Here and There

C. J. Mills, of the traffic department of the O. R. & N., was here yesterday. Dr. Metzler returned Tuesday evening from his vacation trip to the Blue mountains.

Roy Whitties returned Monday from a pleasant trip to the mountains. Judge Bartholomew is substantially and tastefully improving his residence on Chase street.

The annual report of Annie Clement, guardian of minor heirs of the late W. B. Gilliam, shows assets of $3950. The inventory of the estate of Carl A. Harbke shows a total valuation of $1118.

The Heppner branch train is one of the most punctual in the whole U. S. It is never behind time unless there should be some delay on the main line. Dr. House is doing all he can for Jas. Thompson who was thrown from a horse, but the case is a very serious one.

C. M. Jones will soon start on a return trip to Dawson, accompanied by his family. John McCullough and son came in yesterday with four large wagon-loads of John Day wool.

In probate court Judge Bartholomew has authorized the administrator of the estate of Margaret Dunton to sell personal property to pay the debts. Visitors to Heppner all speak highly of its good climate—no flies, no fleas, no yellow-jackets, and but very little profane language.

LOCAL NOTES

Circuit court, with Judge Ellis on the bench, convenes in Heppner Monday, Nov. 19. H. W. Bartholomew's family returned home yesterday from camping at Ditch creek.

The steam thresher has finished up at Chas. Mallory's ranch and moved to the Jim Sperry place. John Hughes was up yesterday. People down his way now have their second crop of alfalfa in the stack.

Pat Quaid has finished up 5 days of hay-hauling, and put 140 tons of 2d-crop alfalfa in the stack. T. L. Dorman, of Rhea creek, was in yesterday trading with Heppner merchants.

Sample of the Demar photo given with purchases at Matlock & Hart. T. R. Howard's store has everything in the grocery line needed by city trade. Heinz's sweet pickles at Bishop's.

J. H. Fry and son started Tuesday with four big wagon-loads of merchandise for Oanvion City. Work will be begun Monday under the supervision of Marshal Thornton on a new bridge across Willow creek on Morgan street.

When you want something for lunch in the way of canned meats go to Bishop's. N. S. Whetstone has bought from Johnson brothers 2000 lambs at $2. Pleas. Howard, bookkeeper at the First National Bank, returned Friday from his summer vacation.

Drop in and see us. Will tell you why you should get your blackberries for canning now. $1.75 per crate at Matlock & Hart's. For the best time you ever had in your life, take a trip to the Teal or Lehman Hot Springs. Bathing, Dancing, Musical Shooting Gallery and other amusements.

Clean newspapers to cover shelves, put under carpets and line houses are sometimes scarce, but just now there is a full supply on sale at the Gazette office at 15 cents a package. Go to Bishop's for fresh vegetables.

No need of sending away for a hack, buggy, carriage or farming implement. Take a look through the big new stock of S. P. Garrigues. H. C. Amis, who had his wrist crushed in the steam thresher, is getting along very well and will recover its use.
