 Clean newspapers to cover shelves, put under carpets and line houses are sometimes scarce, but just now there is a full supply on sale at the Gazette office at 15 cents a package.
 Last week complaint was made against J. Bordwell, of the Hardman neighborhood, charging him with rape. The victim was Sadie Gerking, about 12 years old. The preliminary was held before Justice Williams and Bordwell was bound over in the sum of $500 to appear at the November term of court.
 We are the grocers in the city directory of merchants. Matlock & Hart.
 During the past week the maximum, or day temperatures in Eastern Oregon ranged between 74 and 100 degrees, and the minimum, or night, temperatures between 48 and 66 degrees. The weather in Heppner today is cool and comfortable.
 The wonderful medicinal waters of the Teal or Lehman Hot Springs, are a remedy for Rheumatism. Spend your summer there.
 The mountains at the head of Ditch creek echoed and re-echoed with vocal and instrumental music while the Wild West party was camped there. Those comprising the company were: Mrs. J. D. Brown, Misses Pearl Welle, Anna Smith, Lillian Andrews, Maggie and Bertha Adkins, and W. L. Saling, Prof. Howard, Bruce Kaily, Jake Wells, Ora Adkins and Clyde Saling.

A. B. Cherry, Great Sachem of the Reservation of Oregon, Improved Order of Red Men, is up from Portland, and will gather together this evening the members of Seaside Tribe, who will hold an enthusiastic meeting and go forward with their good work.
 Dr. E. R. Swinburne and Mrs. Hannah Bartholomew, who were recently married in Heppner, are enjoying a wedding trip through California.
 Miss Ethel Walbridge, who is one of the best teachers in the Morrow county schools, will start Monday to finish the term at the Caldwell grade.
FIRE FIEND FOILED.
 That Heppner has a good fire department and a good water system was again proven today.
 At 1 P. M. Bock & Matthews' smoke-house caught fire. Dan Horner and Marshal Thornton discovered it and sounded an alarm, and in a jiffy the department had two streams on the now brightly-burning building.
 The fire was instantly drowned out. A brisk breeze was stirring at the time, and had near-by buildings caught, a considerable conflagration would be probable.
 A poor dictionary is poor property at any price. Get a good one and don't be buncoed by old reprints. Read the advertisement of G. & C. Merriam Co.—a publishing house that is thoroughly reliable in every respect.
SLEEPS WELL.
 "Yes, indeed, I sleep well now. No more nightmares for me," said Jas. Ritter yesterday as he happily beamed on people he met. Then he went on to say: "The cause of my resting easy and whistling as I go is that I have just had my life insured by L. W. Briggs, and now if I die my wife and little ones are sure of money enough to carry them along for years."

HOME INDUSTRY.
 Few people realize what an extensive establishment the Heppner Steam Laundry is. It has the latest and most improved machinery, and does all kinds of laundry work in first-class shape. Its wagon calls for and delivers laundry. No need sending away from home for washing. All white labor under the able management of Fred Krug.

BEACH BY BOAT.
 Are you going to the seaside? If so, remember that the steamer T. J. Potter, the only through boat, leaves Portland from Ash-street dock, every Tuesday and Thursday, at 9 a. m., direct for Ilwaco, making no stops en route, and arriving at Ilwaco about 4 p. m., where train is taken without delay for all points on Long Beach. On Saturdays the Potter, under a fast schedule, leaves Portland at 1 p. m., enabling passengers to reach hotels or cottages early Saturday evening.
 Steamer Hassalo, the popular night boat, leaves Portland at 8 o'clock in the evening daily, except Sunday, and on Saturday at 10 p. m., arriving at Astoria early the following morning, connecting with I. R. & N. boat for Ilwaco and Long Beach points.

"Through the months of June and July our baby was teething and took a running off of the bowels and sickness of the stomach," says O. P. M. Holliday, of Deming, Ind. "His bowels would move from five to eight times a day. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house and gave him four drops in a teaspoonful of water and he got better at once." Sold by Conser & Warren.
