Rheumatism

Rheumatic pains are the cries of protest and distress from tortured muscles, aching joints and excited nerves. The blood has been poisoned by the accumulation of waste matter in the system, and can no longer supply the pure and health sustaining food they require. The whole system feels the effect of this acid poison; and not until the blood has been purified and brought back to a healthy condition will the aches and pains cease.

Mrs. James Kell, of 707 Ninth street, N. E., Washington, D. C., writes as follows: "A few months ago I had an attack of Sciatic Rheumatism in its worst form. The pain was so intense that I became completely prostrated. The attack was an unusually severe one, and my condition was regarded as being very dangerous. I was attended by one of the most able doctors in Washington, who is also a member of the faculty of a leading medical college here. He told me to continue his prescriptions and I would get well. After having it filled twelve times without receiving the slightest benefit, I declined to continue his treatment any longer. Having heard of S. S. S. (Swift's Specific) recommended for Rheumatism, I decided, almost in despair however, to give the medicine a trial, and after I had taken a few bottles I was able to hobble around on crutches, and very soon thereafter had no use for them at all, S. S. S. having cured me sound and well. All the distressing pains have left me, my appetite has returned, and I am happy to be again restored to perfect health."

SSS the great vegetable purifier and tonic, is the ideal remedy in all rheumatic troubles. There are no opiates or minerals in it to disturb the digestion and lead to ruinous habits.

We have prepared a special book on Rheumatism which every sufferer from this painful disease should read. It is the most complete and interesting book of the kind in existence. It will be sent free to any one desiring it. Write our physicians fully and freely about your case. We make no charge for medical advice.

IN COURT.

An attorney of prominence in Ohio, Tom Corwin, was trying a case "on circuit" in a small town where he was known only by name. The judge was apparently predjudiced against him, and he felt that he was not getting his rights and at length, in a fit of desperation, he said, "Your honor, it was in just such a court as this that Jesus Christ was convicted." "Sit down, Mr. Corwin," said the judge. "Mr. Clerk, enter a fine of $100 against Mr. Corwin for contempt of court." Corwin sat down, and immediately rose, remarking: "May it please the court, I am fairly well versed in history, both sacred and profane, and this is the first instance I have heard of where it was called contempt of court to insult Pontius Pilate." "Sit down, Mr. Corwin," repeated the judge; "Mr. Clerk, enter another fine of $100 against Mr. Corwin." Again the attorney arose and glanced leisurely around the court room. Then he addressed the bench. "I presume, your honor, that if the fine is not paid, I shall be put in jail?" "You certainly will, sir." "Well, your honor, I am a stranger in a strange land. I have looked around the court room and see no friends. I see no familiar face save that of your honor, and if the court would, in its wisdom, make me a personal loan of that $200 it would be a great convenience." The judge leaned forward. "Mr. Clerk," said he, "strike off those fines. The state can afford to lose the money much better than I can."

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but, when all other medicines failed, three $1 bottles of Dr King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure coughs, colds, la grippe, Bronchitis, and all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at Slocum Drug Co.

A GOOD COUGH MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN.

"I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says F. P. Moran, a well-known and popular baker, of Petersburg, Va. "We have given it to our children when troubled with bad coughs, also whooping cough, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children as it contained no opium or other harmful drug." Sold by Conser & Warren, druggists.

AWAY-FROM-HOME GIRL.

"Write your home letters regularly and keep in touch with your old friends by weekly correspondence, writes Margaret E. Sangster, in the March Ladies' Home Journal, addressing girls who have gone from home into the world to seek their livelihood. "Never let a Sunday afternoon drift out without your hour spent in an intimate and loving letter to the dear mother. This is a good occupation for Sunday, and I can hardly tell you how minute and confidential and affectionate this writing should be. But there is no need. You know what you would like to hear from home, and what mother and father most long for, when your letters come. I follow those letters. Mother is in the kitchen, washing the dishes. She wipes her hands and sits in the low rocking-chair by the window where the lilac is beginning to bud. Father stands between the table and the door, waiting to hear what you have said, and aware that he must wait until mother has satisfied heart with the first reading. Then it will be his turn. To them both you are, and always will be, just their own little girl, and you can never send them a line which they will not scan with eagerness. So never put off your family at home with a scrappy, hurried scrawl; take time; and tell them everything."

DRIVING A DOG TEAM.

Flying Over the Snows of Northern Canada in Rubber Skins.

The sled consists of a narrow box four feet long, the front half being covered or boxed in, mounted on a floor eight feet long resting on runners. In this box the passenger sits, wrapped in rabbit skins so that he can hardly move, his head and shoulders only projecting. In front and behind and on top of the box is placed all the luggage, covered with canvas, and securely lashed, to withstand all the jolting and possible upsets, and our snowshoes within easy reach. An important item is the dog-whip, terrible to the dog if used by a skillful hand and terrible to the user if he be a novice; for he is sure to half strangle himself or hurt his own face with the business end of the lash. The whip had a handle nine inches long and lash 30 feet, and weighed four pounds. The lash was of folded and plaited seal hide, and for five feet from the handle measured five inches round, then for 14 feet it gradually tapered off, ending in a single thong half an inch thick and 11 feet long. Wonderful the dexterity with which a driver can pick out a dog with this lash. The lash must be trailing at full length behind, when a jerk and turn of the wrist causes it to fly forward, the thick part first, and the tapering and continuing the motion till it is at full length in front, and the lash making the fur fly from the victim. But often it is made to crack over the heads of the dogs as a warning. The 11 dogs were harnessed to the front of the sled, each by a separate thong of seal hide, all of different lengths, fastened to a light canvas harness. The nearest dog was about 15 feet from the sled, and the leader, with bells on her, about 50 feet, the thongs thus increasing in length by about three feet. When the thong is good the dogs spread out like the fingers of a hand, but when the snow is deep they fall into each other's tracks in almost single file. As they continually cross and recross each other, the thongs get gradually plaited almost up to the rearmost dog, when a halt is called, the dogs are made to lie down, and the driver carefully disentangles them, taking care that no dog gets away meanwhile. They are guided by the voice, using "Husky," that is Eskimo, words; "owk," go to the right; "arrah," to the left, and "holt," straight on. But often one of the men must run ahead on snowshoes, for the dogs to follow him.—London (Ont.) Times.

Nationalities in Austria.

Foreigners are wont to classify Austria among the German countries. As a matter of fact, her German-speaking population is but limited, and annually losing ground. The increase in population among the German inhabitants of Austria is but 5.17 per thousand per year; the increase with the Italians in Austria is 5.92, and with the Slavonic races 7.93. Of one hundred marriageable women in the German districts forty-one find husbands; among the Slavonic races the percentage is fifty-two. One of the reasons for this showing is that in the German districts of Austria the economic management of affairs is almost prohibitory to marriage among the younger sons and daughters of the peasants. The homestead goes to the eldest son, whose brothers and sisters become his servants. Among the Slavs the family property is equally divided among all children after the death of the father, and each one is allowed to begin housekeeping on his own hook.

LARGE LOSSES.

In 100 years the government has lost through dishonest agents and officials approximately $16,000,000. Gradually a portion of these defalcations are being collected by Uncle Sam's agents. Occasionally some bondsman of a defaulter who failed to make good his pledge, has a balance due him from the government from some contract secured or services rendered, which is withheld and applied to his former indebtedness. In this way a considerable portion of the $16,000,000 due the United States is gradually being collected.

Re-imbursements were numerous in the Spanish American war. A number of men who were defaulters or who had been on the bonds of dishonest agents of the government, secured positions in the volunteer army. In some cases their unsatisfied obligations had been running on for a period of forty years. They supposed that the account had been lost sight of by Uncle Sam's agents. Imagine their surprise when the paymaster visited their regiments and tendered them, instead of their salary, a certificate of receipt for the amount of money due them, which had been applied on their old indebtedness to the government. In that way a good many thousands of dollars were collected in 1898-99.

For Brain Fag

Loss of mental energy, lack of thought power, failing memory or inability to concentrate the mind on the work in hand, there is nothing so good as Dr. Miles' Nervine. Its powerful influence in building up and strengthening the broken-down nerves, makes this great remedy an invaluable brain-food and restorative. It nourishes, fortifies and refreshes the tired and worn-out brain and gives new strength, new life, and new energy to the system.

"My nerves were debilitated, and I had much dullness, confusion of thought and inability to perform accustomed brain work. After severe mental effort I would be so overcome and weak that my stomach was greatly deranged. Hearing of Dr. Miles' Nervine I began taking it; and I truly believe a good share of the nerve energy I have since enjoyed is due to its influence." REV. L. STEERE, Douglas, Wyom.
