THURSDAY, MARCH 1, 1900

We hear the bellows of the Bull,
The wounded Lion's roar,
But God deals justice out in full
At the sharp tucks of the Boer:
Let nations frown and races fight,
No danger will we fear,
We'll sit and drink from morn 'till night
Milwaukee Lager Beer.

PULL TOGETHER.

Thousands of well-to-do people are coming to the northwest seeking homes in a good climate. If people here will pull together the population of Heppner and Morrow county will soon be doubled.

Here and There

Harry Bennett was here this week. Born in Heppner, Feb. 21st, to the wife of George Aiken, a son.

Ed Cox and Justice D. H. Jenkins were in Saturday from Hardman.

Ed Doherty favored the town with his presence Saturday.

John Zollinger was down yesterday from his mountain home.

John Natter's lawn looks fresh and green enough for June.

Frank Engleman was here Tuesday, from Iona.

Jess Shelley is expected back to Heppner in the near future.

John Spencer left the first of the week for Crook county to buy sheep.

Vance Whiteis is rapidly recovering from his recent illness.

Heppner Gazette is on sale at Patterson & Son's drug store.

Hominy—both flake and lye—at Matlock & Hart's.

Mrs. Wright, of Union, started home today, and Mrs. Looney remains with her parents, Squire Mallory and wife.

Chas. Ingraham, the Ione druggist, was shaking hands with Heppner friends this week. His business is good for the time of year.

The smiling countenance of James Doherty illuminated the streets of Heppner Monday.

Dan Rice, of Hardman, was in the city Tuesday doing business with the merchants.

Spring is almost here, and good groceries are always here at Ed Bishop's store.

William Bearden, who has been spending several months in Portland, arrived in Heppner Monday night. He says Morrow county is far ahead of the Willamette valley.

John Kilkenny, one of the well-to-do sheepmen of this county was among Heppner's visitors Tuesday.

Canned peas at Bishop's.

Dr. J. W. Vogel, specialist for refractions and defects of the eye, will be here every three months.

Mrs. Thomas Quaid and her daughter, Miss Katie, returned home Tuesday night after a most enjoyable trip to Southern California.

William Barrett was in Monday from Sand Hollow, where modern methods are now highly successful in the sheep business.

Try Heinz prepared mustard in bulk at Bishop's. It is fine.

Heppner town lots are going to advance in value. To wind up some business, three choice lots near the depot can now be bought for $25 each. See George Wells, at Conser & Warren's drug store.

J. M. Boone, a grandson of Daniel, and an Oregon pioneer who crossed the plains in 1846, died last week at Prineville.

Salt macerel and herring at Matlock & Hart's.

Alex Cornett, one of Morrow counties successful cattlemen, was in from Butter creek Tuesday, where grass is fine and cattle doing well, many good beebes being found among the range stock.

The artistic arrangement of canned goods in the store of T. R. Howard causes much favorable comment. Any article of merit in that line can always be found on Tom's shelves.

The Heppner amateurs are going to Arlington by to-morrow's train to produce Taggs, the Walif, which they so successfully played here.

John Curran's lots east of James Hager's store are being cleared and fixed up for athletic sports, by the young men of the town.

O. F. Thompson and wife and H. C. Thompson, prominent fruitraisers of Butter creek, were in town this week. The prospects for a fruit crop over there are very promising, in fact never better for this time of year.

If you want to secure any political honors during the coming campaign, print your announcement in the Gazette.

James Gentry, formerly of Heppner has won his suit against the P. L. S. Co. for the possession of some land in Malheur county.

The Arlington Record reports the arrival of several immigrant families from Nebraska. The coming season will undoubtedly see a great many more families settling in Morrow county, where lands can be bought at lower prices than any other part of the world.

Arthur Hodson, an old time pedagogue, arrived from Portland last night to again make Morrow county his home.

The democratic convention of Wheeler county will be held at Fossil on Thursday the 5th day of April. A complete organization in the new county has been effected, with W. W. Hoover as chairman of the county central committee.

O. E. Farnsworth is home again after a trip to Portland, Baker City and other points.

Miss Gertrude Bishop is visiting Miss Vira Hart, at Hilgard.

Andrew Rood, Jr., had his collarbone broken while playing football yesterday.

The Dalles business men have guaranteed a loan of $20,000 to be made to J. M. Russell for two years at 6 per cent, in consideration of which he is to establish a wool scouring mill there, putting up $5000 in cash himself to start the building.

The safe in the Independence post office was blown open Sunday morning and $600 stolen.

Judge Bartholomew is vastly improving his Heppner home place. The soil there is first-class, and he is putting it into thorough cultivation and setting out trees and shrubbery, and has long rows of hot-beds. It will now not only be a nice place, but also a very productive one.

Al Roberts, deputy U. S. Marshal, was up from Portland Monday, and his old friends were all glad to see him.

Hyle Corbin, Free Green, Robert Dexter and brother and John and Al Deppy were in Saturday from their homes up toward the mountains.

Heppner sheepmen have often ran over against the Weidler mine, in the Greenhorn range. Jack Powers has at last struck the lead there, and it is rich and 16 feet wide.

It is a fact that farms can be bought in Morrow county at such low prices that their first coming crop will pay for the land.

J. W. Allstott was in from Eight Mile Monday to have some painless dentistry done. He has recently returned from a five weeks trip extending clear through to the Chickasaw nation.

A stage line is to be put between La Grande and Granite. The distance is such that travelers can make the trip in one day. Stages leaving La Grande in the morning will reach Granite in the evening.

J. C. Hart, the pioneer railroad agent at Heppner, visited here this week and was warmly welcomed by his old neighbors. He is enjoying perfect health, and is now stationed at Hilgard, 8 miles west of LaGrande. He says that there is still two feet of snow along the summit, at Meacham's. Crops raised around Hilgard are mostly sawlogs and cordwood.

Don't overlook Matlock & Hart for fancy groceries.

Home-seekers are dropping into Morrow county, and find land values very reasonable.

Go to Bishop's and get some of their souer kraut at 15 cents a quart.

Go to Matlock & Hart's for your vegetable, fruits, etc., always fresh.

Any person having a copy of the Gazette semi-weekly edition of Nov. 22, 1898, will be suitably reimbursed by calling at the Gazette office and leaving same with the publisher.

Try that New Orleans molasses, in bulk, at Matlock & Hart's.

The Heppner hills are famous for fine meats, and they are procured in perfection at Bock & Matthews' Liberty market, west side of Main street.

Bayle's deviled and after dinner cheese at Matlock & Hart's.

If you want to buy some very low-priced ranches, see George Wells, at Conser & Warren's drug store.

Hon. Phil Metschan, in connection with Mr. C. W. Knowles, has taken charge of the Imperial Hotel, of Portland. The reputation of these gentlemen insures the success of the enterprise. The diningroom is excellently managed and is unsurpassed.

Have you paid your subscription to the Gazette?

The day is not distant when every inch of land will be deeded and doubled up in price. If you want to buy a good 324-acre place at $5 an acre, call on J. W. Redington, Gazette office.

AWFUL ACCIDENT.

A Little Girl Burned to Death at Arlington.

Shocking news comes from Heppner's neighbor city of Arlington. Tuesday evening Mrs. Jorgensen, who has lived there three months, put her little 5-year-old girl to bed up stairs, and then went down and was putting the two younger ones to bed when she discovered that the house was on fire. She rushed to rescue the child above, but the stairway was already in flames, and the poor little one perished. Mr. Jorgensen was absent at Blalock at the time.

Horror of War.

San Francisco, Feb. 27.—This morning the work of moving the dead from the transport Hancock will commence. The Hancock brought 505 bodies home, which, with those that have been returned on other transports, make a total of 1136 bodies received from the islands. The bodies will be met at the Presidio wharf by a detachment from Battery O, Third Artillery, which will escort them to the building, where they will await the disposal of relatives.

County Court.

Morrow county court will convene for probate business next Monday, March 5, and take up commissioner business on the following Wednesday.

In the Field.

Henry Heppner's warehouse advertises its announcement that it is ready for the rush of business that 1900 is bound to bring. It has full facilities for forwarding and storing, and everybody knows that all business entrusted to Phil Cohen is sure to receive the best attention.

School Meeting.

The voters of Heppner school district will meet at the court house at 7 p. m. Monday, March 5, to select a director and clerk.

GREETED AS VICTORS.

Heavy Artillery Welcomes Home the Heppner Football Team.

Covered with the glory of victory the Heppner football team returned home Saturday night and were met at the depot by a large and enthusiastic crowd.

Their arrival was heralded by the firing of anvils, and they were given a grand reception.

The boys speak highly of their treatment at Pendleton. On Thursday, at 2:30 the game began.

Heppner won the toss and took the kickoff. Pendleton making a criss-cross gained center field, where Oney downed them. They then lined up, and by a series of line bucks Clarke made a touch-down in three minutes.

Pendleton then kicked off to Heppner, in which our boys made a good run before being downed. In about 15 minutes after the first down Fred Hamilton made a touch-down which finished the first half.

Oney succeeded in kicking both goals, which made the score stand 12 to 0 in Heppner's favor.

After a ten minutes rest the referee called the boys back to the gridiron and sent them at it again.

In the kick-off Oris Robertson succeeded in making a 35 yard run. By a series of tandem and straight-line bucks, with an occasional Carlyle Indian play, Natter was shoved over the line. In the next and last kick off Matlock made a fumble, but fell on the ball which kept it in his possession. By line bucking Clarke made the fourth touch-down. Oney not succeeding in kicking the goals, made the score stand 22 to 0 when the whistle blew.

In the first half Heppner was on the verge of making a third touch-down when time was called. In the second half F. Hart substituted W. Cowins.

Clarke, Bisbee, Natter, Oney, Robertson and Hamilton made some good runs around the ends and in kick-offs which gave them big gains in yardage.

Heppner's line proved too strong for Pendleton to get through, and with Bisbee and Hamilton on the ends they could make no gains on end plays.

Matlock and Lalande, the big boys, as tackles held their men and broke up Pendleton's interference with great skill.

Cowins and Thompson as guards held their men and made some good plays.

McAlister, or "Pap Hayswood" the center rush, turned his man and also the full back on the opposing side felt his grasp once, which caused stars to fly. He also made sure passes of the balls, and Robertson, with his grasping faculty, succeeded in catching them and with great swiftness passed to the half backs, Clarke and Natter, who with strength and quickness tore up the line and made runs which gave Heppner big gains and Pendleton's rooters sighs and moans.

Full Back Oney, though light, is an exceptional good player and made several good plays in runs and also in tackles.

Oney, Clark and Natter received slight injuries, but finished the game. Hart, Stott, Driscoll and Blackman were substitutes.

A. Anderson, Pendleton's full back, and Captain Larone, the quarter back, played hard and willing and proved themselves good men.

In the evening a very pleasant ball was given the boys by the Pendleton team, and the Heppner delegation report their royal entertainers.

When the boys arrived at Arlington enroute home they were met at the train by the cornet band and a large crowd and given a grand reception. Speeches were made by the mayor of the town and G. W. Phelps, after which they were escorted uptown where things rolled high.

Will Play Watta Walls.

On Monday the Heppner football team received a challenge from the Watta Walls team to play a game and on Monday night a meeting was called and the challenge accepted. Frank Roberts was elected manager and Arthur Clarke captain. Manager Roberts phoned Watta Walls that Heppner accepted the challenge, and set the time as March 9 on Heppner grounds. The funds for expenses were raised in a few minutes among leading business men. This is expected to be a very hotly-contested game, as Watta Walls has a well trained team. But the Heppner men are gritty and expect to win.

Still More Counterfeiting.

The Secret Service has unearthed another band of counterfeiters and secured a large quantity of bogus bills, which are so cleverly executed that the average person would never suspect them of being spurious. Things of great value are always selected by counterfeiters for imitation, notably the celebrated Hoagster's Stomach Bitters, which has many imitators but no equals for indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, nervousness and general d-bility. The Bitters sets things right in the stomach, and when the stomach is in good order it makes good blood and plenty of it. In this manner the Bitters get at the seat of strength and vitality, and restore vigor to the weak and debilitated. Beware of counterfeiters when buying.

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING.

Notices is hereby given that a meeting of the stockholders of the Morrow County Land and Trust Company will be held at their office in Heppner on Saturday, March 10, 1900, at 7 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing directors for the ensuing year.

An Investment That Will Pay Well.

Good Land Right in Heppner at $11 an Acre.

Jim Jones authorizes me to sell 100 acres of his land on the south edge of Heppner, at the low price of $11 an acre. It is all good farming land, as can be seen by the good growing grain in Tom Ayers' field which adjoins it on the north.

This tract will cut up into the most sightly residence lots in Heppner, and several of them will front on the main Court street, as they now abut on the county road. The town has already grown past this tract.

There is no live town on earth with Heppner's population of 1200 and Heppner's big business, where land on its edge can be bought at $11 an acre. This tract is all under fence. Apply to J. W. REDINGTON, Gazette Office, Heppner.
