CAPTAIN RACKET.

The Comedy Drama by Home Talent Was a Success.

The comedy drama "Captain Racket," presented at the opera house in this city, Thursday evening, under the auspices of the Heppner Symphony Band was a very pleasing entertainment to the large audience in attendance. Every part was well taken, and the players acquitted themselves with credit.

Dr. M. B. Metzler who took the part of Captain Racket, carried the roll with ease. The facial expression and manner was an excellent representation of a man in a peak of trouble.

Mr. Arthur Clark as Obadiah Dawson, Captain Racket's distinguished uncle, presented a fine appearance as the man who was causing the trouble and did not know it. Mr. Clark's usual popularity was well sustained.

Mr. Vawter Crawford in Timothy Tolman, who married for money and was sorry of it, portrayed the character in such a realistic manner that he elicited sympathy from the audience. Every movement was that of a hen pecked husband. His delineation of a drunken man was highly spoken of, and his make up for a man who had been out for a time was perfect.

Heppner Backman in the roll of Mr. Dalroy, the Captain's father-in-law, acted the part well.

Garfield Crawford was a frisky waiter. Miss Elise Bartholomew, as Clarice the Captain's pretty wife made the character an interesting feature.

Mrs. Kate D. Steeves, as Mrs. Tolman, furnished the temper for the play. Her delineation of a disposition that was always vexed was worthy of especial mention.

Miss Grace Tildard was the mischievous maid in the play and was the picture of a mischievous disposition.

A very interesting feature of the entertainment was the specialty by Mr. Arthur Clark and Miss Elise Bartholomew, in a character song and skirt dance.

The drama was certainly a success.

AFTERMATH OF THE TOURNAMENT.

Heppner Boys Carry off the Most Important Prize.

The Gazette went to press last week but the contests were all over in the firemen's tournament, and consequently was unable to give the results of all the exercises.

The main event was the big championship race which was pulled off Thursday afternoon. The coveted prize was won by Heppner in a hard fought battle.

Dayton was awarded the consolation prize in a race against time.

Following are the new officers of the Eastern Oregon and Washington Firemen's Association.

B. A. McDonald of Dayton, president, re-elected; Dave McAtee of Heppner, vice president, re-elected; T. D. S. Hart of Walla Walla, secretary; James Hart of Heppner, assistant; J. H. Kelly of Walla Walla, R. J. Lincoln of La Grande and J. W. Morgan of Watsburg, directors; Hon. E. L. Freshard of Heppner was elected delegate to Pacific Coast Association of Fire Chiefs, which meets at Tacoma, in August.

Wedding of Miss Lillian Jordan and Louis McAtee.

Lillian Elizabeth Jordan, daughter of John Jordan, the wealthy railroad contractor, was married to Louis McAtee, at St. Joseph's church, by Rev. Father De Katter at 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

The church was elaborately decorated for the occasion. The altar was tastefully covered with American Beauty roses, lilies and carnations. Inside of the communion rail on either side were many beautiful potted ferns and palms.

As the bridal party entered the church the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march pealed from the organ under the feigning touch of Prof. Pierce.

The bride was charmingly gowned in white crepe de chine, prettily draped with a point lace bonnet, and carried a bouquet of exquisite bride's roses.

Miss Maud Wadsworth, the bridesmaid, was becomingly attired in a white chiffon, trimmed with coral lace and white satin ribbons. She carried a cluster of La France roses.

Dr. J. G. Cunningham was the best man.

After the ceremony, the wedding party, consisting only of relatives, drove to the home of the bride's parents at 1524 Broadway, where a wedding breakfast was served. The bridal table was set in the library, which was artistically decorated with American Beauty roses, blending with the perfect furnishings of the apartment.

The bride and groom held a reception in the parlor under a tower of roses and ferns, after which Mr. and Mrs. McAtee left on the Coast on the Northern Pacific morning train.

Among the many witty and beautiful proems were many humorous and gossamerous.

Miss Wadsworth's favor from the bride was an elegant diamond and pearl brooch.

Mr. McAtee is well known in Spokane, having represented Spokane county one term in the state legislature. For the past few years he has been operating in business at Bell's Camp, Idaho-Spokane-Spokane River.

Mr. McAtee is well known in Heppner and is brother of Mr. Tracy McAtee of this city.

Which was made from an ordinary wire, insulated with gutta serena, was laid across the English channel about fifty years ago. It was used about the same time that Hostetter's stomach Bitters, the world renowned dyspepsia cure, was first introduced to the public, and its success as a family medicine during those years about equals that of the submarine cable, while today it stands as the most reliable remedy for dyspepsia, indigestion, flatulency, constipation, biliousness, nervousness or insomnia.
