John McMillan, of Lexington, spent Saturday here on business.
Mrs. J. S. Boothby, of Lexington, paid Heppner a visit Saturday.
Chas. Royce, the hustling cattle dealer, is with us for a few days.
Rev. Henry Barnhart and wife, of Monument, are visiting Heppner.
Don't forget Dickson at the Ione stable when you want your team cared for.
Toos, Boothby and wife, of Lexington, are the parents of a fine 9 pound boy.
The interior of the Liberty Meat market has been artistically repaired.
Luther and John Huston were in town on business the first of the week.
Seed Rye for sale at the Morrow County Land and Trust Co's warehouse.
Mrs. Jerry Drossmann and daughter are visiting Heppner friends for a few days.
Chas. Johnson, the wheat buyer, was prospecting this field the last of the week.
Geo. Luttrell is now at Canyon City working for the Heppner-Canyon City stage line.
Mrs. Geo. Swaggart is visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. L. Beard, near Lewiston, Idaho.
Geo. Smith, Jim Brown, Mr. Stanton and Gay brothers, of Lexington, were in town Saturday.
A 9-pound boy is responsible for the absence of Chas. Matteson about town since last Saturday.
John McCarty, the Union Meat Co's buyer, is shipping considerable fat stock from here this week.
SCRIPT FOR SALE—A number of pieces of land script recently received and for sale at $4.25 per acre. A. MALLORY.
Rev. Potwine came here from Pendleton on Monday night's train to hold service, and look to the interest of his church.
Peter Conroy brought his family over from Olex to derive the benefits of our excellent public schools during the winter.
Mr. Mueller, the popular representative of the Hop Gold brewery, is in town today. Hop Gold is Heppner's favorite.
New goods at Mrs. L. J. Estes, consisting of street hats, hair switches, stamped goods, button bags, bustles, etc., etc.
Geo. Hufford informs us that "Yakima Yack" is now a great dog fancier, and the "race hoss" a second consideration with him.
P. C. Holland, the genial Pacific Paper Co's representative did considerable business with our merchants yesterday.
B. F. Miller, the stage man, was here this week, having come from the interior. He is preparing for this winter's hardships.
Our subscribers are kindly requested to save up the subscription price of the Gazette, as our intention is to call on you very soon.
The subjects at the M. E. church for next Sunday will be: At 11 a. m., "The Philosophy of the Dew;" 7 p. m., "The Man with the Hoe."
Mrs. H. Dale, of Baker City, an aunt Mrs. Orin Robertson, spent a few days' visit with her last week, and proceeded to Portland on Monday's train.
The Russel Comedy company met with a "Waterloo" here their second night. They refunded their box receipt in order to save the house rent.
G. W. Maxwell, the prominent Gooseberry farmer, spent Sunday in our city. He insists that conditions are most favorable for good crops next year.
Assessor Willis was on our streets yesterday, showing an improvement for the better, and his friends feel very much encouraged over his condition.
The M. E. Sunday school is making excellent progress under the leadership of Mrs. E. J. Slocum. It has almost reached the 100 mark in attendance. You are invited to come and bring the children.

W. G. Sweetser, formerly a prominent Black Horse rancher, is again here on a visit from Medical Lake, Wash. His many friends enjoy his presence.
Mrs. Bock and Mrs. Merritt paid Mrs. M. M. Hunter of Ione a visit Monday. They report Mr. Hunter in a serious condition, being affected with dropsy.
Art Minor passed through town Wednesday with a fine band of yearling cattle bound for his Butter creek ranch. These cattle were secured in the John Day country.
At the old familiar corner, the Belvedere, a smile awaits you. Within will be found the choicest brands of liquors and cigars. Billiard and pool tables kept in prime condition.
Remember the Sunday School Convention to be held here on the 18th, 17th and 18th of this month. County Clerk Crawford anticipates an exceptional interest and a big attendance.
Harry Warren, his wife and son, are away on a few weeks' visit to The Dalles and Portland. Mr. Warren may indulge in a China pheasant shoot up the valley before he returns.
Mr. J. L. Yeager found it necessary to take his little boy to Portland for treatment and left on Monday morning's train. An affection about the knee has caused a stiffness of the joint.
Mr. A. A. Fuller, of Portland, known to many of our prominent citizens, is here in the interest of the Order of Washington, a beneficiary organization, and expects to meet with success.
The regular session of the county court is being held by Judge Bartholomew and Commissioners Howard and Becket. The business of the court is very light and will be concluded today.
Mrs. Sealy, sister of Mrs. Hick Mathews, who has been here on a visit of some length, returned to Portland Monday morning, where she was summoned on account of the sickness of her husband.
Prof. G. M. Paul, who taught a successful term of penmanship here last winter, writes the Gazette a request to notify his former pupils that he will arrive here in a few days to begin another term.
E. E. Hewett went to The Dalles last Friday to meet his wife on her return from the Portland hospital. Her condition is very much improved and it will be but a short time until she has fully recovered.
Geo. Swaggart returned from Portland on Monday night's train having completed arrangements for the erection of his brick building. The contractor came with him accompanied by help and work will begin at once.
A New York bride and groom have received more than $200,000 worth of wedding presents. This proves that marriage is a lottery, as in all well regulated lotteries a few people get the prizes while the rest get nothing.—EX.
The youngest daughter of Johnnie Hager was taken to Portland recently by her mother for surgical advice concerning an afflicted finger, which was liable to amputation, but we understand that Dr. D. H. Rand is treating it successfully.
Jess Stewart gladdened the hearts of his many Heppner friends with his presence Saturday and Sunday. Jess finds his business and new made Lone Rock friends most agreeable to him. He is sure to have the business and confidence of that section.
Cass Matlock now prides himself on having one of the neatest saloons in Eastern Oregon, since having the old Telephone saloon remodeled. His son Dee, who has been throughout the northwest with racing, stock is here and will have charge of the place.
Hon. Phil Metschan, in connection with Mr. C. W. Knowles, has taken charge of the Imperial Hotel, of Portland. The reputation of these gentlemen insures the success of the enterprise. The diningroom is excellently managed and is unsurpassed.
Did you know that the revival at the Southern Methodist church is going full blast? It started on Sunday the 5th and is now under full headway. Victory is in sight. Come and get into the current. This will be the last opportunity for many a poor fellow. Beware! Death is on your track.
John Ambrose, one of Grant county's solid citizens is now visiting Wm. Hughes. He lives a short distance from the McDuffee springs and reports them gaining in popular favor and feels that the owners will have a very valuable property in the near future. Mrs. Ambrose accompanied him.
W. A. DeWitt finished painting the elegant home of Jas. H. Hager on Willow creek this week. Mr. DeWitt has again accepted a position with the East Oregonian, and will canvass the interior in the interest of this excellent Eastern Oregon journal. Mr. DeWitt is a success wherever he goes.
Back of The Palace bar has just been placed a painting of a stag as he merges from his plunge in a mirrored lake. A band of wild fowl, disturbed by his presence, arise from the waters' edge, making a most interesting picture for a sportsman. The work reflects credit on the artist, Mr. J. E. Halton.
The Rock Island Playing Cards are the slickest you ever handled. One pack will be sent by mail on receipt of 15 cents in stamps. A money order or draft for 50 cents or same in stamps will secure 4 packs, and they will be sent by express, charges prepaid. Address, JOHN SEBASTIAN, G. P. A., C. E. I. & P. Chicago 41.
A quite wedding took place Wednesday, Nov. 1st, in the parlors of the Ione hotel in presence of relatives and friends of the happy couple, Miss Kate Barton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barton, and A. J. Luss, well and favorably known in Heppner, which was their former home. They have taken up their residence in Lexington.

A little miss,
A little kiss,
A little bliss,
A wedding—that is splendid;
A little jaw,
A little law,
Back home to ma,
And, lo! the trouble's ended.
—Memphis Scimitar.
Coming! Who? Why, the Adjutant. He and his wife are movers, too. They make things hum wherever they go. They sing anything—almost everything. They perform on the piano, guitar and cornet. They will be at the Southern M. E. church Saturday night, Sunday morning and Sunday night. At 3 p. m. they will be at the Salvation Army hall. They will stay all the following week and possibly assist in the services at the church. Brigadier Marshall will be here on the 18th, 19th and 20th, and preach in the M. E. church South. The Brigadier is a strong preacher and wide-awake worker. Hear him. Bring your friends.
The firemen's ball held last Friday night at the opera house was a very enjoyable event for those present. The number of tickets sold was only 57, which, owing to the fact that Mr. Garrigues gave them the use of the opera house free, allowed a small margin to be applied to the expense of better equipment. This cause was truly a worthy one and should have met with a better response. No doubt the work of the boys at the recent fire was thoroughly appreciated by every person in town, and the result of the sale of tickets is regretted by them all. Another occasion of this kind and we feel confident amends will be made, and no one will miss it.
MONEY SAVED IS MONEY MADE.
You Will Not, Because You Cannot, Pass Us By.
A few weeks since a fall of snow signalled the approach of winter. We were prepared for it with a full and complete line of winter clothing, as advertised in the display columns of your local papers. One year has familiarized you with our values and prices. As we have been prepared to supply your wants in the past, we are here to do it in the future. As the holiday trade approaches you will find us with the most complete line of holiday goods ever brought to the city of Heppner.
This fall we have added greatly to all lines we carry, and are now one of the largest business concerns of Eastern Oregon. Our business methods whereby we can sell our goods for cash at almost one half the price paid elsewhere are fast becoming the envy of all business men in all lines of trade. You will always meet with a cordial greeting at
THE FAIR

REPUBLICAN MEETING.
The Morrow County Republican Club will hold a business meeting on Friday evening, Nov. 17, at 7:30 p. m., at the council chambers. As business of importance will come before the meeting at that time, a full attendance is requested. W. W. SHREAD, President.
Teachers' Reading Circle.
The Teachers' Reading Circle met at the home of Mr. J. J. Adkins on Monday evening Nov. 6th, and the following program was rendered:
Psychology, embracing "Intuition" Mrs. Ed. Minor

Recital, "Death of the Flower"..... Mrs. St. Clair
Sketch of Samuel Woodworth..... Prof. Sibray
Sketch of George P. Morris..... Supt. Shipley
Song, "Home, Sweet Home"..... Circle
The Warograph Coming.
The Edison Warograph company, under the management of the Fleming Bros., will exhibit at the opera house in this city on next Monday night, and with the most wonderful moving picture machine of the age will show the most realistic prize fight ever produced, between McCoy and Sharkey, from commencement to knockout. Also the naval battle in Santiago harbor, showing the destruction of the Spanish fleet; return of the rough riders; landing horses in Cuba, and one hundred others of marvellous accuracy and beauty. A number of illustrated songs such as "Just as the Sun Went Down," and "Break the News to Mother" will be introduced. The program will be assisted by the Edison mechanical opera, the rendition as loud as a brass band and of the softness of a human voice. Don't fail to hear this, Edison's latest achievement. Admission, children 25 cents; adults, 35 and 50 cents. Seats reserved at Gunser & Warren's.
A Distinguished Visitor.
Recently Mrs. Elizabeth Ryan (formerly Irving), of Portland, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hughes, and at the conclusion of her visit made a trip to McDuffee Hot Springs. Returning she was loud in her praise of the medicinal properties of these springs, declaring them far ahead of many others she had visited, which have a world-wide reputation. Mrs. Ryan wields a wide influence, from the fact that she is a most intelligent and estimable lady, besides possessing property estimated at over a million dollars in Portland alone. Irvington is named in honor of her, the city of which she owned. The Irvington race track is her property. Mr. Hughes had the pleasure of driving her about Heppner and while here she made many friends, returning home most favorably impressed with our little city and the sociability of those she met. She promises both Heppner and the springs another visit next year.
