A correspondent writing from Susanville to the Canyon City News, has the following to say about the Heppner Mining Co: The Heppner Mining Co. has done good work. They have built a nice blacksmith shop and have sunk a 60-foot shaft on the Illinois mine. The ledge is about five feet wide and is free milling ore, prospecting from the grass roots down.

A great many people in Heppner got up Friday morning thoroughly impressed that the night before was Halloween. Young America was out and the usual pranks were played. There was no real damage to property, everything being in the order of good nature. The ringing of door bells, the moving of gates and the change of location of wagons and other loose articles was the extent of the fun. There was very little complaint.

A novel and handsome paper weight consisting of a glass case filled with beautiful shells of different kinds arranged in attractive order, was presented to the GAZETTE by the Conser & Ayers Drug Co. On one of the larger shells in the center of the case are the words: "Compliments of Conser & Ayers Drug Co., Heppner, Ore." A number of these handsome souvenirs were distributed.

James L. McCabe's "Maloney's Wedding Day" will take place at the Heppner opera house, on Friday, Nov. 15th. It is the merriest jumble of fun and wholesome comedy ever put together. The company is headed by James L. McCabe and comes heralded by press and public as capable of amusing an audience through three acts of this brightest comedy drama presented this season.

Miss Lillian Ewing was the recipient of a very pleasant surprise party by the little folks on the evening of Halloween, at the spacious residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ewing in this city. Games, merriment and refreshments were pleasant features of the enjoyable evening. Following were present: Misses Opal Briggs, Fern Estes, Mabel Howard, Mary Gunn, Bella Gunn, Eva Morrison, Nettie Matthews, Willa Herren, Sybil Hager, Junita Matlock, Rena Meadows, Blanch Redfield, Alma McBride, Hazel Carr, Lillian Ewing; Messrs. Marcus Gunn, Nelson Bartholomew, Jimmy Leland, Abie Blackman.

Chas. Kaser was quite seriously hurt Tuesday while working on the new building which is being erected by Mr. Slocum, on Main street. A scaffold on which he was standing gave way and he was precipitated to the ground, a distance of about twelve feet. In the fall his chin struck a timber, cutting an ugly gash and badly bruising his jaws and face. Had he struck a little lower down on the neck, the result would have been much more serious. As it is he is nursing a very sore chin. Fortunately no bones were broken. He is now getting along nicely under the care Dr. Swinburne.

There was a very pleasant party at the residence of Prof. and Mrs. D. V. S. Reed Tuesday evening, given by the young people of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Christian church. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Vawter Crawford, Misses Howard, Mabel Shipley, Millie Wood, Dora Prater, Cora Prater, Gertrude Crawford, Ethel Reid, Lenna Reid, Esther Ford, Mattie Stroud, Etta Morrison, Bessie Edwards, Maggie Adkins, Bula Barker and Leta Humphrey, and Mesdames Humphrey, Jones, Gray; Messrs. Ora Adkins, Warren Ashbaugh, Clarence Bishop, Victor Carlson, Will Saling, Oscar Borg and Clyde Brock.

Catarrh

Is a discharge from the mucous membrane of the nose, throat, stomach, bowels etc., when kept in a state of inflammation by an impure condition of the blood and a want of tone in the system.

Soothes the inflamed membrane, strengthens the weakened system, and the discharge will stop—to do this purify the blood.

"I was troubled with catarrh for years and tried various remedies but found nothing that would cure me. I then resolved to try Hood's Sarsaparilla and took four bottles which entirely cured me. I have never been troubled with catarrh since. As a blood purifier I can find nothing else equal to Hood's Sarsaparilla." WILLIAM SIZEMAN, 1030 6th St., Milwaukee, Wis.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures catarrh radically and permanently—removes its cause and overcomes all its effects.

New Year Edition.

The GAZETTE will undertake the publication of a New Year edition. The paper will appear on January 1st. It will be presented in magazine form, illustrated with half tones and printed on fine enameled book paper. The resources and advantages of Heppner and Morrow county will be explained in a readable and attractive form, making the souvenir edition a credit to the city of Heppner. It will be a home production. The printing will all be turned out from job office of the GAZETTE from new type. It means a lot of hard work, expense and enterprise, but the GAZETTE will try to keep right along with the procession. There will be extra copies for sale. Those desiring copies to send to friends in the East should leave orders between now and the time of publication.

Stop the Cough and Works off the Cold. Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No Cure, no Pay. Price 25 cents.

Death of Miss Bishop.

Miss Anna Bell Bishop died Wednesday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Luna Bishop in Pendleton. The cause of her death was heart trouble from which she has been ill three months. Her death had been expected for several days and it has caused universal sorrow in the community.

She was born at The Dalles, September 7, 1863 and came to Pendleton in 1871, where she has since resided. She was the daughter of the late R. B. Bishop. She leaves a mother, one brother, E. R. Bishop of Heppner, and two sisters, Mrs. J. E. Bean of Pendleton and Mrs. Thorpe Roberts of Prosser, Wash. All are in Pendleton except E. K. Bishop who is at present in California.—Pendleton Tribune.

James L. McCabe in "Maloney's Wedding Day," comes to the Heppner opera house, November 15, heralded by press and public opinion as a delightful weltering of the most enjoyable dramatic surprises. "It bristles with the richest fun and most amusing of comedy situations," says one paper. "It's a good long laugh from start to finish," asserts another, and through a score of press notices Dan Maloney and the Widow Clancy are pronounced the most original humorists of stage characterizations. The story and plot of the play is of the comedy-drama order and is intensely interesting, constant and natural. The character types introduced are true to life, and a ripe, rich, refreshing vein of comedy sparkles through its entire three acts, and catchy specialties are introduced to relieve its few serious hours. The company is an ideal one, headed by the clever comedian, James L. McCabe, who appears as Dan Maloney.
