LOW-PRICED LANDS.

It is a fact that productive lands can at present be bought in Morrow County cheaper than anywhere else on earth, and industrious homeseekers with means should come here and see for them-

B. F. Swaggart, who has been ranching and stock-raising near Heppner for the past 16 years, was interviewed yesterday as follows:

"How much land have you accumu lated since your settlement here 16 years ago?" "A little less than 4000 acres."

"How much stock do you keep on the place?"

"I have at present about 600 head." "You raise some mules, do you not?" "I have been raising a few. In the future I will raise more, as I now have 4 jacks for that purpose."

"You are breeding fine horses also?" "I have been giving that most of my time for the past 15 years. While horses have been very poor property the past 5 years, I continued raising them and mules. I will be well paid in the future, as horses, in my opinion, will continue to intrease in price for the next 5 years. Calfurness, imported from Australia, now heads my herd."

"When did you settle in Oregon?" "I was born in Oregon in 1854. Came to Morrow county in '71, remaining 2 years; moved to Palouse; returned to Umatilla county, where I lived 5 years; balance of the time I have lived in Morrow county."

"What is your idea as to land values, as you have seen the lands settled both in Morrow and Umatilla counties?"

"I can best illustrate what I have seen in the way of the increase in land values by giving you my own experience. I bought in '75 a claim in Umatilla county near where Athena is now located. I gave $200 for 240 acres, 160 government land, 80 railroad land, with a fair house and about one-half of the land under fence. In a few years I deeded 160 acres, 80 still railroad land. I sold this in 7 years for $4500. Today there is a standing offer for this land of $12,000, or $50 per acre. And this is the case with most all the good farms in Umatilla county. The climate is and has been changing all these years for the better, as the clouds hang lower and are more easily condensed, and I believe that dry seasons and drowths ranch and had run his sheep there for are things of the past.

"I well remember that 20 years ago we did not expect to have a crop more than every other year, and 20 bushels of they are dissatisfied and they expect that yield of wheat.

"Now Morrow county is speedily gaining on Umatilla county in climate and rainfall, and in the near future Morrow county is destined to be settled up and successfully farmed, and the valuations will not stop until the farming lands in Umatilla county, do you regret moving from there to Morrow?" "O no; I have increased handsomely my conditions, by more readily purchasing land here, which enables me to keep and handle fine stock, which is my chief delight. And the increase in Morrow county land will be a surprise to the old settlers in the very near to handling a good many acres of grain, and they have made money at it," he continued, "and so beet raising was entirely new to them, and a good many farmers have lost money at the new business. One man near La Grande contracted to raise 600 acres of beets and lost $10,000 at it, so was obliged to seek a release from a bad bargain. The Mormon families now coming in, however, stand a better chance of success, as they will handle only a few acres each, and will hire very little outside help. In this way there is a possibility of coming out shead in the business. I do not consider, therefore, that the sugar factory will be removed from Oregon, as has been threat-ened. The Utsh people have too much money invested in the plant and in land to draw out of it. The class of immigrants coming in from Salt Lake now are of an industrious, economical and thrifty sort, who will deal largely among themselves and thus make everything Heppner is in violation of common law count. They already have a town and justice. During free trade days it platted and a co-operative store is on the tapis. They will raise sheep were worth nothing.
