SOME SMASH-UPS. As Chas. Surface arrived at the depot Tuesday evening with A. T. McNay's express wagon a bolt fell out and a shaft fell down, and the mare scared and ran away. The driver was thrown off, but fortunately was not hurt. The mare ran on, kicked off the dashboard, burst through two gates at Oscar Minor's ranch and fetched up snorting at the barn. It was a great victory for her. While on his way home Friday evening Clyde Saling's fine black team ran away, tore along a wire fence at head of Sand Hollow, smashed the buggy, broke Clyde's arm; one horse very badly cut.

WHEAT, WOOL AND STOCK. Portland, Dec. 12. New York wheat, after a dull and uninteresting session yesterday, closed half a cent better, and some actual sales being made at 84 cents. A New Year's Guide. There is one book every one should make an effort to get, for the new year. It contains simple and valuable hints concerning health, many amusing anecdotes, and much general information. We refer to Hostetter's Almanac, published by the Hostetter Co., Pittsburg, Pa. It will prove valuable to any household. Sixty employees are kept work on this valuable book. The issue for 1901 will be over eight millions, printed in the English, German, French, Welsh, Norwegian, Swedish, Holland, Bohemian and Spanish languages. It contains proof of the efficiency of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the great remedy prepared by the publishers, and is worthy of careful preservation. The almanac may be obtained free of cost, at any druggist or general dealer in the country.

HOMES ARE HERE. The Heppner Gazette receives many letters from men in the middle west, asking it to answer by return mail a great many questions about the Heppner country. To personally answer so many letters and so many questions takes too much time. When such people are thinking of coming here, the Gazette freely mails them sample copies and copies of its circular describing the main points of interest. There is no reason why Morrow county cannot support twice its present population, and for those who are willing to work, homes are here. The man with cash to invest would probably reap as rich returns from it here as elsewhere, for land values here are the lowest on earth considering the production and profits. Morrow county is in excellent financial condition, taxes are very reasonable, and home-bunters who come here are willing to take chances with the rest of us will find a fair share of prosperity awaiting them.

McCLURE'S FOR DECEMBER. The curious charm of the East holds every imaginative mind that from afar dreams of its mysteries. The like charm interpreted in part by experience, yet only the more subtly persistent, dominates those that have dwelt long in the Orient. In this treasure field lie richest gems, as well of realism as of romance, ready for that author who has the art for their setting. Rudyard Kipling won his first fame by short stories of life in India, stories at times tragically prosaic, at times marvelous and mystical, always pregnant with force. And now again Kipling has chosen India as the theme of his maturest work. In McClure's Magazine for December appears the first installment of "Kim," the latest and the most important novel from Kipling's pen. From the beginning it reveals itself as a masterpiece, worthy alike of its theme and of its author. If you take this paper and The Weekly Oregonian you won't have to beg your news.

LATEST NEWS. Congress this trip is going to allow only $600,000 for the jetty at mouth of Columbia. Sultan of Turkey gave grand dinner to officers of battleship Kentucky. The men behind the guns had their usual frugal rations. Senator Clay is fighting the ship-subsidy bill. In China Gen. Chaffee has made a vigorous protest against German looting. Peace negotiations are about to begin in China, and Li Shing Slang says he is boss. Holland has refused to intervene in the Boer war, and Dewet is still fighting. The House of Commons voted £16,000,000 to carry on the war.

Getting Thin is all right, if you are too fat; and all wrong, if too thin already. Fat, enough for your habit, is healthy; a little more, or less, is no great harm. Too fat, consult a doctor; too thin, persistently thin, no matter what cause, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. There are many causes of getting too thin; they all come under two heads: over-work and under-digestion. Stop over-work, if you can; but, whether you can or not, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, to balance yourself with your work. You can't live on it—true—but, by it, you can. There's a limit, however; you'll pay for it. Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the readiest cure for "can't eat," unless it comes of your doing no work—you can't long be well and strong, without some sort of activity. The genuine has this picture on it, take no other. If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 409 Pearl Street, New York. 50c. and $1.00; all druggists.

These pups are lucky to get into good hands and a better climate.

WESTON LEADER. It is a pleasing fact to note that the Weston Leader has been enabled to move into its own home building. The Leader is a pioneer paper that has lived and flourished through thick and thin, and has always been a credit to its locality. It seems but yesterday, though it really is 20 years since the Leader was started by Col. Paul DeHaro and W. L. Black. They left it and had queer careers. The colonel went over hossback and discovered and named the great channel between B. C. and the U. S., and Black went to Walla do. and succeeded in a crusade of downing red liquor. Then he went back east and was lost to sight by being elected governor of New York or some other of those small, cold-climate states. But the Leader lives on and is a good paper.

LINGERING LETTERS. Postmaster Vaughn wants owners for letters addressed as follows: Hale, Gus; Meacham, Miss Bertha Miller, J; Russell, Mrs George Seigel, Thomas Ask for "advertised."

A Powder Mill Explosion. Removes everything in sight; so do drastic mineral pills, but both are mighty dangerous. Don't dynamite the delicate machinery of your body with calomel, croton oil or aloes pills, when Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are gentle as a summer breeze, do the work perfectly. Cures head-ache, constipation. Only 25c at Conser & Warren Drug Co.

NOW FOR TREES. I am now prepared to take orders for fruit, shade and ornamental trees, grape vines and small fruits, roses and shrubbery, which have been grown without irrigation by The Dalles Nurseries. I will canvass Morrow and Grant counties for both spring and fall delivery, and in all cases guarantee satisfaction. My address is Hardman, and I will see that all stock is promptly delivered. OVERLAND. The Overland Monthly Magazine has wonderfully improved under the guidance of J. H. Bridge and R. L. Eames, and is now a credit to the coast. The Overland covers a wide range of subjects, and is very attractively illustrated. Its stories and sketches have the true Pacific flavor, and the magazine is given to the public at the low price of $1 per year. Call and see sample copies at Gazette office, where subscriptions may be left.

No Right to Ugliness. The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wrinkled complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvet skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run down invalid. Only 50 cents at Conser & Warren Drug Co.

ART CLASS. The ladies of Heppner are respectfully informed that Mrs. Redington has started her art class, and is now prepared to give instruction in oil painting, crayon, pastel or water colors. Pupils may begin at any time. Corner Chase and May streets.

STOCK PAYS BEST. Take it up one side and down the other, stock pays best. A real bargain is now offered in a 1440-acre stock ranch 45 miles south of Heppner. Only $4 an acre. Good outside range; 100 tons of hay thrown in and 100 acres in growing wheat; all under fence and will raise anything. Apply to Gazette office, Heppner. CHEAP PASTURE. Anyone wanting pasture for a bunch of cattle, horses or sheep, call on J. W. Redington, at Gazette office, Heppner.

SUCH IS LIFE. Geo. Green, who used to live a care-free bachelor life, was in Heppner yesterday from his ranch in Huckleberry Hollow. He was very proud of the small twins he had along, but they bothered him a whole lot. The girl wanted to camp at a doll counter, while the boy insisted on going to a blacksmith shop to see some wild horses shod. By the time George has about 7 more offsprings all pulling in different directions and has carried them through mumps and measles, he will wonder what for he or they were ever born, and will kick up his heels like this:

FAR FROM HEPPNER. When Sam Carmack recently returned from the Paris Exposition, where he went with a load of Yellowstone sheep, he wrote to an old Heppner friend something like this: "I met at the Exposition our old friend Denis de Porte, formerly editor of the Heppner mill, and he showed me all the sights. He is now a noted artist in Paris, and wants to agent hunt elk in the beautiful Blue mountains, an experience he will never forget. I will never forget the happy days I had at old Fort Elder, when Dave Herren and Nelse Jones came out to rescue me from hostiles. I had my eyes opened at the exposition. There has been as much romance about the Oriental or Cossican woman as about the Arabian horse, but photography is a stern disillusionist. Harem beauties have been photographed. The beauties of the harem, as they are called, have been exposed to the ruthless camera and the world is now familiar with the dark, coarse, heavy type of molded rather than chiseled features, lacking in vivacity and spiritually. No artist would select a Turkish woman for a model, and no American with an educated taste would want one of them for a companion. There was no lack of Turkish belles at the Exposition. The side shows abounded with them and babies of them could be seen in the dance de ventre for one franc. Some of them were real types and doubtless the best specimens of their class from the theatres of Constantinople, Seuturi and Cairo, but mixed among them were girls from Chicago, New York, or may be from Kentucky or Illinois—anywhere. It is not easy or important to learn their whence or whither; but they were Americans sans doute and the way they outclassed the sluggish girls of the Orient when it came their turn to dance was convincing, but not moral.

AMERICAN BEEF. London, Dec. 8.—An extraordinary reversal of the conditions appears in the English meat market and it is likely that English beef will soon be palmed off as American. Hitherto the opposite has always been the case. But by clever manipulation the American salesmen have obtained control of the market until American beef costs as much as English beef. Hence the likelihood of substitutions. Commenting on this situation an English paper says: "The American salesmen now make prices almost what they like. In the English trade there was no organization to oppose them. The farmers have been in the hands of the butchers, whose cupidity led them into the arms of the Americans. The only active opposition the Americans had to meet lay in the prejudice of consumers. It has taken 20 years to beat that prejudice."
