Poison Oak Poison Ivy

are among the best known of the many dangerous wild plants and shrubs. To touch or handle them quickly produces swelling and inflammation with intense itching and burning of the skin. The eruption soon disappears, the sufferer hopes forever; but almost as soon as the little blisters and pustules appeared the poison had reached the blood, and will break out at regular intervals and each time in a more aggravated form. This poison will loiter in the system for years, and every atom of it must be forced out of the blood before you can expect a perfect, permanent cure.

SSS Nature's Antidote for Nature's Poisons, is the only cure for Poison Oak, Poison Ivy, and all noxious plants. It is composed exclusively of roots and herbs. Now is the time to get the poison out of your system, as delay makes your condition worse. Don't experiment longer with salves, washes and soaps—they never cure.

Mr. S. M. Marshall, bookkeeper of the Atlanta (Ga.) Gas Light Co., was poisoned with Poison Oak. He took Sulphur, Arsenic and various other drugs, and applied externally numerous lotions and salves with no benefit. At times the swelling and inflammation was so severe he was almost blind. For eight years the poison would break out every season. His condition was much improved after taking one bottle of S. S. S., and a few bottles cleared his blood of the poison, and all evidences of the disease disappeared.

People are often poisoned without knowing when or how. Explain your case fully to our physicians, and they will cheerfully give such information and advice as you require, without charge, and we will send at the same time an interesting book on Blood and Skin Diseases.

SHUDDERS AT HIS PAST.

"I recall now with horror," says Mail Carrier Burnett Mann, of Levanna, O., "my three years of suffering from kidney trouble. I was hardly ever free from dull aches or acute pains in the back. To stoop or lift mail sacks made me groan. I felt tired, worn out, about ready to give up, when I began to use Electric Bitters, but six bottles completely cured me and made me feel like a new man." They're unrivalled to regulate stomach, liver kidneys and bowels. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed by Slocum Drug Co. Only 50 cents.

"My father and sister both died of consumption," writes J. T. Weatherwax, of Wyandotte, Mich., "and I was saved from the same frightful fate only by Dr. King's New Discovery. An attack of pneumonia left an obstinate cough and very severe lung trouble, which an excellent doctor could not help, but a few months' use of this wonderful medicine made me as well as ever and I gained much in weight." "It is with a good deal of pleasure and satisfaction that I recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Druggist A. W. Sawtelle of Hartford, Conn. "A lady customer, seeing the remedy exposed for sale on my show case, said to me: 'I really believe that medicine saved my life the past summer while at the shore,' and she became so enthusiastic over its merits that I at once made up my mind to recommend it in the future. Recently a gentleman came into my store so overcome with colic pains that he sank at once to the floor. I gave him a dose of this remedy which helped him. I repeated the dose in fifteen minutes he left my store smiling, informing me that he felt as well as ever." Sold by Conser & Warren, druggists.

WOMEN WORTH KNOWING.

MRS. BRADLEY-MARTIN is the owner of the crown once belonging to Marie Antoinette. This is a velvet cap with the insignia of royalty emblazoned upon it in precious stones.

MISS HELEN GOULD has endowed two cots at the Babies' shelter in New York. Let the beds always be used for the two most uninteresting children, is the only command which accompanies her gift.

MRS. CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW, who took an active interest in all subjects regarding the training of children, was always inexorably opposed to fairy tales. She believed in simply written histories and instructive games.

THE youngest telegraph operator in America is little Euphra, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Dunn, of West Point, Ga. The child has been about the office a great deal and quickly picked up the Morse alphabet. She can call up other operators, and receives messages with remarkable accuracy.

PERSONAL POINTERS.

SOME one, whose identity is a secret, has made Rev. Fr. H. A. Adams, of the Church of the Redeemer in New York, the recipient of a life income of $4,000 a year.

GEORGE DAVIS, a Penobscot Indian, who has lived in Boston for a number of years, has been seized with a yearning for his native camps, and has commenced a tramp back to the grounds of the tribe at Oldtown, Me.

CAPT. HARRY BARTLETT, who is to command Lieut. Peary's arctic exploring ship, is only twenty-nine years of age, but he has been fifteen years at sea and rates high as a navigator. He is the youngest of four brothers, all of whom are captains.

MR. E. D. LOOMIS, of New Haven, Conn., is so fond of railroad traveling that he travels one hundred and fifty-eight miles a day. Every day, for six days in the week, he journeys from his home to New York city, where he is engaged in business, and returns at night.

NEWSPAPER NOTES.

OF the world's fair number of the Youth's Companion 750,000 copies were sold in the first two weeks.

THE first newspaper published in the world was the Roman Acta Diurna, 691 B. C. The first one published in England, the Mercurius Aulicus, afterwards the Oxford, then London Gazette, was established in January, 1642.

THE newspapers of India are published in many languages, and it is said that those in the native tongues are more widely circulated and read, in proportion to the number of copies printed, than is the case anywhere else in the world.

THE oldest newspaper in the world is said to be the British Press, which was first issued in 1662 and has just celebrated its 271st birthday. Three years later the London Gazette appeared, being published at Oxford on account of the great plague in London.

A SLEEPING BEAUTY.

The Love Romance of the Present Emperor of Germany.

"When I was last summer in Denmark," says the Paris correspondent of Truth, "I went to Primkenau, where the dukes of Augustenburg had their residence. Empress Augusta Victoria was born and brought up there. The empress, as a child, had known, I was told by a member of the little ducal court, the emperor in childhood. But going to Cassel, and then to Bonn as a student, he lost sight of her. The acquaintance was renewed under romantic circumstances. When he was twenty or thereabouts he was sent in the early summer on a tour to Holstein, and extended it to Primkenau. The young princess was a finely grown girl and blooming as a rose. She somehow heard who was coming and dressed in her best to receive him. Growing tired of waiting she got into a hammock swinging in an arbor, which was scented with freshly-blown lilac. There she fell asleep.

The wandering prince came by the arbor, saw the sleeping beauty and was conquered. It is said that as he was gazing on her she was dreaming that, more fortunate than her mother, she was being wafted to a magnificent throne, and that an imperial crown had descended on her head. William did not mean to disturb the sleeping beauty, but, as usual, he was in uniform and the dragging of his sword on the asphalt of the summer house and the clanking of his spurs betrayed him. She awoke, and saw a pair of eyes that looked love at hers, and then she rushed away toward the residence. Presently her governess came to tell her that the crown prince of Prussia was there. Her mother, the duchess dowager, being ill, it devolved on Augusta Victoria to do the honors. She hastened to welcome the illustrious visitor. He lost no time in declaring himself her lover, and they were engaged before he left the house.

DONT'S FOR HUSBANDS.

DON'T forget that the true gentleman never uses profane or vulgar language; that he does not speak hastily.

DON'T hang about the kitchen, with advice here and suggestions there, unless your wife has the same privilege at your place of work or business.

DON'T pay a dollar for a lunch "down town," and half as much more for cigars, while you think up plans for greater economy in the family grocery bill.

DON'T require an itemized report of every dollar placed in her hands, even should she make an unwise expenditure; consider how many times you have given her the example.—Good Housekeeping.
