FRANK ROBERTS, PROP.

Here and There

Celebrate the Fourth. If you are figuring out where to go, Heppner is the place on the Fourth. After the Fourth come the joys of camping and hunting tuckleberries. The forks of the Santiam is raising 1000 acres of flax this summer. Rev. S. B. Hope, who used to live at Lexington, is now preaching and officiating at weddings around Canyon City. A big band of beef cattle belonging to Snippton Bill Brown passed Mayville Sunday headed for Portland. Distance lends enchantment. Walter Golden has returned home from Sumpter, where his "gold mine" was a $1.50 job in an old saw mill. Ivan Sloan is on the mountain trail to Pendleton with 100 head of beef cattle. He has been paying $30 per head for dry cows. A band of 150 head of mares and colts were shipped Friday from Heppner to St. Paul. They had been bought in the Long Creek country at $8 a head. Wm. Gribble will run Geo. Irvin's sheep on Dixie Butte this summer. There are delightful camping spots up there. Flags at The Fair. The Umatilla Indians will celebrate the coming Fourth with their usual feasting and fantastic riding and racing. Young Chief will be in the saddle. T. R. Howard's store has everything in the grocery line needed by city trade. Constable Judge Mattingly is "enforcing the strong arm of the law" as was predicted at Mayville, and has already fore-d to be removed from the town 1 dead cow, 1 dead cat. For the fruit that you are going to put up, now leave your orders at Matlock & Hart's. At the Hoover creek schoolhouse Wednesday John W. Brown was thrown from a horse and killed. He freighted for many years between Arlington and Fossil. Buy your fireworks at the Candy Factory. The Teal or Lehman Hot Springs. Best Health and pleasure resort in Eastern Oregon. No Saloons. New Management. Good Hotel, Meals 25 cents, Grocery Store. The vegetables raised in Judge Bartholomew's garden can't be beat. Leave orders for them at Matlock & Hart's. They are sole agents. Orders taken for hair switches at Mrs. L. J. Estes'. Go to the Candy Factory for fruits. As Riley Thomas was coming down Gird creek Tuesday with a load of Shoo-fly wool, a piece of the grade gave way, sending the four-horse team and load into the creek. One horse was killed and another crippled, and the wool was soaked so that it had to be taken out of the sacks and dried. The Ukiah Sentinel says that Camas prairie has no broad wheat fields to brag about, nor any gold mines to go crazy over, and it is not a very good country for fruit, but it has lots of fat cattle and good horses, and makes and exports more butter than any other place of its size in Oregon. Red, white and blue bunting for decorating, at The Fair. Mrs. L. J. Estes has a large stock of trimmed hats, sailors, etc. Just the place to get your Fourth of July hat. Prices to suit. The wonderful medicinal waters of the Teal or Lehman Hot Springs, are a remedy for Rheumatism. Spend your summer there. J. A. Moore from Dayton, Wash., will open a large general merchandise store at Long Creek. Around Ritter fruit and other crops are looking fine, and several people are camping at McDuffee springs. J. C. Arnold and son have sold their band of cattle to Joseph Wilmot for $30 per head, and their ranch to W. E. Piersol, a new settler from Kansas. The children can get toy pistols and caps and fire crackers at The Fair. Bishop's is the place to find fresh country hams. Excellent music, and a grand good time assured to those visiting the Teal or Lehman Hot Springs this summer. Yes, Heppner is going to celebrate the glorious Fourth. Be sure to come. A nice line of Key West cigars at Matlock & Hart's.

LOCAL NOTES.

B. F. Wilson returned Saturday from a month's stay in the Blue mountains, and is now harvesting with Albert Osmin. George Rader, a well-posted stockman of Long Creek, thinks cattle will be higher this year than they were last. Some of the editors of the Washington and Columbia River Railroad are showing symptoms of extending their road to Camas Prairie. Elijah Welch has sold his Middle Fork ranch to the Ayers Cattle Co. Summer corsets, hose, muslin and gauze underwear, mitts, gloves, embroidery, tucking lace, ribbon, etc., at Mrs. L. J. Estes'. Buy your lunch goods of Beal & Co. Big muslin underwear sale at The Fair this week. The person who carried away a neck-yoke from Neise Magnusen's wagon Monday night will confer a great favor by returning same to Binns Bros' stable. G. W. Rea and daughter, Mrs. Cohn, start tomorrow for Teal Springs, where they have rented a cottage for the summer. For the best time you ever had in your life, take a trip to the Teal or Lehman Hot Springs. Bathing, Dancing, Musical Shooting Gallery and other amusements. Candy Factory has ice-cream for the wholesale and retail trade. Shirt waists, belts, neck wear, in the latest styles at Mrs. L. J. Estes', second door south of post office. Fresh candies every day at the Candy Factory. Deputy Sheriff G. F. Ward, of Long Creek, and who is also one of the proprietors of the Blue Mountain Eagle, visited Heppner Friday, taking home J. W. Ambrose. Mr. Ward said that he attached the stage company's stock as he came over. For seven years a county warrant for $1.70 in favor of Jerry Cochran has been loading around the treasurer's office at Canyon City, and if it isn't claimed pretty soon it will forever revert. There are several other orphan warrants there. Go to Matlock & Hart's for your vegetables, fruits, etc., always fresh. Buy your books and magazines at Candy Factory. The new advertisement of the enterprising Fair store gives you good advice about the Fourth. An unusually severe hail storm rode a high horse through the Heppner Hills last Saturday. Residents of upper Willow creek turned out in force this week and repaired the damage to the roads by recent rains. Fresh vegetables on hand at Bishop's all the time. Fresh strawberries at Matlock & Hart's. The man who wants a new saddle or harness can find it at the store of Noble & Co. Neat and new everything is at the tonsorial parlors of J. E. Sharp, and hot and cold baths are always ready. No need of sending away for a hack, buggy, carriage or farming implement. Take a look through the big new stock of S. P. Garrigues. Everything in the grocery line adapted to city trade is kept at Matlock & Hart's, including pickles in bulk, sweet and sour. A. M. Gunn has a wheat farm at Eight Mile, and has it run on shares. He has secured a contract to deliver 1500 bushels of his 1900 crop at 60 cents. This is above the present market, but may be below it when the golden harvest time has come and gone. Many new people come to Heppner these days, and they all praise the Palace Hotel. And well they may, for it is now one of the best-kept hotels on the coast. Heppner is going to have one of the grandest celebrations in her who's history. Home-seekers are dropping into Morrow county, and find land values very reasonable. Heppner's big 3-story Palace Hotel is a credit to the Northwest, and is conducted under the personal supervision of its owner, Senator J. W. Morrow, at prices within the reach of all. Babbitt metal for packing for sale at Gazette office, 10 cents a pound. Hon. Phil Metachan, in conjunction with Mr. C. W. Knowles, has taken charge of the Imperial Hotel, of Portland. The reputation of these gentlemen insures the success of the enterprise. The diningroom is excellently managed and is unsurpassed. On the ranch or in the mining camp dried fruits are always needed. The best are at Matlock & Hart's.

COMING CROPS. Morrow county farmers are now putting up a big yield of hay, and in two weeks will begin their wheat harvest. Ed Ashbaugh, county commissioner-elect, who lives in the Eight Mile country, one of the most extensive farming sections of Morrow county, is in Heppner today, and says that the farmers of his neighborhood are now assured a yield of 20 bushels of wheat to the acre, and the grain is plump and good. He could contract his crop now at 56 cents, but thinks a higher price is probable.

LACE CURTAINS AND BLANKETS. Now is the time to have your lace curtains, blankets and quilts cleaned, and the place to get the work done is at Fred Krug's Heppner Steam Laundry. He guarantees to make them look as good as new, and at very reasonable charges. All kinds of laundering done promptly and cheaply. No need of sending any such work out of town.

SLEEPS WELL. "Yes, indeed, I sleep well now. No more nightmares for me," said Jas. Ritter yesterday as he happily beamed on people he met. Then he went on to say: "The cause of my restless easy and whistling as I go is that I have just had my life insured by L. W. Briggs, and now if I die my wife and little ones are sure of money enough to carry them along for years."

GRANT COUNTY NEWS.

Sheriff-elect Laurance will move into the city this week. He has purchased the Halton residence. Many prospectors are in this vicinity at present, and every indication points to rapid development of our mines. The rain Saturday did thousands of dollars worth of benefit to the farmers, fruit-men and stock-men of the John Day valley. It was the heaviest fall of the season, and in Town gulch amounted to a small watershed. The citizens of our city have raised $800 to celebrate on this year. Who says there is anything small about Canyon City? J. A. Beard, of Walla Walla, was in this part of Grant county early this week buying horses. He returned with a band of 20 or 25 head. L. S. Wickelsham returned this week from an extensive cattle buying tour through Grant and Harney counties in the interest of an Eastern firm. He delivered 300 head of beef steers to representatives of the firm on the Malheur last week. The prices ranged as follows: $20 for yearlings; $27 for 2-year-olds, and $32 for threes. DEATH OF A VETERAN. James F. Willis, assessor of Morrow county, died at his home in Heppner yesterday, aged 57 1/2 years. He served through the civil war as a volunteer from his native state of Iowa, and came out of the army with such broken health that he has never since been really well. Mr. Willis came to Morrow county 11 years ago, and has earned the respect and esteem of all. His funeral this forenoon under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity, was largely attended. CARE FOR THE EYE. Mrs. Dr. Frank, who has been in Heppner during the past two weeks, has proven herself to be a very efficient oculist, and has given great relief to many people who have been having trouble with their eyes. Among the many testimonials given her is the following from Dr. B. F. Vaughan, Heppner's postmaster. HEPPNER, June 27. I have had two pairs of glasses, one for dental work and the other for postoffice business, fitted by Mrs. Dr. Frank, and they give the best satisfaction of any glasses I ever had. Very respectfully, DR. B. F. VAUGHAN, P. M. Mrs. Dr. Frank will remain in Heppner, and be at the parlors of the Palace Hotel until after July 4, and will be assisted by her brother, Prof. Ernest Benjamin Arnold. Mrs. Frank has with her one of the most complete outfits of artificial eyes, optical instruments and supplies ever brought to Heppner. She scientifically examines the eye, and the spectacles she furnishes are made from Brazilian diamond rock crystal, and she scientifically fits all glasses to the eye of the person who is to wear them. TO TELL THE TIME. Heppner town is up with the times, and her leading jeweler, P. O. Borg, keeps everything with which to tell the time. His stock is very full and complete, and he invites your attention to its neatness and its freshness and its excellent quality. When you buy an article from P. O. Borg, Heppner's leading jeweler, you may know that it is good. Mr. Borg's large stock of watches, clocks and jewelry is a credit to Morrow county, and he does first-class repairing. BIDS FOR WOOD. The Heppner School District invites bids for 75 cords of four-foot fir or pine wood to be delivered at the Heppner school house on or before Oct. 1, 1900. Bids will be opened July 2d. By order of the Board of Directors. J. J. ROBERTS, Clerk. A Sprained Ankle Quickly Cured. "At one time I suffered from a severe sprain of the ankle," says Geo. E. Cary, editor of the Guide, Washington, Va. "After using several well recommended medicines without success, I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and am pleased to say that relief came as soon as I began its use and a complete cure speedily followed." Sold by Conser & Warren. CHEAP PASTURE. Anyone wanting pasture for a bunch of cattle, horses or sheep, call on J. W. Redington, at Gazette office, Heppner. MOWERS. If you need a Mower, look at the Milwaukee Chain Mower at Bishop's. MOUNTAIN CAMPING. The best place on earth to camp is among the beautiful Blue mountains, south from Heppner. If you intend going there this summer, drop a line to S. W. Florean, Heppner, and arrange with him to haul out yourself and baggage. He owns a ranch out there, and has good teams, and knows every foot of the mountains. CHEAP CORNER. The large corner property east of J. M. Hager's store and opposite the residence of C. A. Rhea, is now offered at the low price of $850. Apply at Gazette office. RED FRONT STABLE. When you come to Heppner, put up your team at the Red Front Livery Stable on Main st., opposite the brewery. They will receive the best of care. Buggies, teams and saddle horses for hire at reasonable rates. Hay and grain bought and sold. BINNS BROS.
