Home-seekers with means, and investors should come here. On account of the low prices at which its lands are offered, Morrow county expects to double its population this year. Good land can be bought here at $1.25 to $5 an acre.

If you want to buy a real cheap ranch, call on or address Geo. Wells, Heppner. He has some places as low as $1.25 an acre, and will mail printed description free on request.

SLEEPS WELL.

"Yes, indeed, I sleep well now. No more nightmares for me," said Jas. Ritter yesterday as he happily beamed on people he met. Then he went on to say: "The cause of my restless easy and whistling as I go is that I have just had my wife insured by L. W. Briggs, and now if I die my wife and little ones are sure of money enough to carry them along for years."

HOME FOR SALE.

A nice house, 6 rooms, well located, lot 50x150, only $1100. Apply at Gazette office.

DON'T BE DUPED

There have been placed upon the market several cheap reprints of an obsolete edition of Webster's International Dictionary. They are being offered under various names at a low price.

By

dry goods dealers, grocers, agents, etc., and in a few instances as a premium for subscriptions to papers.

Announcements of these comparatively worthless reprints are very misleading; for instance, they are advertised to be the substantial equivalent of a higher-priced book when in reality, so far as we know and believe, they are all, from A to Z.

Reprint Dictionaries, phototype copies of a book of over fifty years ago, which in its day was sold for about $5.00, and which was superior in paper, print, and binding to these imitations, being then a work of some merit instead of one of no merit.

Long Since Obsolete.

The supplement of 10,000 so-called "new words," which some of these books are advertised to contain, is composed by a gentleman who died over forty years ago, and was published before his death. Other minor additions are probably of more or less value.

THE WAR IN CHINA.

Pekin, Aug. 21.—Prince Ching is endeavoring to open negotiations with the allies.

Yu Hsien, governor of Shanghai, has sent a memorial to the throne asking for a reward for having invited 52 foreigners under his protection, and for having afterwards killed them.

In the provisional government established, each nationality administers a section of the city according to its own ideas.

London, Sept. 4.—The latest reliable Pekin date is now nearly a fortnight old. An undated dispatch has been received at Vienna reporting that the allied troops marched through the Imperial Palace Aug. 28, but it was known that this date had been fixed by the allied commanders for a formal promenade. There is no other news of any kind.

The Germans, Austrians and Italians will remain in Pekin after the Russians withdraw.

Pekin, Aug. 30.—Three more members of the Tsung Li Yamun have been executed by the Emperor.

There is no government in Pekin. The Japanese and Russians still remain outside the innermost palaces of the Forbidden City. The Germans desire to burn everything and avenge the death of Baron von Kettler.

Yesterday was quiet in the section allotted to the Americans. Its condition is in great contrast to the other foreign sections, where thieving still continues. The credit is due to General Chaffee's proclamation, forbidding looting and offering fair pay for provisions.

It has been ascertained that the positions held by the Legionnaires during their siege were undermined by the Boxers, and in a few days more the mine would have been sprung.

The anti-foreign element all follow the flight of the court. Looting continues and the Boxers concealed in several different sections of the city still keep up a desultory fire. The streets are picketed by the allied troops.

According to numerous reports, the many thousands of Boxers who were scattered on the arrival of the allies are again massing to attack Pekin. These rumors create great uneasiness.

The Japanese have captured 5000 bushels of rice and silver bullion to the amount of $2,000,000. In Tien Tsin the Americans have captured silver bullion to the value of half a million dollars.

Resident Americans think the city ought to be completely destroyed, that Na Tung and Chung Li should be beheaded, since they formed part of the cabal which caused the murder of Baron von Kettler and attempted to massacre ore all foreigners, and that no leniency should be shown or the next generation of Chinamen will repeat the crime.

The British forces met five miles to the westward of Pekin 300 Boxers and 2000 regular Chinese troops. The latter fled without a shot and the Boxers followed suit after losing 70 men.

Washington, Sept. 4.—A dispatch was received today from Gen. Chaffee at Pekin as follows: "Present conditions are that hostilities have practically ceased, only occasional shots being fired from cover; small party repairing telegraph line and foraging. No considerable body of Chinese troops (Boxers) discovered here or along the line of communication.

"We hear Li Hung Chung has full power, but he is not here. Will United States keep troops here until terms of peace are arranged? Now in China, about 5000 effective. I think ample force for United States unless political reason, not apparent to me, demands larger. If troops remain must winter in tents and conical wall tents will be required, one tent 10 men. Escort wagons will be required immediately. No more pack trains required, wagon transportation best. Water falling in river rapidly, must soon haul supplies 40 miles. Satisfied railroad will not be repaired before river freezes."

It was stated at the War department that our position was unchanged; if Russia withdraws her troops then General Chaffee will do the same. Meanwhile, it is gathered that conditions in China are still disordered and foreign life and property are still unsafe.

It is rumored that the Cossacks mercilessly butchered men, women and children in the villages on the Amur river and flung their corpses into the stream. These stories are confirmed by an official order just issued couched in a mild note admitting the massacres, which are described as caused by exasperation against the Chinese for beginning hostilities and threatening the utmost severity of martial law for any future violence to unarmed, peaceful Chinamen, at the same time ordering the police throughout the Amur district to compel the town and country population to drag the Chinese corpses out of the river and bury or burn them, in order to prevent an outbreak of infection.

Distress after eating

What do the people generally think of this Belgian barf that is taking the country? asks the Arlington Independent. The most likely thing is that a good many people are going to get a lesson of experience when this little bubble of enthusiasm breaks and rabbit steak slinks on the market. Somebody is going to be out some fancy price, and it will be only a matter of where the little hand points when the wheel of fortune stops revolving. The whole thing is a fake intended to catch the misguided.

At the ratio these little animals are said to increase, it is only a question of a short time when the farmers of the county will be seriously plagued by the overplus of production. It is a question that may well claim the farmers' attention before they are overburdened with a nuisance that is sure to result from their culture.

BONES ARE HERE.

Everett White, who came here last spring and went right to work, has found a good home for himself, and fled a homestead on it. It contains 160 acres, and is well watered by 5 springs and the east fork of Willow creek. It has much good timber, and is only ¾-mile from school.

Many other such good homes may be found in Morrow county if home-hunters will hunt them up.

BOER AND BRITON.

Pretoria, Sept. 4.—It is reported that General Delarey, the Boer commander, died of wounds received at Eland's river.

General Buller today reconnoitered the Boer position in the mountains overlooking Lydenburg. General Buller and 2000 burghers had previously joined the forces holding the pass. The Boers opened with three Long Toms and fired continuously all day long. The British had few casualties.

From Belfast, Lord Roberts reports: "I have today issued, under Her Majesty's warrant of July 3, proclamation announcing that the Transvaal will henceforth form a part of Her Majesty's dominions."

HORRORS OF WAR.

War and its attendant exposures blasts many lives and turns youthful vigor into crippled age. A dispatch from San Francisco says: "I fever-stricken and wounded soldiers were discharged from the general hospital at the Presidio today and given transportation to Washington, D. C. They are from the Philippines and have been under treatment for some time. Most of the complaints are incurable and the men have applied for admittance to the Soldiers' Home at Washington."
