STOCK PAYS BEST.

Take it up one side and down the other, stock pays best. A real bargain is now offered in a 140-acre stock ranch 45 miles south of Heppner. Only $4 an acre. Good outside range; 100 tons of hay thrown in and 100 acres in growing wheat; all under fence and will raise anything. Apply to Gazette office, Heppner.

CHEAP CORNER.

The large corner property east of J. M. Hager's store and opposite the residence of C. A. Rhea, is now offered at the low price of $850. Apply at Gazette office.

OVERLAND.

The Overland Monthly Magazine has wonderfully improved under the guidance of J. H. Bridge and R. L. Eames, and is now a credit to the coast.

The Overland covers a wide range of subjects, and is very attractively illustrated. Its stories and sketches have the true Pacific flavor, and the magazine is given to the public at the low price of $1 per year. Call and see sample copies at Gazette office, where subscriptions may be obtained.

HOMES ARE HERE.

The Heppner Gazette receives many letters from men in the middle west, asking it to answer by return mail a great many questions about the Heppner country.

To personally answer so many letters and so many questions takes too much time.

When such people are thinking of coming here, the Gazette freely mails them sample copies and copies of its circular describing the main points of interest.

There is no reason why Morrow county cannot support twice its present population, and for those who are willing to work, homes are here. The man with cash to invest would probably reap rich returns from it here as elsewhere, for land values here are the lowest on earth considering the production and profits.

Morrow county is in excellent financial condition, taxes are very reasonable, and home-hunters who come here and are willing to take chances with the rest of us will find a fair share of prosperity awaiting them.

Score cards on which you can keep track on a kind of games are now kept on sale at the Heppner Gazette office.

Heppner Gazette only 4 bits for 3 months.

If you want to buy a real cheap ranch, call on or address Geo. Walls, Heppner. He has some places as low as $1.25 an acre, and will mail printed description free on request.

A Village Blacksmith Saved His Little Son's Life.

Mr. H. H. Black, the well-known village blacksmith at Grahamsville, Sullivan Co., N. Y., says: "Our little son, 5 years old, has always been subject to croup, and so bad have the attacks been that we have feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by Conner & Warren.

When you come to Heppner, put up your tent at the Red Front Livery Stable on Main st., opposite the brewery. They will receive the best of care. Hires, teams and saddle horses for hire at reasonable rates. Hay and grain bought and sold.

Bixns Bros.

HOTEL HEPPNER.

This well-kept house is centrally located on the west side of Main street, Heppner, and has good rooms and a beautiful table, at reasonable rates.

The Heppner and Canyon City stage starts from the Hotel Heppner daily, except Monday, and goes through in 24 hours.

The Telephone Livery, Feed and Sale Stable, on west side of Main street, keeps first-class rigs and saddle horses, and takes the best of care of them.

H. A. THOMPSON, Proprietor of all Three.

SAM TEED DEAD.

The well-known printer, Sam Teed, died at Hotel Heppner early Tuesday morning. Dr. House, the attending physician, says that death resulted from exhaustion following alcoholism. W. H. Adkins and Chester Norton were sitting up with the sick man when death came. Deceased's brother has been telegraphed for and will come from Huntington.

The convention of county officials was not in favor of repealing the scaly bounty law, and set down on the repeal report of its committee. Judge Bartholomew, the president, made a telling speech in favor of continuing the bounty.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA.

Notable among the pleasures afforded by the Shasta route is the winter trip to Southern California and Arizona. Renewed acquaintance with this section will ever develop fresh points of interest and add sources of enjoyment, under its sunny skies, in the variety of its industries, in its prolific vegetation and among its numberless resorts of mountain, shore, valley and plain.

The two daily Shasta trains from Portland to California have been recently equipped with the most approved pattern of standard and tourist sleeping cars, but the low rates of fare will still continue in effect.

Illustrated guides to the winter resorts of California and Arizona may be had on application to C. H. MARKHAM, G. P. A., Portland, Ore.

WARNING.

Grazing on my land 5 miles south of Heppner is in violation of common law and justice. During free trade days it was all right to swine my good grass, for sheep were worth nothing. But now it is different, and it is not fair that I should be left in the hole for taxes. So I will be compelled to prosecute anyone who trespasses upon my land.

J. W. REDINGTON.

Heppner's big 3-story Palace Hotel is a credit to the Northwest, and is conducted under the personal supervision of its owner, Senator J. W. Morrow, at prices within the reach of all.

ART CLASS.

The ladies of Heppner are respectfully informed that Mrs. Redington has started her art class, and is now prepared to give instruction in oil painting, crayon, pastel or water colors. Pupils may begin at any time. Corner Chase and May streets.

FINE STOCK.

The Salem Independent says.

Hon. J. H. Fletcher spent several days of last week at his farm near Jefferson. He recently took up to his ranch the celebrated six months graded Shorthorn "Musician," sired by Sir Howell, dammed by both the owner and seller on account of its high pitched bellow. Now that it's gone there's harmony in the neighborhood from which it was taken, but already grave threats have been made to assassinate the animal by the suburban residents of Jefferson. Its bellow is a combination of the howl of a panther, the growl of a polar bear, the shriek of a loghorn and the noise produced by filing a bucksaw.

BORN.

In Portland on the 21st, Fred Beck became the father of a baby boy who weighed 12 pounds. He is justly proud of the event, and will be warmly congratulated when he returns home.

WHEAT, WOOL AND STOCK.

Portland, Nov. 27. The wheat markets were all dull and tending lower yesterday. The American visible still lingers lovingly above 60,000,000 bushels, and, while there was a decrease in the quantities on passage as compared with the previous week, it was not serious enough to put any life in the market. In the Portland market there was the usual inactivity, but no material change in prices. Some of the dealers have shortened their limits to 53@53½c, but others are still quoting 54c. Offerings are not large, and requirements are likewise rather small.

Freights are inactive, but hardly weaker.
