Heppner Raises Wool to Warm the World. Last year it shipped away 3,245,750 pounds, and Morrow County shipped 200,000 bushels of wheat. Morrow County's climate is most excellent, and you can buy farms and ranches here cheaper than anywhere else on earth or in all Oregon. Population 6000.
Heppner has 1200 population, good school, city water, electric lights and $25,000 brick hotel—the Palace. Portland is located 197 miles from Heppner. Chicago some further.

Here and There

Frank H. Johnson, the wool-buyer, was called to Portland by Telegram Tuesday.

W. T. Hatton has made an improvement on the spring of his clutch wrench, and will soon have that useful invention on the market. Mr. Hatton has also patented a clutch pipe wrench.

Ed Bartholomew came out of the mountains Tuesday with 3000 2-year-old wethers, losing none on the way. He took them to the home ranch at Castle Rock.

Robert D. Watkins and wife were down Monday from their mountain home at the heads of Willow and Rhea creek.

The mellow moon now rises early and pushes its full face up over the hill in Senator Morrow's pasture.

The little girl or big girl who has lost a ring, may recover it by leaving a description at the Gazette office.

The orchard at the Jan. Jones homeplace is just showing what it can do this season, and every tree is loaded down with fruit and not a bug on any of it.

The mill-race is now a busy, cheerful, full-flowing stream.

Their many old-time friends were glad to again greet Felix Johnson and wife in Heppner on Saturday and Sunday. They brought for their friends some sample Tompkins apples, 8 of which weighed 6 1/2 pounds.

The cords and cords of wheat piled up along the Heppner railroad show that Morrow is a county of rich resources.

L. P. Jones, the merchant, was up Saturday from down the creek.

Hens begin to carry their heads and tails a little higher now, for eggs have gone up to 2 bits.

C. O. Bethel has sold his ranches near Hay Creek and leased the Gullford place at Powell Buttes, where he will engage in the stock business.

At Prineville, Howard & Stearns sold and delivered 300 head of dry cows this week to Lyle & Brown, of Cross Keys, and about 200 head of steers to Maguire.

A. G. Trahan, postmaster at Emery, last week lost his residence and everything it contained, including the post-office records, by fire.

Heppner people will read with regret that the Chinese Empress Cowatcher and her husband have refused to again peek in to Pekin.

Ex Gov. David Brickbat Hill is going onto the stump in Indiana.

Tom Moran, the veteran pioneer, has had his hands full this week between getting all his teeth pulled and having a debate with Norman Kelley on national politics. He claims to have made Norm. quit arguing.

Fall styles—the very latest in general groceries—at the Ed R. Bishop Co's store.

The very choicest of canned and dried fruits are always kept on hand at the grocery store of T. E. Howard.

Call and see us and inspect our fine array of groceries, fresh fruits and canned goods. Matlock & Hart.

The youngest, most active and freshest looking pioneers at the reunion were T. W. Ayers and wife. They both show the effects of healthful industry and a good climate.

One of the pioneer pioneers who was here at the reunion was A. C. Pettys, of Pettysville. For many months in the early days he carried the mail free from Rock creek, and he was the first postmaster in the vast section now known as Morrow county. Heppner town at that time had not come into existence.

If you want to buy a small or large home in Heppner, inquire of the Gazette office.

We are the grocers in the city directory of merchants. Matlock & Hart.

T. R. Howard's store has everything in the grocery line needed by city trade. Go to Bishop's for fresh vegetables.

Leaders in the business. Fresh fruits and groceries. Come and see. Matlock & Hart.

Miss Lelia Hardin, of Dayton, is visiting the family of Ex-Sheriff Andrews.

Mrs. Geo. W. Wells and sister returned Friday from an enjoyable visit to British Columbia.

The earliest pioneer present at the reunion was C. A. Rhea, who settled on Rhea creek 37 years ago. Lum is still in the prime of life, and his energy and activity make a splendid showing for the healthfulness of this climate.

Joe Hayes jogged in yesterday from the John Day with 800 fine mutton sheep which he shipped to Portland.

LOCAL NOTES.

Little Eunice Briggs is showing remarkable talent at drawing.

A stranger named Spencer who came here on the train Saturday attempted to commit suicide that evening and cut himself with a knife in the abdomen. He was disarmed by Martin Anderson, the hotel clerk, and found to be insane. Judge Bartholomew committed him to the asylum and Sheriff Matlock took him there Monday.

A fine and full line of stationery at Patterson's up-to-date drug store.

Sandon's Electric Belts on sale at Patterson's drug store.

We are agents for Lowrey's candies; a full line in stock and fresh twice a week. Patterson & Son.

Leather goods and toilet articles, and a fine line of drugs and patent medicines at Patterson & Son.

Have you ever looked our stock over? If not, call and investigate. Patterson & Son.

John Edwards has bought 400 old ewes from Geo. Conser at $2.40, and $59 from W. D. Lord at $3.25. He took them to his Sand Hollow ranch, and at the school-house corner came near having a mix-up with the Bartholomew sheep coming down Hinton creek.

Holuz's sweet pickles at Bishop's. Choice bacon and flour at Matlock & Hart's.

Sample of the Demar photo given with purchases at Matlock & Hart.

Heppner's big 3-story Palace Hotel is a credit to the Northwest, and is conducted under the personal supervision of its owner, Senator J. W. Morrow, at prices within the reach of all.

When you want something for lunch in the way of canned meats go to Bishop's.

Clean newspapers to cover shelves, put under carpets and line houses are sometimes scarce, but just now there is a full supply on sale at the Gazette office at 15 cents a package.

Go to Matlock & Hart's for your vegetable, fruits, etc., always fresh.

Hon. Phil Metcalf, in connection with Mr. C. W. Knowles, has taken charge of the Imperial Hotel, of Portland. The reputation of these gentlemen insures the success of the enterprise. The diningroom is excellently managed and is unsurpassed.

On the ranch or in the mining camp dried fruits are always needed. The best are at Matlock & Hart's.

As an indication of how many people were visiting town Saturday it may be said that the stables of Binns Bros., Wm. Gordon and H. A. Thompson accommodated each 175 horses.

Marion Sperry, son of George Sperry, died Sunday. The funeral on Monday was largely attended.

Out of 200 head of horses brought to Heppner to sell to agents of the German government, only 70 were accepted and shipped away. The sellers say that all the horses would have been accepted if their owners had "seen" the inspector.

Pap Simons is attending grand lodge at Astoria.

Mrs. Bert Simons was taken to Portland today to undergo an operation for appendicitis.

ART CLASS.

The ladies of Heppner are respectfully informed that Mrs. Redington has started her art class, and is now prepared to give instruction in oil painting, crayon, pastel or water colors. Pupils may begin at any time. Corner Chase and May streets.

AMERICAN PLAN ONLY.

The Palace Hotel, of Heppner, is one of the home institutions that Eastern Oregon may well be proud of. It fills the field as a first-class house, and it employs only competent white help. It is conducted strictly on the American plan, and its commodious well-furnished rooms and beautiful tables give satisfaction to all its patrons.

HAVE IT DONE HERE.

Home industry is the corner stone of the prosperity of most communities. Send away for nothing that you can get at home, and keep the cash here. The Heppner Steam Laundry does good work and has modern machinery and full facilities. Clothing called for and delivered. FRANK KRUG.

GRAND TRANSFORMATION.

People who enter Rhea & Welch's store now see a wondrous change in general arrangement and reorganization. The firm's big new fall stock has been placed on the shelves and counters, and is immense, embracing everything in the way of clothing, furnishing goods and footwear for both sexes, besides groceries and canned goods. Rhea & Welch advertise an invitation for everybody to come and inspect their new stock.

HOTEL HEPPNER.

This well-kept house is centrally located on the west side of Main street, Heppner, and has good rooms and a beautiful table, at reasonable rates.

The Heppner and Canyon City stage starts from the Hotel Heppner daily, except Monday, and goes through in 24 hours.

The Telephone Livery, Feed and Sale Stable, on west side of Main street, keeps first-class rigs and saddle horses, and takes the best of care of them.

CLOTHING TO ORDER.

The man who wants good, well-wearing and well-fitting clothing can have it made by me at prices that will beat those of any other tailor in this section. My styles are the latest and my work is the best. Shop on Main street, same building as Dr. Metzler's office. J. H. BODE.

Sheep-ranch outfits, stock salt, hats and furnishing goods, pipes, tobacco, candy and nuts—all these are sold at T. R. Howard's store.

PIONEERS' REUNION.

There were 160 pioneers in the parade Saturday, and headed by the Heppner Band they marched to the opera house and as the guests of Heppner town enjoyed a bountiful public dinner.

In the afternoon the house was well filled, and an interesting program was rendered. Several speeches were made, the best of them all being by Judge W. R. Ellis, being full of sound sense and words of wisdom. He paid a glowing tribute to the mothers of the land, and gave golden advice to the young people present.

Judge A. G. Bartholomew proved himself to be the best presiding officer on earth. His happy remarks were always timely, and he kept everybody in good humor.

The vocal and band music was excellent, and the pioneers made interesting talks, the most thrilling being by Mrs. W. H. Herren, who crossed the plains in '45.

In the evening an excellent entertainment was given by home talent, and it was enjoyed by a full house.

REPUBLICAN RALLY.

The enthusiastic meeting at the opera house Friday evening was presided over by Judge W. R. Ellis, who made a very able and sensible speech.

Mr. Tongue spoke for 1 1/2 hours, and while not an accomplished orator, he gave the people acres of facts and figures, and showed them where lay their vital interests.

The platform was filled with prominent citizens, and the Heppner Cornet Band enlivened the occasion with stirring strains of martial music.

COOKING CHILDREN.

The heating arrangement of the 7th grade room in the Heppner school needs looking after before it causes the sickness or death of some of the children.

There are too many pupils in the room, and those who have to sit close to the stove get roasted. When they shut off the draft, children at the further end of the room get chilled.

It costs the taxpayers enough to run the school, so that no expense should be spared in looking after the health and comfort of the children.

WOOL.

The Heppner market continues lifeless.

There is now about 2,000,000 pounds of wool in Heppner, of which 1,185,000 is in the Morrow county warehouse.

There is still considerable wool out on the ranches. Judge Dutton has not yet hauled his, and Blake Bros., of Rock creek, have 60,000 pounds to come in.

J. W. Salisbury, of Butter creek, has this week been hauling in his big clip.

Frank H. Johnson, the woolbuyer, was called to Portland Tuesday by telegram, important business demanding his immediate attention. He will soon return to Heppner.

In Boston there was an increase of sales the past week, but demands were to meet only the pressing needs of manufacturers. Prices seem to be softening and buyers have been able in some cases to secure prices less than the first quotations asked.

Territory; scoured basis—Montana and Wyoming, fine medium and fine, 47@48c; staple 50c. Utah, fine medium and fine, 16@17c; scoured, 47@48c; staple, 50@ c. Idaho fine medium and fine, 15@16c; scoured, 47@48c; staple, 50@ c.

Australian, scoured basis, spot prices—combing, superfine, nominal, 82@85c; good, 78@80c.

At the London wool sales on the 9th 11,674 bales were put up at auction. The fine cross breeds were 10 to 15 per cent. below July figures. The net amount of bales available for this series is 366,325.

Norman Kelly brought his sheep out of the mountains Monday, as there was already quite a dab of snow at his camp on the Harrison Hale prairie.

DANDRUFF WON'T WASH OUT.

The Germ That Causes It Has to Be Destroyed, to Cure Dandruff.

Many a woman spends an hour twice a week scouring her scalp, thinking scrubbing off the scurf will cure the dandruff. Two hours a week, at the age of 40 years, she has spent 200 days of 12 hours each, or two-thirds of a year of her life, in that vain hope; vain, because you cannot cure dandruff without killing the dandruff germ, and the only hair preparation on earth that will do this is Newbro's "Herpicide"—also a delightful hair dressing, and thorough antiseptic against all contagion from use of others' hair brushes. It is also a delightful hair dressing.

THE BEST.

Bryan O'Leighan and his wife and her mother went on to a bridge together; the bridge broke down and they fell in. We'll find ground at the bottom, says Bryan O'Leighan.

Also best Wines, Liquors and Cigars at Belvedere saloon.

$100 REWARD.

A reward of $100 will be paid for the arrest and conviction of any person or persons stealing horses branded E. D. or—S—on left side.

T. J. MATLOCK, J. M. KENNEY.

A nice line of Key West cigars at Matlock & Hart's.

RED FRONT STABLE.

When you come to Heppner, put up your team at the Red Front Livery Stable on Main st., opposite the brewery. They will receive the best of care. Buggies, teams and saddle horses for hire at reasonable rates. Hay and grain bought and sold.
