

1901 JULY 1901
Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
	1	2	3	4	5	6
7	8	9	10	11	12	13
14	15	16	17	18	19	20
21	22	23	24	25	26	27
28	29	30	31

The Heppner Gazette
THURSDAY, July 11, 1901

The Week's News

Local and Personal Happenings in and About the City.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Spencer are taking an outing in Idaho.

Wheat harvest is in progress in the vicinity of Lexington.

Merchant Hughes of Hardman, was a passenger for Portland, Monday.

M. A. Clarke, of Minor & Co.'s store made a business trip to Spray last week.

Mr. Earle McFarland, of Portland, is the guest of his nephew, Mr. W. B. Potter.

Mr. James Hager and daughters Misses Grace and Lulu went to Portland, Wednesday.

Wallace & Wells have moved their piano and organs next to Gentry & Sharpe's barber shop.

Mr. Carl Engel, who has been confined in a hospital in Portland for some time, returned Monday.

Mrs. W. B. Potter and children left Wednesday morning for Hood River, where they will spend the summer.

Mr. Wm. Ayres and family and Mr. J. A. Thompson and family have gone to Kitchen lake for summer outing.

Mr. Nat Webb, of Walla Walla, Wash., came to this city one day last week and is now out at his ranch on Rhee creek, making hay.

The Morrow county tax roll shows that Henry Heppner is the largest individual taxpayer in the county, having paid $1,300.50, Wednesday.

Mr. Ed. Herren of Salem, Mr. George Herren of Oregon City, Mr. Al George of Independence, Mrs. Willard Herren and Grandma Herren of Olex, departed for their respective homes on Monday morning's train.

Messrs. E. L. Freeland, J. M. Kerhan, Lou Kinney, T. A. Rhea, Wallace Lipsett and James Mitchell were up on Ditch creek, Sunday, on a trout fishing trip. The GAZETTE is informed by reliable authority that the catch did not exceed 2,000.

Matlock & Hart, Grocers.

The GAZETTE and Weekly Oregonian one year for $2.25.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smith of Hardman were in the city, Friday.

Go to Bishop's for everything you need in Hardware.

Smokers Attention! Go to Conser & Ayers Drug Co. for your cigars.

Fancy groceries especially adapted for city trade at Matlock & Hart's.

Mathews makes a specialty of filling mail orders for meats of all kinds.

Mr. Otis Welch of the firm of Rheu & Welch, departed Wednesday for Long Creek.

The GAZETTE job office is prepared to turn out all kinds of job printing on short notice.

The special advance advertising car of Sells and Gray's big circus was in the city over Monday.

Matlock & Hart have the handling of Judge Bartholomew's garden truck, fresh every morning.

When you have a sweet tooth, remember that the Conser & Ayers Drug Co. carries the finest line in the city.

Miss Eva Eagon and Mr. L. D. Henderson of Portland, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Conser, this week.

The Monthly New York World, ten numbers and the GAZETTE, one year for $1.50. Read ad. This is a liberal offer.

Conser & Ayers Drug Co. carries a full stock of knives and razors, which are fully guaranteed.

Mr. A. D. McAfee is a delegate to the Grand Lodge of Improved Order of Redmen which meets at Baker, July, 23.

Mr. Trumbull, wool buyer for the Pendleton scouring mill, is now out of the market, having gone to Fairland, Conn.

J. L. Hockett, who has been a contractor here for some time, has decided to put in a line of stationery on the corner of Main and May streets.

Welch's pure, unfermented grape juice will be found to be the best health builder on the market, and being unfermented, is also good for sacramental purposes. Conser & Ayers Drug Co.

One satisfaction of buying at Matlock & Hart's is that when you get groceries, bags you have the comfortable certainty that you are not getting bargain groceries. They sell nothing but the highest quality.

Mr. Jess Shelley returned from Spray, Tuesday.

Jelly glasses and fruit jars at Matlock & Hart's.

Major Gilliam returned Saturday from a visit to Spray.

Len and Ben Martin start today overland for Oklahoma.

Blackberries are next. Place your orders with Matlock & Hart's.

Several bands of gypsies are camping in the vicinity of Heppner.

S. A. Cross, a hotel keeper at Spray, called at the GAZETTE office Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Zollinger were in the city from their mountain home, yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Bishop and daughter, Lillian, left this morning for San Francisco.

Go to the Dog and Pony Show, and you will be able to more fully realize the intelligence of animals.

The ladies of the Baptist church will serve lettuce on Saturday, July 13, in J. L. Young's furniture store.

Mrs. E. Minor was a passenger for Hood River, yesterday, where she goes to spend a summer vacation.

Interesting for the old, amusing for the young, L. J. Whitney's Dog and Pony Show, Heppner, Tuesday, July 16.

County Clerk, Victor Crawford and Edith Shultz left this morning for a fishing trip in the mountains. The sunny tribe will suffer.

Mrs. Mamie Luthwaite, who has been the guest of the Misses Tillard, in this city, returned to her home at Oregon City, Wednesday.

City Marshal Gus Thornton has been busy during the past week in looking after a general clean up of the streets. He informs the GAZETTE that several new sidewalks will be built in the near future.

Mr. M. D. Hayman a pioneer resident of Heppner, who has been at Dayton, Wash., for the past two years, is in the city visiting old friends and relatives. Mr. Hayman is suffering with foot trouble and is here for his health. His many friends here hope for his speedy recovery.

Mr. Swinkelman received a telephone message Tuesday morning from Hardman, stating that Chas. Baker of the latter place had been poisoned by taking carbolic acid. The doctor immediately started for Mr. Baker's place, but was stopped when about half way out by another phone message stating that the man was all right and did not need a physician.

The Heppner Symphony band, has band traps and citizens all speak in high terms of the courteous treatment received at the hands of Pendleton people during the Fourth and baseball tournament.

A very pleasant time is reported by all who were there. The music furnished by the Heppner symphony band was highly spoken of by Pendleton visitors. In the baseball tournament, Heppner and Athena tied for first and second money. Out of the three games played by Heppner during the tournament, the results are as follows:

On the 5th, Heppner won from Dayton by a score of 8 to 7. On the 6th, Heppner won from Pendleton by a score of 10 to 4. Heppner played good ball and earned of the men's share of the prize money. The boys are to be congratulated upon their success.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ayers departed Wednesday morning for the Williamette Valley. They will go the coast to spend the summer for the benefit of Mrs. Ayers' health.

Twelve head of range horses belonging to the Dr. A. J. Shuler estate, were sold at public auction at the stock yards in this city, Tuesday. The horses were fairly good animals and brought an average price of $7.50 per head.

Jess Smith came in from Heppner last Friday with freight for merchants of this place and John Day. Next Smith, of Fox valley, arrived from Heppner last Friday with freight for the Eagle office—Blue Mountain Eagle.

Howard's grocery store is a very popular place for the purchase of supplies for farmers and outfit for outing in the way of extra fine groceries. Almost everything imaginable kept in stock its hands where you can get anything you want.

Thos. Seigel writes to the GAZETTE from Union under date of July 8, stating that he left the winter range on May 7, with a band of sheep consisting of 2,432 ewes and lambs, headed for the Minam river. The trip was an arduous one having to cross one desert 15 miles across. He says that he has now found good range and the sheep are doing well.

Ed McLetson's delivery horse for the bakery was the principal actor in a lively runaway, Monday. The animal became frightened at a street sprinkler, and breaking loose started to run. The wagon was overturned and firmly landed on its side up against an electric light pole on 7th Street. The wagon was almost a complete wreck. The horse was not badly hurt.

Drs. House and Kistner are the attending physicians.

L. Whitney's Dog and Pony Show.

This speaks plainly, referring to the exhibition given by the Whitney named animal show at Spokane, says.

Most is interested and entitles people to call the management of Whitney's Dog and Pony show yesterday afternoon and evening and judging from the general interest of opinion among those who witnessed the performance, the best show of the kind in America. Last evening the audience, made up largely of women and children, was entertained for two hours and a half in a most enjoyable manner. The ponies performed some most wonderful tricks under the direction of the horses. These ponies, said the showmen, are the greatest that has been seen for many days past. The performances of great dancing, strolling and amusing walk, they also gave out of the first class, and indeed glories. Put it all together, you will have the best and most profitable meeting of the year.

The Rock Creek Camp Meeting closed on the Fourth of July. The attendance was very good, though not so large as had been anticipated. On Sundays the tendency was as large as the arrangements could accommodate. The interest was good from the beginning to the end. There were five meetings for two hours and a half in a most enjoyable manner. The ponies performed some most wonderful tricks under the direction of the horses. These ponies, said the showmen, are the greatest that has been seen for many days past. The performances of great dancing, strolling and amusing walk, they also gave out of the first class, and indeed glories. Put it all together, you will have the best and most profitable meeting of the year.

Welch's pure, unfermented grape juice will be found to be the best health builder on the market, and being unfermented, is also good for sacramental purposes. Conser & Ayers Drug Co.

One satisfaction of buying at Matlock & Hart's is that when you get groceries, bags you have the comfortable certainty that you are not getting bargain groceries. They sell nothing but the highest quality.

Mr. Jess Shelley returned from Spray, Tuesday.

Jelly glasses and fruit jars at Matlock & Hart's.

Major Gilliam returned Saturday from a visit to Spray.

Len and Ben Martin start today overland for Oklahoma.

Blackberries are next. Place your orders with Matlock & Hart's.

Several bands of gypsies are camping in the vicinity of Heppner.

S. A. Cross, a hotel keeper at Spray, called at the GAZETTE office Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Zollinger were in the city from their mountain home, yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Bishop and daughter, Lillian, left this morning for San Francisco.

Go to the Dog and Pony Show, and you will be able to more fully realize the intelligence of animals.

The ladies of the Baptist church will serve lettuce on Saturday, July 13, in J. L. Young's furniture store.

Mrs. E. Minor was a passenger for Hood River, yesterday, where she goes to spend a summer vacation.

Interest for the old, amusing for the young, L. J. Whitney's Dog and Pony Show, Heppner, Tuesday, July 16.

County Clerk, Victor Crawford and Edith Shultz left this morning for a fishing trip in the mountains. The sunny tribe will suffer.

Mrs. Mamie Luthwaite, who has been the guest of the Misses Tillard, in this city, returned to her home at Oregon City, Wednesday.

City Marshal Gus Thornton has been busy during the past week in looking after a general clean up of the streets. He informs the GAZETTE that several new sidewalks will be built in the near future.

Mr. M. D. Hayman a pioneer resident of Heppner, who has been at Dayton, Wash., for the past two years, is in the city visiting old friends and relatives. Mr. Hayman is suffering with foot trouble and is here for his health. His many friends here hope for his speedy recovery.

Mr. Swinkelman received a telephone message Tuesday morning from Hardman, stating that Chas. Baker of the latter place had been poisoned by taking carbolic acid.

The doctor immediately started for Mr. Baker's place, but was stopped when about half way out by another phone message stating that the man was all right and did not need a physician.

The Heppner Symphony band, has band traps and citizens all speak in high terms of the courteous treatment received at the hands of Pendleton people.

The Heppner Symphony band, has band traps and citizens all speak in high terms of the courteous treatment received at the hands of Pendleton people.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ayers departed Wednesday morning for the Williamette Valley. They will go the coast to spend the summer for the benefit of Mrs. Ayers' health.

Twelve head of range horses belonging to the Dr. A. J. Shuler estate, were sold at public auction at the stock yards in this city, Tuesday. The horses were fairly good animals and brought an average price of $7.50 per head.

Thos. Seigel writes to the GAZETTE from Union under date of July 8, stating that he left the winter range on May 7, with a band of sheep consisting of 2,432 ewes and lambs, headed for the Minam river.

The trip was an arduous one having to cross one desert 15 miles across. He says that he has now found good range and the sheep are doing well.

Ed McLetson's delivery horse for the bakery was the principal actor in a lively runaway, Monday. The animal became frightened at a street sprinkler, and breaking loose started to run.

The wagon was overturned and firmly landed on its side up against an electric light pole on 7th Street. The wagon was almost a complete wreck. The horse was not badly hurt.

Drs. House and Kistner are the attending physicians.

L. Whitney's Dog and Pony Show.

This speaks plainly, referring to the exhibition given by the Whitney named animal show at Spokane, says.

Most is interested and entitles people to call the management of Whitney's Dog and Pony show yesterday afternoon and evening and judging from the general interest of opinion among those who witnessed the performance, the best show of the kind in America. Last evening the audience, made up largely of women and children, was entertained for two hours and a half in a most enjoyable manner. The ponies performed some most wonderful tricks under the direction of the horses. These ponies, said the showmen, are the greatest that has been seen for many days past. The performances of great dancing, strolling and amusing walk, they also gave out of the first class, and indeed glories. Put it all together, you will have the best and most profitable meeting of the year.

Christian church—Rev. F. L. Brightford pastor. Services at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Morning subject, "The Great Need of Our Christ." Evening subject, "Foundation Work." Sunday school 10 a. m. You are cordially invited to attend all these services.

Baptist church—W. B. Woottton pastor. Services each Sunday, morning and evening. Morning subject, "Victory." Evening subject, "Prodit & Loss."

Methodist church—Rev. L. C. Brightford pastor. Services at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Morning subject, "A Family Woman." In the evening Rev. A. J. Carlson will give a talk on the subject, "Christian State Convention." Sunday school 10 a. m. You are cordially invited to attend all these services.

Catholic church—Rev. Father Kelly, Services 3d Sunday in each month at 10:30 a. m. Beginning Nov. 18.