The Holly club announces its first party of the season for tomorrow night. These delightful events will be appreciated by all.
Assessor Willis was in town Tuesday on assessment business. He is slowly improving in health to the satisfaction of his many friends.
Patterson & Son have the complete line of Lowney's candies on sale. Drop in and investigate them.
For rheumatism and all nervous and chronic troubles, try one of Pratt's electric body appliances. At the Palace hotel this and next week.
Did you know we were agents of Lowney's candies all kinds and all prices? Patterson & Son.
Gidd Hatt disposed of his remaining sheep this week through Geo. Gray to O. E. Farnsworth realizing a good margin over his purchasing price.
Jeff French has erected a neat little cottage and elevated sidewalk above the power house, adding very much to the appearance of that end of town.
If the congregations continue to increase as they have during the past month it will necessitate the enlargement of the W. E. church in the near future.
Senator Morrow contemplates rendering the Palace into a perfect museum of refined beauty. The decorations will be of a style to enkindle the best sentiments.
At the old familiar corner, the Elvedero, a smile awaits you. Within will be found the choicest brands of liquors and cigars. Billiard and pool tables kept in prime condition.
The first quarterly conference will be held at the M. E. church next Sunday. Rev. Robt. Warner, the presiding elder, will preach both morning and evening. The business session will be held on Monday at 8:30 a. m.

Mrs. Blake, mother of Mrs. Jas. Hart, was brought to Heppner by Mr. Blake from their Rock Creek home last week seriously ill, but we are glad to report her very much improved.
Mr. I. H. Amos, of Portland, is attending the convention of the Sunday School Association at Heppner this week. Mr. Amos is treasurer of the state association, and a very enthusiastic Sunday school worker.
The sheriff informs us that almost $15,000 in taxes have been collected since November 1st. Saturday the eleventh was the last day's grace. Now assessment is in order and extra charges have overtaken the delinquents.
Prof. P. L. Coleman, principal of the Lexington public school, paid Heppner a visit the first of the week. The professor is a most agreeable gentleman, and is very popular with his pupils and the Lexington people in general.
Mrs. John Hager writes from Portland that her little daughter Zilpha is under treatment of Dr. K. A. J. MacKezie and that she expects to be able to return home in a few days, as the little girl's thumb is improving fast.
Jim McHaley came to Heppner the first of the week accompanied by his wife. Mrs. McHaley was unfortunate enough to fall from a horse and have the animal step on her recently and came in for treatment by Dr. Swinburne.
On Tuesday Nov. 21st, at 2 o'clock p. m., an exhibition of a single man pulling a celebrated J. I. Case gang plow, in contrast to a span of horses, will be given on the hill south of the power house. This is a revelation to you. Don't miss it.
Hon. Phil Metchan, in connection with Mr. C. W. Knowles, has taken charge of the Imperial Hotel, of Portland. The reputation of these gentlemen insures the success of the enterprise. The diningroom is excellently managed and is unsurpassed.
F. C. Roe of Dayville, Grant county, came in on Tuesday with 60 head of fat steers, which he shipped to Portland on his own responsibility, expecting to get the full market price. His wife and little girl accompanying him to the metropolis. He hopes to return on Saturday.
I wish to state to the people of this city that I would be glad to meet any one whose eyes are troubling them. I guarantee you perfect satisfaction and can give you the best of references. I come for the future, not the present.
You to serve,
Dr. P. G. DAUT.

The Rock Island Playing Cards are the slickest you ever handled. One pack will be sent by mail on receipt of 15 cents in stamps. A money order or draft for 50 cents or same in stamps will secure 4 packs, and they will be sent by express, charges prepaid. Address, JOHN SEBASTIAN, G. P. A., C. R. I. & P. Chicago 41.
"Mrs. Murphy's Husband," given by Styner, the great recitor and actor. The above is a drama in three acts and will be very interesting. Styner will show his great skill on the stage, as he will impersonate six different characters. Don't miss it. At the opera house Monday evening, Nov. 20th. Come one, come all. Admission free.
The semi-annual convention of the Morrow county Sunday School Association convened today at the Baptist church, with a fair attendance. The people of Heppner are invited to attend the meetings of the convention. The evening session will be held at the M. E. church this (Thursday) evening. You will be made welcome.

Dr. P. G. Daut, a doctor of refraction, who is at present at the Palace hotel, certainly comes to this city with some of the best references, being a man who does his work honorably, scientifically, and at prices to suit. He will remain here the rest of the week, and if anyone is troubled with their eyes, they have the opportunity to see and consult a good man in his business.
In our display columns this week appears the advertisement of Robertson & Co., successors to Hart Bros. Already the reputation of Mr. Robertson is out for the deliciousness of his caramels, creams, nut candies etc. Their rooms have been rearranged and the place assumes metropolitan airs. The success of Mr. Robertson, and Mr. Buseick is assured and we predict it a very popular resort.
On Saturday at 12 o'clock the ladies of the Women's Relief Corps will spread an excellent lunch in the Odd Fellows Hall, at a reception tendered all Grand Army men. Their purpose is to bring together all of the old soldiers within the boundary lines of our county, that they can make their acquaintance and develop a friendly interest, that future occasions of this kind can be looked forward to with interest and pleasure.

Here are some of the terrible things, which, according to an exchange, are likely to befall a delinquent subscriber: Last week a delinquent subscriber said that he would pay up Saturday if he lived. He's dead. Another, "I'll see you to-morrow." He's blind. Still another one said: "I hope to pay you this week or go to the devil." He's gone. There are hundreds who ought to take warning by these procrastinators and pay up their subscriptions now.
Robertson & Co. request a careful perusal of their new ad in another space in this issue.

DEATH OF M. M. HUNTER.
The Ione Hotel Proprietor Released From His Sufferings.
M. M. Hunter, who has been proprietor of the Ione hotel for over a year, died at that place Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, after several months suffering from dropsy and other complications, and his remains, accompanied by his wife and sister, Mrs. Hardie, went to Portland on Wednesday morning's train. The people of Ione generally were in sympathy with Mr. Hunter and his family, and spared no effort to comfort and relieve them during the latter part of his sickness. The members of the A. O. U. W., of which he was a member, gave him constant attention.
In speaking of the kindness of the lodge members and fellow citizens, his wife referred to them in a manner thoroughly appreciative of what they had done for both.
The following clipped from the Oregonian of Nov. 15th, shows the consideration in which he was held there, where, for many years he was a prominent business man, held in high esteem for his honorable character:
The deceased was about 55 years of age, and came to Oregon about 1860, with his parents. They lived in Portland for several years, when they moved to Mount Tabor, where they lived for about 25 years. M. M. Hunter became the bookkeeper for Joseph Burkhard in early days, when the latter had a meat market on the corner of East Pine street and Union avenue, and continued in that capacity for Gus Strube until the death of the latter. After that he was associated with the Kindorf Bros. in the same place until they were absorbed by the Union Meat Company. He accumulated considerable property, and was reputed to be worth about $25,000, but it was all swept away in the financial slump, and he was left with scarcely anything. Before going to Ione he was, for a short time, meat inspector at Troutdale. He was well known in early days, and was a man of considerable business ability. He was a member of Fidelity lodge No. 12, A. O. U. W. A wife and two sons survive him.

Fire Boys Happy.
Sunday afternoon a meeting of the fire boys and the city council took place in Rhea & Welch's store. The council magnanimously voted them $350, the amount of their accumulation through donations and the sale of ball tickets. This sum of $700 will at once be invested in a light hose cart for practice, a good fire bell and regulation fire suits and hats, most essential for proficient service. The boys are taking a decided interest in perfecting their organization, and the business men are heartily in accord with their spirit. Nothing will be overlooked in equipping the department, and it is the duty of everyone to lead their aid. Frank Roberts and Frank Natter left on Wednesday morning's train for Portland to select the cart, bell and suits and gain such pointers as they may find useful. Matters of importance were discussed at the meeting and recommendation made that telegraphic communication be arranged between the hose department and the power house so that at a signal a full pressure of water will be turned on. An incandescent lamp was also recommended placed in front of Eagle No. 2.

LEXINGTON, Or., Nov. 4, 1899.
This is to certify that we have used a Home Comfort Range for several years, and it's just as represented, a great fuel saver, a fine baker, and we would not do without it for twice the money we paid for it. It is the best stove we ever saw.
H. E. BURBELL.

HEPPNER, Or., Oct. 7 1899.
WAGGON IRON RANGE CO.,
St. Louis, Mo.
DEAR SIRS—Having used one of your Home Comfort Ranges for a period of ten years, I can cheerfully recommend them to any one desiring to purchase a range. They are perfect bakers, and I believe in the saving of fuel alone our range has paid for itself and is as good today as when purchased, and no money could buy it, if I could not get another.
Yours respectfully,
MRS. EUGENE CAMPBELL.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.
The Morrow County Republican Club will hold a business meeting on Friday evening, Nov. 17, at 7:30 p. m., at the council chambers. As business of importance will come before the meeting at that time, a full attendance is requested.
W. W. SHAD,
President.

$50 REWARD
Will be paid for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person stealing horses branded on left shoulder with shield under bars.
OLIVER FRANKSON,
Eight Mile, Or.

The Fair | The Place to Save Money. | The Fair

Remember it was The Fair that made values better and prices lower in Heppner!!!

Why

Can we sell goods at a profit for less than other retail dealers pay for them?

Our Explanation

(The Simple Truth)

We belong to an organization of Cash Store Buyers. When our order goes to a factory we club together, and where each one needs but $1,000 worth of goods every one of the 45 stores put their orders in with ours and the factory gets 45 times what each one would order and consequently gives us first consideration at discounts they could not begin to give a lone buyer. We are in exactly the position of the wholesale dealer who buys in such quantities that he can sell at a profit to the retail dealer.

You are respectfully asked to call and examine our goods.

The Fair. Money back if Goods are not Satisfactory. The Fair.
