City Marshal Thornton is continually after the sidewalk business. Over a mile of new sidewalk has been built within the last month and the good work still goes on.

Special prices on Axle Grease by the case at The Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Swaggart and son returned Saturday from a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Robt. Beard, and family at Anatone, Wash. While there Mr. Swaggart made a trip to the Snake river mines, in which he is interested, and is very much impressed with the favorable outlook for that district.

Mica axle grease 8c per box at The Fair.

A. N. Foster, of Eight Mile, received a new traction engine, water tank and thrasher last week from the Russell Co. of Portland. The outfit stood in front of Gilliam & Bisbee's, agents for the Russell Co., Saturday night and steamed out for the grain fields of the Eight Mile neighborhood Sunday morning.

Little Giant axle grease, 5c per box at The Fair.

Go to Matlock & Hart's for your vegetables, fruits, etc., always fresh.

For the best time you ever had in your life, take a trip to the Teal or Lehman Hot Springs. Bathing, Dancing, Musical Shooting Gallery and other amusements.

Leaders in the business. Fresh fruits and groceries. Come and see. Matlock & Hart.

Clean newspapers to cover shelves, put under carpets and line houses are sometimes scarce, but just now there is a full supply on sale at the Gazette office at 15 cents a package.

We are the grocers in the city directory of merchants. Matlock & Hart.

The wonderful medicinal waters of the Teal or Lehman Hot Springs, are a remedy for Rheumatism. Spend your summer there.

If you are thinking of going to the seashore, read up on the ad. of the White Collar line, whose beautiful boats make fast trips along the Columbia between Portland and the sea.

Home-seekers are dropping into Morrow county, and find land values very reasonable.

MARRIED.

A. R. Turner and Miss Pearl Baezy, both of Heppner, were married Saturday evening, August 4, at the M. E. church South. The regular Salvation Army ceremony was performed by Major Harris, of Portland, under the national flag and the flag of the Army. The audience completely filled the church, and the ceremony was very interesting and impressive.

The happy young couple have gone to their ranch near Dale, where Mr. Turner has charge of a band of sheep. The best wishes of a host of friends go with them.

GROUSE WILL RIPEN

In the Blue mountains inside of another month, and rolled in flour and fried in bacon-juice they are delicious.

Choice bacon and flour at Matlock & Hart's.

When you want something for lunch in the way of canned meats go to Bishop's.

JOYS OF CAMPING.

Mountain huckleberries are already ripe.

Once again the camping season has rolled around, and the beautiful Blue mountains south from Heppner furnish plenty of places where camp-life may be enjoyed to the utmost.

With good wood, water and grass and full supply of food from Matlock & Hart's, camping will be delightful.

Canned and dried fruits should both be taken along when you go camping, and the place to get them is at T. R. Howard's.

Go to Bishop's for fresh vegetables.

The camper is reminded of lots of things he must have when he sees the big stock of the Ed. R. Bishop Co.

No need of sending away for a hack, buggy, carriage or farming implement. Take a look through the big new stock of S. P. Garrigues.

The man who wants a new saddle or harness can find it at the store of Noble & Co.

Excellent music, and a grand good time assured to those visiting the Teal or Lehman Hot Springs this summer.

SAD DEATH.

Mrs. Lulu Beymer, wife of Chas. H. Beymer, and daughter of Hon. J. S. Boothby, of Lexington, died Monday night about 12 o'clock. On Saturday Mrs. Beymer gave birth to a child, which is attributed as the cause of her death. The child is doing well. Mrs. Beymer came to Morrow county with her parents over twenty years ago, and was a most estimable lady, loved and respected by all. She was a faithful member of the M. E. church at Lexington, and her sad death has cast a gloom over the entire community. She leaves a husband and two children.

The remains were laid to rest in the Lexington cemetery Tuesday afternoon, by Rev. A. L. Thoroughman. A number of Heppner people went down to pay their last respects to one who had been a good neighbor, a loving wife and mother.

LEG BADLY CUT.

While riding a young horse yesterday about noon, Edgbert Young had his right leg badly cut on a barbed wire fence near his home on Rhea creek. He was driving a bunch of horses along the road and the animal he was riding, being young and high-spirited, ran up along the fence, and before Mr. Young could get him turned back into the road, his leg came in contact with the fence and was scraped along the wire for about three yards, tearing a deep gash four or five inches long about half way between the foot and knee. He was brought to town by H. C. Gay, and displayed a great deal of nerve while Dr. McSwiggart dressed the cut. Several stitches were taken. He will be laid up for some time.

SLEEPS WELL.

"Yes, indeed, I sleep well now. No more nightmares for me," said Jas. Ritter yesterday as he happily beamed on people he met. Then he went on to say: "The cause of my resting easy and whistling as I go is that I have just had my life insured by L. W. Briggs, and now if I die my wife and little ones are sure of money enough to carry them along for years."

BEACH BY BOAT.

Are you going to the seaside? If so, remember that the steamer T. J. Potter, the only through boat, leaves Portland from Ash-street dock, every Tuesday and Thursday, at 9 a. m., direct for Ilwaco, making no stops en route, and arriving at Ilwaco about 4 p. m., where train is taken without delay for all points on Long Beach. On Saturdays the Potter, under a fast schedule, leaves Portland at 1 p. m., enabling passengers to reach hotels or cottages early Saturday evening.

Steamer Hassalo, the popular night boat, leaves Portland at 8 o'clock in the evening daily, except Sunday, and on Saturday at 10 p. m., arriving at Astoria early the following morning, connecting with I. R. & N. boat for Ilwaco and Long Beach points.

"Through the months of June and July our baby was teething and took a running off of the bowels and sickness of the stomach," says O. P. M. Holliday, of Deming, Ind. "His bowels would move from five to eight times a day. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house and gave him four drops in a teaspoonful of water and he got better at once." Sold by Conser & Warren.
