Miss Kandle who has been the guest of Miss Myrt Bryant, returned to her home at Portland, Friday.

Living your old books to Slocum's drug store and get new ones for little money. We have been appointed agents.

Miss Lillian Bisbee returned Friday evening from San Francisco, where she has been attending the Epworth League convention.

The corner stone of the new brick building for the use of the Eastern Oregon State Normal School, was laid at Weston, Friday.

Attorney C. E. Redfield returned Tuesday evening from the East. Mr. Redfield visited Buffalo and the exposition during his trip.

To Farmers—We will supply cabbage from now on in quantities over 50 pounds at 2 1/2 cents per pound. Fresh every morning. Matlock & Hart.

Geo. Hayden's sawmill at Wagner was destroyed a few days ago by fire. The GAZETTE is unable to learn the particulars. Mr. Hayden will rebuild the mill as soon as possible.

One satisfaction of buying at Matlock & Hart's is that when you get grocery bargains you have the comfortable certainty that you are not getting bargain groceries. They sell nothing but the choicest staples.

Howard's grocery store is a very popular place for the purchase of supplies for farmers and outfits for outing in the way of extra fine groceries. Almost everything imaginable kept in stock. It's handy where you can get anything you want.

Mr. G. W. Crabtree has opened up the "Palm" confectionery store and ice cream parlors in the building formerly occupied by M. B. Galloway on Main street. Mr. Crabtree has a very neat and attractive place. Customers can rest assured of good treatment from the accommodating clerk, Garfield Crawford.

Dr. E. R. Hunlock and family departed Wednesday for Spray where the doctor will locate permanently in the drug business and the practice of his profession. Dr. and Mrs. Hunlock have many friends in Heppner who join with the GAZETTE in wishing them success in their new location.

The absence of the street sprinkler is again noticeable. Owing to so much water being taken out of Willow creek above Heppner, for irrigation purposes and a bad condition of the flume that carries the water to the city tank, the supply is again short. Just how long the shortage will continue is a matter of much concern to Heppner people.

The Oregon Wool Growers' Association will meet in Heppner on Tuesday, September 17. No program has yet been arranged. Indications are that this will be a meeting well attended by wool growers and others interested in the great wool industry of the Inland Empire. Heppner should take an interest in this meeting and see that the visitors are well entertained.

Mayor Frank Gilliam enjoyed a good day's grouse shooting up at the forks of Rhea Creek Monday. Mr. Gilliam was in a crack shot is entitled to the championship so far, having secured the limit of ten birds. Not only did he get the limit, but as soon as he got back collected his pockets full of cigars that were coming to him from wagers that he had made as to the number he would kill. He reports having seen numerous coveys of blue grouse that are now just the right size for a delicious fry. The young birds are now lingering around the edge of the mountains along the water courses during the hot season. A little later on they will take to tall timber.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Bisbee returned Monday evening from San Francisco.

Prof DeLegro has moved into the residence property formerly occupied by Dr. Hunlock.

Mr. H. Gove, who is teaching school about 4 miles west of Heppner, left Wednesday for the seacoast.

Fred Ashbaugh and G. R. Jones, of Eight Mile, purchased a large Cyclone separator from Gilliam & Bisbee.

Mr. J. B. Beal, who has been in the confectionery business in Heppner for some time, left for Forest Grove Wednesday.

Any information regarding the exchange of school books can be had at Slocum's drug store. They have been appointed agents.

Messrs H. L. Harris and D. M. Taylor, of The Dalles, were Heppner visitors last Thursday and Friday. Mr. Harris is buying wool for The Dalles scouring mill.

Free on exhibition, Galloway's new Studio. It costs you nothing to call and see the best equipped Studio ever fitted out in this country. The light is especially adapted to groups.

The Davenport planing mill and box factory at Haynes, three miles west of Hood River, was destroyed by fire last Thursday morning, incurring a loss of $10,000, with no insurance. The fire consumed nine freight cars of the O. R. & N. Co., that were standing on a siding. The mill gave employment to about 30 hands and will be rebuilt.

A fire in a grain field of Charles Watkins, near Adams, one day last week, caused a loss of 1300 sacks, or about 2800 bushels of wheat. The fire caught from sparks from a passing threshing engine. The previous day 70 sacks belonging to William McCormack, near Havana, were destroyed by a fire which started by sparks from a thresher.

The O. R. & N. Co. is offering a special rate of $8.30 for round trip tickets from Heppner to the celebrated Hot Lake resort. Tickets will be on sale all the year around good going one day with final limit of thirty days from date of sale. Tickets must be signed by passenger and stamped at hotel before they will be good for return passage.

The autumn type of weather has appeared. Smoky atmosphere and cool nights with plenty of dust. The extreme hot weather of the season is probably over and the advent of cooler weather is welcomed by all. While the month has been quite warm, in comparison with the hot wave in the East, we should not complain. It has been fine weather for harvesting the great grain crop of the Inland Empire.

H. D. Wood, who recently purchased Beal & Co.'s confectionery store in this city, is fitting the place up in the shape of a new stand will be known as the Palace and the ice cream parlors will be nicely and neatly furnished where delicious ice cream will be served and a little later on oysters will be put up in any style. The building will be remodelled making the place very attractive. Mr. Wood was formerly connected with the Sweet Candy Co. of Portland, and thoroughly understands his business.

Mr. Ollie Andrews while working on his new residence building in this city, met with quite serious accident, Saturday last. He started to go to the roof and was carrying in his hand a large chisel with the point downward. In stepping from a scaffold to the roof he struck his thigh against the sharp edge of the chisel, the blade of which was one and one half inches in width, and penetrated his leg going almost to the bone, making a serious and painful wound. Dr. Swinburne is attending the injured man.

Mr. N. S. Whitstone's racing horses Geo. Dewey, Irate and B. C. Green, in charge of B. F. Whitstone, left Saturday morning for Everett, Wash., where they will be entered in the Fall races in that city, commencing September 10. From Everett they will go on the circuit to Whatcom, and from there to the Oregon State Fair at Salem. This is a string of good young horses and they will very likely make a good showing. These youngsters are good mannered and well bred and ought to carry off a good share of prizes.

Duprat & Sargent, of Pendleton, contractors for the stone work on Frank Roberts' new building are now actively engaged on the foundation with a force of seven men. Stone taken from just below the depot will only be used for the foundation work, as it is too hard for satisfactory work in the main building. Building material for the main building will be taken from a quarry near Ione. This stone works nicely and will make a handsome building. The foundation work will be finished by Saturday night. The GAZETTE is informed by the contractors that it will take about 40 days to do the stone work on the building.

Ione news notes taken from the Post: Wood reaches us from the Olex country that the threshing outfit belonging to Mat Ward was completely destroyed by fire Wednesday. Miss Bertha Jones, of Heppner, visited her sister, Miss Elsie Jones, who is stopping with her niece Miss Myrtle Mitchell, during the absence of Mrs. Mitchell in Idaho.

T. W. Wester drove to Heppner last Monday on business. He was accompanied by Miss Ivy Shelton. Mr. Wester returned to Heppner again last evening. The furniture for the new bank has arrived and is being placed in the front part of Mr. J. A. Woolery's store. It is only a matter of a few days until a thorough banking business will be in progress at this location. The business men of Ione and farmers nearby are exceedingly well pleased with this venture of our most enterprising citizen and we all join in wishing Mr. Woolery every possible success.

T. R. Howard for fine groceries.

Mr. Hamilton of Arlington, is the guest of J. M. Kernan.

Rev. H. L. Beightol returned Saturday from the Buffalo exposition.

About 10,000 pounds of wool was brought in from Hamilton, Tuesday.

If your face is out of shape get it fixed at Galloway's. Latest mountings now in stock.

Mrs. George Thornton and children returned Tuesday evening from a month's visit at Sumpter.

The first new wheat of the season was brought in Monday by Ed Ashbaugh, of Eight Mile. The quality was No. 1.

Cashier Geo. Conser returned Tuesday from British Columbia, where he has been looking after mining interests.

Messrs. W. S. Lytle and Willard Heron came down from Hamilton, Oregon railroad & Coal Company's mine yesterday evening.

A marriage license was issued yesterday by County Clerk Crawford to Joseph W. Baird and Lucy Catherine Foster, D. E. Gilman, witness.

Messrs. John Cochran, W. J. Morrison, J. Ball and Will Corson, of Ione, passed through town Wednesday, on their way to Ditch creek.

Its no hot air talk when I say I can successfully photograph 75 people in one group under my new light. Seeing is believing. Let the blind see. Galloway.

The repairing of old sidewalks and building of new ones in the city, is a great improvement. At the present rate Heppner will soon have fine walks all over the city which is a credit to any town.

City Marshal Geo. Thornton informs the GAZETTE that he will soon commence the regular fall clean up of every street in the city. This is something that property owners should take an interest in and help the efficient officer in the work. The sanitary condition of any city is of vital importance.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Justus and children, Mrs. J. W. Roberts and son, Mrs. Clyde Wells, Mrs. J. W. Matlock and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Matlock returned Tuesday from the mountains up at John Zollinger's place at the head of Rhea Creek. They report that wild raspberries are quite plentiful in that district. The party brought home about 50 gallons.

Mr. Joe Stariba of Hardman was in the city yesterday. He had with him a badly worn paper that attracted considerable attention. It was about two thirds of the front page of the Oregonian bearing date of Wednesday, December 4, 1850, Vol. 1 No. 1. On the front corner of the editorial page was the salutatory article to the people of Oregon, showing that it was a copy or a reprint copy of the first issue of the paper. Mr. Stariba secured the paper under peculiar circumstances. About eight years ago while riding along a desert region on the Umatilla River, he noticed a paper among the sage brush, partly covered with sand, but did not pay much attention to it. About two years ago he was riding through the same locality, and noticing a paper, remembered seeing something there before. He picked it up and it was the copy of the old Oregonian. Whether it was the paper he saw there eight years before, Mr. Stariba does not know. How it came there away out in the sand, miles from anybody, no one knows. While there is a bare possibility of it being a genuine old copy, it is more likely that it is a souvenir reprint of the Oregonian gotten out by that paper on its 50th anniversary and sent out the first of this year.

Death of Mrs. Shutt.

Editor E. M. Shutt received the sad intelligence Saturday evening of the death of his mother, August 10th, who lived near Pittsburg Pennsylvania. She had been sick for 8 months and it was due to her wonderful vitality that she survived this length of time, being 72 years of age.

Mrs. Shutt had been married 54 years and raised a family of 13 children—seven boys and six girls—all surviving her. Her husband is now 76 and is in apparent good health. The family has lived on the old home place for 50 years and all the children were raised there.

The funeral took place on the 12th inst. the remains being carried to its last resting place by her five sons.

Messrs. E. M. and Sloan P. Shutt are the only children that came West, and were unable to attend the funeral. E. M. Shutt is editor of the Heppner Times of this place, and Sloan P. Shutt is editor of the Granite Gem in Grant county.

Teachers' Certificates Granted.

The regular teachers' examination of applicants for state and county papers, conducted by Prof. J. W. Shipley county superintendent, assisted by Mrs. J. W. Shipley and Prof. W. L. Saling, closed Friday at the court house in this city. Certificates were issued as follows:

First grade—Mrs. Catherine D. Stevens, Heppner; Miss Charlotte Shipley, Heppner; Miss Ossie Howard, Heppner.

Second grade—Jess Shelton, Heppner.

Third grade—Ward R. Ellis, Heppner; Miss Pearl A. Jones, Gardlane.
