MARRIED.

At Lexington, June 13, 1900, Mr. Thomas H. Nichols and Miss Ina B. Leach.

At the close of the prayer meeting Wednesday evening the doors were opened and four little girls dressed in white, carrying beautiful bouquets, followed by the bride and groom, marched up the front aisle to the strains of a wedding march played by Miss Donna Barnett.

When they reached the altar, two little girls stood on each side of the bride and groom while the ceremony was performed by Rev. A. L. Thoroughman, at the close of which the wedding march was resumed and the little girls led the way down the second aisle and out at the door.

Both bride and groom are well known and greatly loved by their many friends here.

THAT INDIAN MURDER.

The killing of the Indian, Old Billy, father of Young Billy, on Rock creek last week seems to have been the result of a general discussion during a general drunk.

There was a sick squaw in the camp who through no fault of her own had become an incubator, and some of the Indians wanted to kill her off and get rid of her.

The poor sick squaw was taken by her friends to the house of Geo. Perry, where she was given protection until the storm blew over.

Another was tied to a tree and nearly suffocated by having matches burned under his nose.

WAR IN CHINA.

London, June 18.—There is not a cabinet in Europe apparently that knows what has been transpiring in Peking for five days or in Tien Tsin for three days.

The report, spread world-wide from Shanghai, that the legations had been attacked and that one minister, probably the German, had been murdered, has been traced to Tao Tai Sheng, who for a few days, as the Empress Dowager's agent, has been censoring the telegrams from Shanghai.

It is known that last Friday Sheng received a message from either Peking or Tien Tsin. The dispatch said that General Tung Fuh Siang's troops aided the Boxers in an organized attack on the foreign legations and that in the course of the attack some of the legation buildings were reduced to ruins.

The Americans in the interior of the two neighboring provinces have been advised to leave, but several have no means of doing so.

Unless a large force is sent, there is danger of a massacre of native Christians. A large native army is ready to oppose the relief column.

The Chinese government cannot decide whether to adopt the policy of rigidly suppressing the Boxers or that of defying the world. The decision rests with the Dowager Empress.

News from Peking says the Boxers were then killing hundreds of native Christians and the servants of foreigners. Chinese reports state that Admiral Seymour is fighting with the Chinese regulars, and the foreign forces have seized the Taku forts.

Manila, June 18.—The ninth Regiment has been ordered to Manila, whence it will proceed to China.

Lien Kan Tau, June 18.—The Taku forts opened fire at 1 in the morning on the ships of the allied squadrons. After six hours' engagement, the forts were silenced and occupied by the allied forces.

Additional men for storming the forts were sent ashore from the ships the previous afternoon.

Admiral Seymour's column is now in the middle of an arid plain, with no food and no good water, and surrounded by hostile forces.

London, June 20.—The Russian relieving force arrived outside of Peking this morning, and began to attack the city on two sides, employing numerous artillery.

It arrived in the nick of time, for the Chinese assert that the attack upon the legations had been successfully renewed. The night of June 16 the Chinese troops attacked the legations and set on fire five European buildings.

New York, June 19.—The President has directed General MacArthur to send three regiments of regulars to Tien Tsin, which will make a force of 5000.

Admiral Remy has been directed to send the Oregon to Taku as soon as she can start.
