Heppner Raises Wool to Warm the World. Last year it shipped away 3,357,730 pounds, and Morrow County shipped 300,000 bushels of wheat. Morrow County's climate is most excellent, and you can buy farms and ranches here cheaper than anywhere else on earth or in all Oregon. Population 6000.

Heppner has 1200 population, good school, city water, electric lights and $3,000 brick hotel—the Palace. Portland is located 197 miles from Heppner. Chicago some further.

REPUBLICANS ATTENTION.

A meeting of the Morrow County Republican Club will be held at the Heppner opera house Monday evening, Oct. 22, at 8 o'clock. All members of the club and all persons favoring the election of McKinley & Roosevelt are requested to be present.
 Campaign buttons will be distributed. By order of G. W. PHELPS, President.
 W. L. SMITH, Secretary.

Here and There

Oscar Thompson, the Butter creek pioneer, visited Heppner this week.

W. E. Prun, superintendent of the water and light company, made a business trip to Portland this week.

Mrs. J. N. Elder is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Buckman, at Sumpter.

Wm. Matlock and wife, of Pendleton, visited relatives here this week. He will return to Alaska in a few weeks.

High Fields says that some banks think they have done a good business during the past year, but that really they are not in it with bands of sheep.

Dr. M. B. Metzler returned Saturday from a trip to Portland.

Ellis Minor is home from a very enjoyable 3-weeks' visit to relatives on Puget Sound. The weather was delightful and he caught some fine strings of both salt and fresh-water fish.

The lost ring advertised in the Gazette last week found an owner at once—Ella DeVoris, who had dropped it on the school grounds.

High Fields arrived on Monday from Brownville, to look after his large interests here. His loss of 75 bush was only one of several things that had gone wrong this season.

Perfect autumn weather prevails in Heppner Hills.

The music of the portable steam sawmill is heard every day now in Heppner, and woodpiles are fast being short, ended to regulation stove length.

Chas. Bell, of Gurdane, called on his Heppner friends last Sunday.

J. A. McLoughlin's threshing outfit passed through Heppner the first of the week on its way home from a very successful season in Gilliam county.

Sterling Keithley, Jas. Wyland and Ed Cox, of the Hardman neighborhood, visited Heppner this week.

City Marshal Geo. Thornton moved his family into their new residence yesterday.

D. W. Horner is on a business trip to Portland this week.

A fine and full line of stationery at Patterson's up-to-date drug store.

Fall styles—the very latest in general groceries—at the Ed R. Bishop Co's store.

Mrs. L. J. Estes will receive a fine stock of ladies' fancy neckwear and needle art work this week.

The very choicest of canned and dried fruits are always kept on hand at the grocery store of T. R. Howard.

Call and see us and inspect our fine array of groceries, fresh fruits and canned goods. Matlock & Hart.

Dan Doherty has bought from Wells & Co. the Bon Ton confectionery store.

High Fields, formerly an Andrew Jackson Democrat, has been wearing a McKinley button in Heppner this week.

After the rush of the wool-storing season, Henry Heppner is enjoying a visit to Portland, where his many old friends are glad to note the recovery of his good health.

Hon. Henry Blackman returned home Friday, having been taken sick at Spokane. With the careful nursing of his good wife he will soon be out again.

In the rush of getting to press and connecting with all outgoing mails last week the Gazette made a mistake by printing a 0 too many in the number of sheep received by Lum Rhea.

Mrs. L. J. Estes has secured the services of Miss Dean, a competent trimmer, and is now prepared to trim hats to suit all, from baby to grandmama.

If you want to buy a small or large home in Heppner, inquire of the Gazette office.

We are agents for Lowney's candies; a full line in stock, and fresh twice a week. Patterson & Son.

We are the grocers in the city directory of merchants. Matlock & Hart.

T. R. Howard's store has everything in the grocery line needed by city trade.

Heinz's sweet pickles at Bishop's.

Mrs. J. C. Hart, of Hilgard, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. G. W. Phelps.

If you want to hear some good reasons why you should vote for McKinley, listen to Judge J. E. Mavers at 10:00 Friday, Oct. 19, at 7:30 p. m.; Eight Mile Center Saturday, Oct. 20, 1:30 p. m., and Hardman, Saturday, Oct. 20, at 7:30 p. m.

LOCAL NOTES.

The bridges along Hinton creek have been put in good order by Supervisor J. N. Beeler.

Judge Ellis is holding court at Pendleton, and will hold at Heppner on the third Monday in November.

A marriage license was issued yesterday by County Clerk Crawford to W. M. Myers, of Hardman, and Daisy Eastburn, of Heppner.

The inventory of the estate of Lanus Penland has been filed by Mary E. Penland, executrix. It consists of personal property valued at $335. The appraisers were Lafe Penland, G. W. Sperry and Jess. Hall.

If there is a man who doubts that sheepraising in Eastern Oregon is a paying business, let him ask Geo. Hufford about it. George has a handsome profit to show for the few years' work he put in, and speaks in the highest terms of his late partner, Cass Matlock.

Little Jack Morrow was giving his boy friends a ride on his saddle-horse Old Doug, yesterday, and all three fell off near the schoolhouse. Earl Kinney's arm was broken by the fall.

Mrs. L. J. Estes has just received a large invoice of ladies' and misses' ready made dress skirts, also a nice line of street hats.

Leather goods and toilet articles, and a fine line of drugs and patent medicines at Patterson & Son.

Go to Bishop's for fresh vegetables.

Leaders in the business. Fresh fruits and groceries. Come and see. Matlock & Hart.

Burt Simons returned Tuesday from Portland, where he had taken his wife for a surgical operation for appendicitis. She is now happily on the rapid road to recovery.

Sandon's Electric Belts on sale at Patterson's drug store.

Choice bacon and flour at Matlock & Hart's.

When you want something for lunch in the way of canned meats go to Bishop's.

Have you ever looked over your stock? If not, call and investigate. Patterson & Son.

By the falling of a ladder on which he was climbing Saturday, Lawrence Shutt suffered a broken arm.

Eugene Noble received a bad cut on the shin Tuesday on account of the slipping of a draw-knife with which he was shaving a saddle-horn. The accident compels him to go on crutches.

An interesting talk is always interesting. Gov. T. T. Geer is an interesting talker, and will give the people of Heppner and vicinity a good talk at the opera house Tuesday, Oct. 30, at 7:30 p. m.

Wm. Wilkinson and two other prosperous farmers of the P. I. one country passed through Heppner Monday on the way to spend the winter visiting relatives on the Coquille. The families numbered 13 people and traveled with 3 4-horse teams. They will return to the Palouse in the spring. Of the 7 men in the party 6 said they were preparing their ballots for McKinley and Geo. Bryan.

Sample of the Demar photo given with purchases at Matlock & Hart.

Miss Ida M. Ayers and J. S. Thomas were married at Milton.

Joe Luckman came in last night to enjoy a change from his ranch.

Although only 4 years old, little Jack Morrow is already accumulating experience. His old horse Doug, got mixed up with some other sorrels in Tom Matlock's stable, and when Jack rode out he was on a fast race-horse. But he clung on, and finally got the steed stopped.

Heppner people who get their milk from the Jim Jones dairy are loud in its praises. It is rich and sweet, for the cows have all the good alfalfa feed they can stand up to.

Heppner weather this morning indicates a change. There are brisk breezes blowing the leaves from off the trees, with some rain at daylight and symptoms of more.

Mac Clarke, of the Minor & Co. store, has received an interesting letter from his brother, who is in the British army in South Africa. It will be printed in the next Gazette.

Pap Simons and Tom Quaid returned Saturday from Astoria. Mrs. Quaid and daughter remained in Portland for a visit.

Gus Bachman, a pioneer resident of Granite, died there Wednesday.

An $8000 sawmill burned up at Sumpter Tuesday.

Clean newspapers to cover shelves, put under carpets and line houses are sometimes scarce, but just now there is a full supply on sale at the Gazette office at 15 cents a package.

Go to Matlock & Hart's for your vegetables, fruits, etc., always fresh.

Hon. Phil Meischan, in connection with Mr. C. W. Knowles, has taken charge of the Imperial Hotel, of Portland. The reputation of these gentlemen insures the success of the enterprise. The diningroom is excellently managed and is unsurpassed.

On the ranch or in the mining camp dried fruits are always needed. The best are at Matlock & Hart's.

UNCLE JOSH.
 Know Uncle Josh? Everybody knows him. He is one of the old timers who came here even ahead of Henry Heppner and Abe Wells and Dock Shobe. He has written a novel in which he rings in the brightest and best business men of Heppner. This novel will appear in next week's Gazette. Watch for it.

WOOL.
 Heppner market continues lifeless, but High Fields, the pioneer Democrat, says that it will become very lively just after McKinley's election, and at a two-cent better price as a starter.

At Boston movement is slower and only sales are for present needs. Manufacturers have tried out the market by bidding lower prices, but have been unsuccessful.

ART CLASS.
 The ladies of Heppner are respectfully informed that Mrs. Redington has started her art class, and is now prepared to give instruction in oil painting, crayon, pastel or water colors. Pupils may begin at any time. Corner Chase and May streets.

LADIES' BAND.
 The concert given by this talented organization was well attended, and proved a very meritorious entertainment. The band is having regular practice right along, now, and with its new instruments intends to become one of the best bands in the state.

WHEAT, WOOL AND STOCK.
 Portland, Oct. 16.
 Some of the soft spots vanished from the wheat market yesterday, and while there was nothing which could be termed strength, the sharp decline of the day previous had been arrested and the closing all around was better. In the Portland market, there is nothing of consequence doing, and prices are nominally unchanged, with 53c generally quoted for Walla Walla, and an occasional sale made at slightly higher figures. Valley is easier, with the milling demand less urgent than it was a few weeks ago.

Wool—Valley, 12@13c for coarse, 15@16c for best; Eastern Oregon, 16@18c; mohair, 25c per pound.
 Sheepskins—Shedding, 15@20c; short wool, 25@35c; medium-wool, 30@50c; long wool, 60@81 each.

HEPPNER WINNERS.
 In the windows of Minor & Co's big store and of J. L. Yeager's furniture store may be seen the finest collection of red, white and blue badge ribbons ever exhibited in all Oregon.
 They are the badges of honor that stand for the prizes awarded to Oscar Minor's fine Shorthorn cattle, and bear the names of state fairs throughout the middle West, of Oregon, Washington and British Columbia. The collection makes a splendid showing for Mr. Minor's Heppner herd, which is rapidly becoming one of the finest in all America.

CLOTHING TO ORDER.
 The man who wants good, well-wearing and well-fitting clothing can have it made by me at prices that will beat those of any other tailor in this section. My styles are the latest and my work is the best. Shop on Main street, same building as Dr. Metzler's office.
 J. H. BONE.

Home-seekers with means, and investors should come here. On account of the low prices at which its lands are offered, Morrow county expects to double its population this year. Good land can be bought here at $1.25 to $5 an acre.

HEPPNER CHURCHES.
 M. E. church—C. D. Nickelson, pastor. Services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.
