Here and There

Everybody is glad to see the train come in before supper time.

W. S. Offner of Walla Walla, has shipped to Cape Nome, 50 cases of eggs. The mule race made things lively Monday. Bunce is a brick.

Heppner's shade trees are leafing out, and her fruit trees are a mass of beautiful bloom.

Don't miss the game. Rawlins Post of the G. A. R. held one of its regular meetings Saturday and transacted routine business.

Charles Johnson, the wheat-buyer, was in Heppner Monday, and will again start into the wheat business as soon as the wool harvest is over.

And now The Oregonian gets here during daylight of the same day it is printed, and all rejoice.

Bock & Mathews are using a handsome new wagon in their rapidly-growing business.

Lanus Penland is rapidly recovering from the result of his accidental injury.

The Arlington baseball boys are coming up Sunday to play a match game with the Heppner boys.

Geo. E. Whiteis returned Monday evening from his sad journey to Colfax, where his wife was laid to rest.

The exciting sight of seeing Tom Brennan at one a wild horse is often seen at Pap Simons' shop these days, and it is a job that requires lots of nerve.

Get your camp-stove at Bishop's. Mrs. L. W. Hill was up Monday from Lexington.

Alfalfa fields are now again making usual wonderful growth in these beautiful days of spring sunshine so common in Morrow county.

Everything in the grocery line adapted to city trade is kept at Matlock & Hart's, including pickles in bulk, sweet and sour.

Do not forget the concert—music—vocal and instrumental—music by The Humanphon—to be given at the Opera House Friday evening April 27. Tickets 35 and 50 cents, Children 25 cents, at Conser & Warren's drug store.

Do you read? Buy your book of Beal & Co.

Dr. J. E. Adkins is up from the valley, enjoying Heppner sunshine and his friends are glad to see him.

George Gray sold Monday a black buggy team of mares for $120 to Mr. Wigglesworth, of Butter creek, and George Noble dressed them up in a handsome set of new harness.

Drop into Matlock & Hart's and get a free sample jug of pure apple vinegar made in Old Kentucky.

The new candy maker knows his business.

Bishop's store has fresh lettuce, onions, spinach, radishes and asparagus on hand.

The many friends of Dr. A. J. Shobe were glad to see him out Monday. He could not go to the mule race, but as a spry youth of 81 he enjoyed seeing the other boys go past on their way to the big race.

A nice line of Key West cigars at Matlock & Hart's.

Yes Sir! A Rambler is better than a whole gymnasium.

About 40 carloads of wheat have recently been bought and shipped out over the Heppner branch railroad, the price being 37 1/2 to 40 cents. N. A. Leach, of Lexington, did considerable buying for the Kerr-Gifford Co.

Sheep-ranch outfits, stock salt, hats and furnishing goods, pipes, tobacco, candy and nuts—all these are sold at T. R. Howard's store.

On the ranch or in the mining camp dried fruits are always needed. The best are at Matlock & Hart's.

Candy Factory has ice-cream for the wholesale and retail trade.

Gov. Rea and J. J. McGee went up to Dutch Billy creek Sunday to examine 160 acres of timber land that the governor has owned for 18 years, but had never before seen. He found it to be a valuable piece of property, covered with good timber and near the new sawmill.

Choice fresh country hams and bacon at Bishop's.

The vegetables raised in Judge Barholmow's garden can't be beat. Leave orders for them at Matlock & Hart's. They are sole agents.

John Spencer and A. M. Bunce made a trip Tuesday up to Wm. Penland's headquarter ranch and saw sheep sheared by the thousand.

Ben Leland left Monday on a trip to Pendleton.

J. F. Spray, of Sprayville, is in Heppner. He says his new town on the John Day is growing, and he has sold several residence lots at $20 each. This money all goes toward building a school house.

AT A BARGAIN.

Good, gentle saddle-horse and saddle for sale cheap. Apply to J. W. Redington, Gazette office.

MULE RACE.

The mule is one of the best birds that ever flew, and he is appreciated in Heppner. He it was who packed big loads all over the North Pacific coast and he packed the extra ammunition and what little food they had for the soldiers when they were on their wild rides after hostile Indians in the early days. Most any pioneer will lift his hat to the mule, for he knows what the mule family has done for the northwest.

Spring races in Heppner almost always come off, but generally horses do the racing.

This year there is a change, and the mule has had his inning.

A. M. Bunce, the sheep-buyer from Wyoming, matched his pinkish mule against Waldon Rhea's sky-blue mule for fun and $10 a side, and the event caused great sport. A big crowd went down to the depot grounds Monday afternoon, and the race came off, and Waldon's mule won by half a mule length.

It was a 250-yard dash and as even and pretty a race as ever was run. Both were good riders and did their best. Tom Matlock and C. E. Redfield were the judges. Mr. Bunce was full of race, and ready to run again, footrace or anything else.

The racing spirit was on, and Otis Welch and Judge Freeland ran an exciting horserace, which Welch won.

Later the mules were run again, with Ralph Jones and Guy Boyer as riders, and the Rhea mule won again.

MANY MEN RETURN.

Heppner and Morrow county are good places to return to, and men who have left here and given other localities a fair trial are returning right along.

Nels Humason left here 12 years ago and went to the Clearwater country in Idaho. He is now glad to be back.

Two months ago he returned and bought 700 acres of land east from Douglas post office, 20 miles from Heppner, and has since plowed up most of it and will put in wheat next fall. He has 40 acres in growing crop now which is already knee high.

Mr. Humason says it is easy plowing down there, and the soil is good and deep. He has a spring on his place, but generally water is scarce, and settlers haul in tank-wagons and fill home cisterns. Some of them haul 1600 gallons a day from Willow creek, six miles distant.

Some day the water question will be settled down there by boring wells, and with water the driest of that dry region will bloom and produce and become a land of plenty.

MUSICAL FRIDAY EVENING

A very entertaining musical program is being prepared by the musical talent of the city, to be rendered at the Opera House Friday evening, April 27.

HEPPNER 'TATERS.

The vegetables and general root crops raised in the Heppner Hills can't be beat, but they are generally all consumed at home.

This week a slight new departure has been made by Minor & Co's big store shipping a carload of Heppner-raised potatoes to Butte, Montana. Not much profit is expected from this business, but it is thought that the manufacturers of the 'taters will net about 4 bits a sack. Heppner hates to let these 'taters spoil on its hands while Montana people need them.

Wool, wheat and livestock are the big staples in big quantities that Morrow county ships out to the world, and she is willing that other counties should raise the world's potatoes in their conservatories.

The Best Remedy For Rheumatism.

QUICK RELIEF FROM PAIN. All who use Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism are delighted with the quick relief from pain which it affords.

When speaking of this Mr. D. N. Sinks, of Troy, Ohio, says: "Some time ago I had a severe attack of rheumatism in my arm and shoulder. I tried numerous remedies but got no relief until I was recommended by Messrs. Geo. F. Parsons & Co., druggists of this place, to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. They recommended it so highly that I bought a bottle. I was soon relieved of all pain. I have since recommended this liniment to many of my friends, who agree with me that it is the best remedy for muscular rheumatism in the market." For sale by Conser & Warren.

Twenty different temperance drinks at Candy Factory.

Jack! Jack! Jack! Have you a Jack to start a crop of mules? If so, come to Gazette office and get some bills printed, with a big picture of a Jack on them.

Now is the season for gentlemen horses to parade themselves, and the Heppner Gazette prints showy horse-bills at short notice.

Hon. Phil Metchan, in connection with Mr. C. W. Knowles, has taken charge of the Imperial Hotel, of Portland. The reputation of these gentlemen insures the success of the enterprise. The diningroom is excellently managed and is unsurpassed.

The day is not distant when every inch of land will be deeded and doubled up in price. If you want to buy a good 324-acre place at $5 an acre, call on J. W. Redington, Gazette office.

MUSICAL.

A very successful musicale was given Thursday evening by the pupils of Miss Julia Hart at the home of Mrs. Ed. R. Bishop. The pupils all showed a very fair degree of proficiency, and reflect great credit on their teacher. The selection of Miss Ella Ayers was the gem of the evening, and the duet by Mrs. C. E. Redfield and her little daughter Blanche was highly enjoyable. Fifty people accepted the invitation to be present, and Mrs. Bishop made it very pleasant for her guests.

BRANCHING OUT.

Heppner is growing and adding to its population, business and homes, and the Heppner Lumber Co. is keeping pace with the march of progress. It has just bought the large new stock of doors and windows recently carried by S. P. Garrigues, whose vehicle and implement business has increased so rapidly that he has had to drop other lines. Messrs. Wills & Patterson now have everything in the building line. One of their finest glass doors has just been put into W. D. Lord's new house, and it is a thing of beauty.

Reduced Rates.

The O. R. & N. Co. will give a special rate of one and one-fifth fare to those delegates or members of their families attending Heppner assembly, Grand Encampment and Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F. at Astoria May 22-25.

Masonic Grand Bodies of Oregon in annual sessions, Portland, June 11-16. Certificate plan. A rate of one fare for the round trip will be given on the certificate plan to those who attend the annual encampment of the G. A. R., Women's Relief Corps and Sons of Veterans, at La Grande, June 19 to 25. Certificates to be signed by H. V. Gates, secretary, and are to be issued only on any of the three days prior to opening day of the encampments, including the latter.

NOW IS THE TIME.

Time tells the tale, and Ex-Mayor P. O. Borg keeps the time for Heppner and Morrow county. His jewelry store and watchmaking establishment is the leading one here, and he has just received a splendid new stock of watches, clocks and jewelry of all descriptions, which he invites you to call and inspect. Time is free, and prices on his other goods are very reasonable, for the quality is first-class. Mr. Borg's new regulator is the talk of the town. It stands 8 feet high, and gives the exact time at all times. Come and see it. Its handsome pendulum is as large as a full moon.

HEPPNER LIGHT & WATER CO.
