SORES AND ULCERS.

Sores and Ulcers never become chronic unless the blood is in poor condition — is sluggish, weak and unable to throw off the poisons that accumulate in it. The system must be relieved of the unhealthy matter through the sore, and great danger to life would follow should it heal before the blood has been made pure and healthy and all impurities eliminated from the system. S.S.S. begins the cure by first cleansing and invigorating the blood, building up the general health and removing from the system all morbid, effete matter.

A CONSTANT DRAIN UPON THE SYSTEM.

When this has been accomplished the discharge gradually ceases, and the sore or ulcer heals. It is the tendency of these old indolent sores to grow worse and worse, and eventually to destroy the bones. Local applications, while soothing and to some extent alleviate pain, cannot reach the seat of the trouble. S. S. S. does, and no matter how apparently hopeless your condition, even though your constitution has broken down, it will bring relief when nothing else can. It supplies the rich, pure blood necessary to heal the sore and nourish the debilitated, diseased body.

Mr. J. B. Talbert, Lock Box 245, Winona, Miss., says: "Six years ago my leg from the knee to the foot was one solid sore. Several physicians treated me and I made two trips to Hot Springs, but found no relief. I was induced to try S. S. S., and it made a complete cure. I have been a perfectly well man ever since."

SSS is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known — contains no poisonous minerals to ruin the digestion and add to, rather than relieve your sufferings. If your flesh does not heal readily when scratched, bruised or cut, your blood is in bad condition, and any ordinary sore is apt to become chronic.

FIRE AND WATER

Pierre, South Dakota, takes pride in the fact that it now owns its own water, gas, and electric lighting plants; and, further, in the fact that it is the only city in the Northwest which is supplied with natural gas. This supply is secured in an artesian flow of water at a depth of 1300 feet, the two wells owned by the city supplying about 150,000 cubic feet of gas per day of twenty-four hours. The wells are natural curiosities, for the reason that they furnish both water and fire from the same stream; and when the wells are allowed to run open, a torch touched to the stream of water spouting from the pipe will cause it to break into a roaring flame. The gas thus secured is separated from the water by allowing it to flow through a receiver, which allows the gas to rise, and it is retained.

Strikes a Rich Find.

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Slocum Drug Co.

A GOOD COUGH MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN.

"I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says F. P. Moran, a well-known and popular baker, of Petersburg, Va. "We have given it to our children when troubled with bad coughs, also whooping cough, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children as it contained no opium or other harmful drug." Sold by Conser & Warren, druggists.

GROWING.

A whole section of land upon which to experiment with grasses has been purchased by the O. R. & N. in Morrow county, 4 miles east of Castle Rock, and 40 acres have already been seeded to bunchgrass, [illegible] grass and Turkestan clover. C. E. Smith, a well-known expert on farming and livestock, has been superintending the preparation of the ground and planting of the seeds and [illegible] of satisfactory results. The whole section will be fenced with a [illegible] wire network, and all the grasses will thus be protected while growing. Disk harrows are used to prepare the light, alluvial soil for the seed, and ordinary harrows afterward finish the work. By next Fall will be known just what grasses succeed best in the arid region along the south side of the Columbia river, and this knowledge will be of immense benefit to the stock interests of the eastern portion of the state.

The bunchgrass seed was raised on the company's farm, near Walla Walla, and as this is the natural grass of that region, there is no question about its bountiful yield, even where the rainfall is not sufficient to mature a crop of wheat. Bunchgrass grew to perfection all over the section now blown up into sand dunes and grown up with sagebrush, but years of overstocking and the trampling of hordes of sheep, cattle and horses have long since killed it out. It will take time expense and protection to grow full crops of grass over this level stretch of country, but it will pay well in the end, by the increased number of stock supported.

The Turkestan clover resembles alfalfa, and thrives well in North Central Asia, where the soil and climate strongly resemble that of Eastern Oregon. The general government seeded 40 acres to this grass near North Yakima, Wash., last year, and the yield was very satisfactory.

Brome grass is a good deal like Kentucky blue grass, and produces well on light soil, where rain enough falls to enable wheat heads to fill. Whether it will do so well where the rain and snowfall are not sufficient to mature wheat is an experiment.—Oregonian.

THE PRAIRIE DOG.

The little prairie dog has at last called down upon himself the wrath of the department of agriculture, with its force of scientists, and if he survives the struggle that is to be made to bring about his extermination, he will prove himself crafty. For some time the scientists have been making a study of various agents that have been used for the destruction of prairie dogs, and have at last united in recommending poisoned grain and bisulphide of carbon as the most effective means of bringing about their destruction. It has been estimated that by employing the grain, that from 80 to 90 per cent of the animals may be destroyed at a cost of about 10 cents an acre. Where the grain fails to work, it is stated that the bisulphide of carbon is infallible, if properly applied. The department goes further, and gives printed instructions as to how the grain shall be poisoned, and the bisulphide applied to holes inhabited by these little animals. The whole matter seems to have been reduced to a science, with a complete system. The department is very enthusiastic in its mission of dealing out death to these pests. Extermination of prairie dogs at the low rate of 10 cents an acre, should appeal to every farmer, for it is a bargain never before equalled, and may not last long.

NOW FOR TREES.

I am now prepared to take orders for fruit, shade and ornamental trees, grape vines and small fruits, roses and shrubbery, which have been grown without irrigation by The Dalles Nurseries. My address is Hardman, and I will see that all stock is promptly delivered.

Harry Cummings.

HOME ARE HERE.

Eastern people now coming to the coast will be eminently satisfied with comparison of climatic conditions. Warm sunshine, buttercups by the roadside and crocuses blooming in the yards, green grass, budding trees and singing birds will appeal to them in more favorable terms than will several inches of snow, cold weather and and an occasional blizzard. There is abundant room in the Inland Empire for home seekers who have means to do with, and a united effort should be made to locate them here. Washington state is receiving her share and the boards of trade in her cities and towns are using endeavor to induce Eastern people and capital to abide within her borders. That Oregon will get a just share will depend upon the efforts that are put forth and the inducements that are offered.

TO FIRE IT OUT.

Capt. Evan Howell, of Georgia, was talking the other day to Sen. Platt about insomnia. "Now, suh," he said, "I have a sure cure for insomnia, and it is as simple as it is sure. When you go to bed and can't sleep, get up and take a drink. Go back to bed and wait half an hour. If you do not go to sleep, get up and take another drink. Repeat this, suh, at intervals of half an hour. If you do not go to sleep for four times, making four drinks, then, suh, if you are not asleep, you will not care whether you sleep or not."
