HENRY RASMUS.

A man who is making rapid strides in his profession is Rev. Henry Rasmus. His first preaching was in Heppner, and 13 years ago he was editor and proprietor of the Heppner Gazette. His promoted to the pastorate of South

When Mr. Rasmus took charge of the sions, and these he at once proceeded to heal. His success can be imagined when it is understood that his removal complaint and that many of the prominent members of the congregation threatened to quit and follow him.

The Heppner and Walls Walls foot ball teams met in contest here last Friday, and a large crowd witnessed the game on the depot grounds.

The result was a drawn battle, neither side scoring a point.

Walla Walla sent its very best team, and all its members were in fine trim, and Heppner did well to hold them level.

The Heppner team suffered a draw back in the absence of Albert Lalande and the crippled condition of Frank Natter, and in the middle of the game Jack Matlock badly wrenched his knee and had to retire. His place was taken by Charles Thompson, who had not practiced with the Heppner team.

A Night of Terror.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham of Mechias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "All thought she must soon die from pneumonia, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine capital being tied up, causes a little stringency among the sheepmen of is guaranteed to cure all throat, chest and lung diseases. Only 50c and $1.00.
