Mrs. S. A. Sweet, Harford, Conn. Sold by Conser & Warren.
